MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE

From the thrill of an athletic victory to the agony of an academic defeat, more goes on at Brentwood than meets the eye. For some, school is a prison; to others, it is the necessary transitional element between childhood and adulthood. But to Brentwood students, it's a way of life. Each does not only learn the basics of English, math, and science; and each teacher does not only teach the academic solids. Because there is more to life than just the basics.

The 1987 Aerie Staff decided that it was time to give everyone an inside look at what really goes on everyday. Whether it be someone sleeping in class or warming up for the big game, there is more to us than it appears. Our faculty not only teaches, but also they are coaches, advisors, chess players, and master musicians. We, the students; are athletes, photographers, singers, journalists, and much more, preparing to be tomorrow's future.

We are asking you to keep in mind that not everything is as it seems. Your high school years will fly by much too fast, so stop and take advantage of every opportunity this school offers. Next time you see a teacher or a student, remember that there is more to him or her than what you see. We now present to you the 1987 yearbook. For your eyes only . . .

SENIOR DEDICATION

MR. EDWARD MC CATTY

Most students go through life fearing their teachers, regarding them as the enemy. However, some students have been fortunate enough to have someone who makes a difference in their lives.

Being at Brentwood we have an advantage; our faculty is a select group of people — they care.

The Senior Class of 1987 would like to thank Mr. Edward McCatty for making a difference in our lives. Mr. McCatty showed us that "Truth is beauty, beauty truth." He challenged us to learn, to explore, and to realize our true potential. He not only opened our eyes, but he taught us to see. Learning was no longer a chore; it became something we looked forward to eagerly. Never before have we had so much respect and admiration for one man.

Mr. McCatty, We appreciate everything you have given us. You shed a new light on knowledge that inspired us to learn. Because of your candidness, we are better prepared, knowing what to expect from ourselves and from others. You treat us as equals and respect our views and ideas, giving us advice that will be valuable throughout our lifetimes. So, the Senior Class of 1987 proudly dedicates this yearbook to you, Mr. Edward McCatty.

ACTIVITIES

2:05. Tuesday afternoon. The dreary classroom faces start to change and lighten as they drift out of class, anticipating their activity. While some students are thinking of hitting the beach and the waves, others are pondering whether to implement the Queen's or the King's gambit in their upcoming chess match with Mr. Allen. But whatever the activity is, the time on Tuesday between 2:05 and 3:00 is a chance for all Brentwoodians, students and teachers alike, to let down their hair and enjoy themselves.

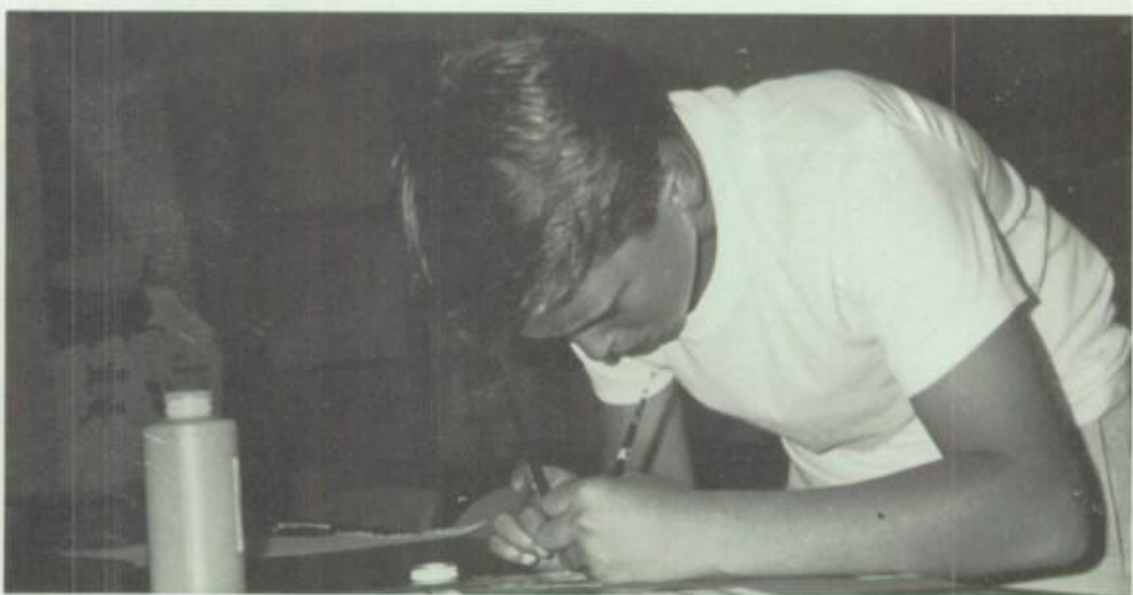

But the activities period is not only for enjoyment. It is also an opportunity for personal expression and change. Many students and teachers during activities take on new and totally unexpected roles around the school.

The seemingly simple teacher shows another side of himself by leading a current events discussion. A jock expresses herself in a manner by being a V.A. volunteer. And a brain shows that there is much more to him than just studying when he takes on the responsibilities of Student Senate.

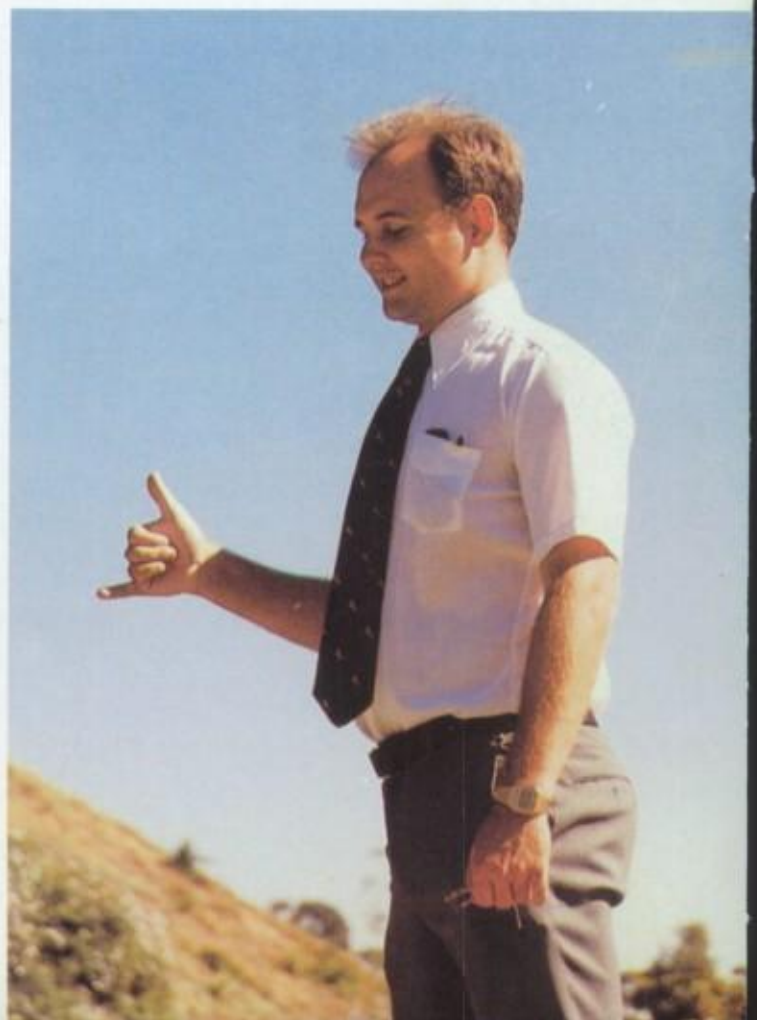

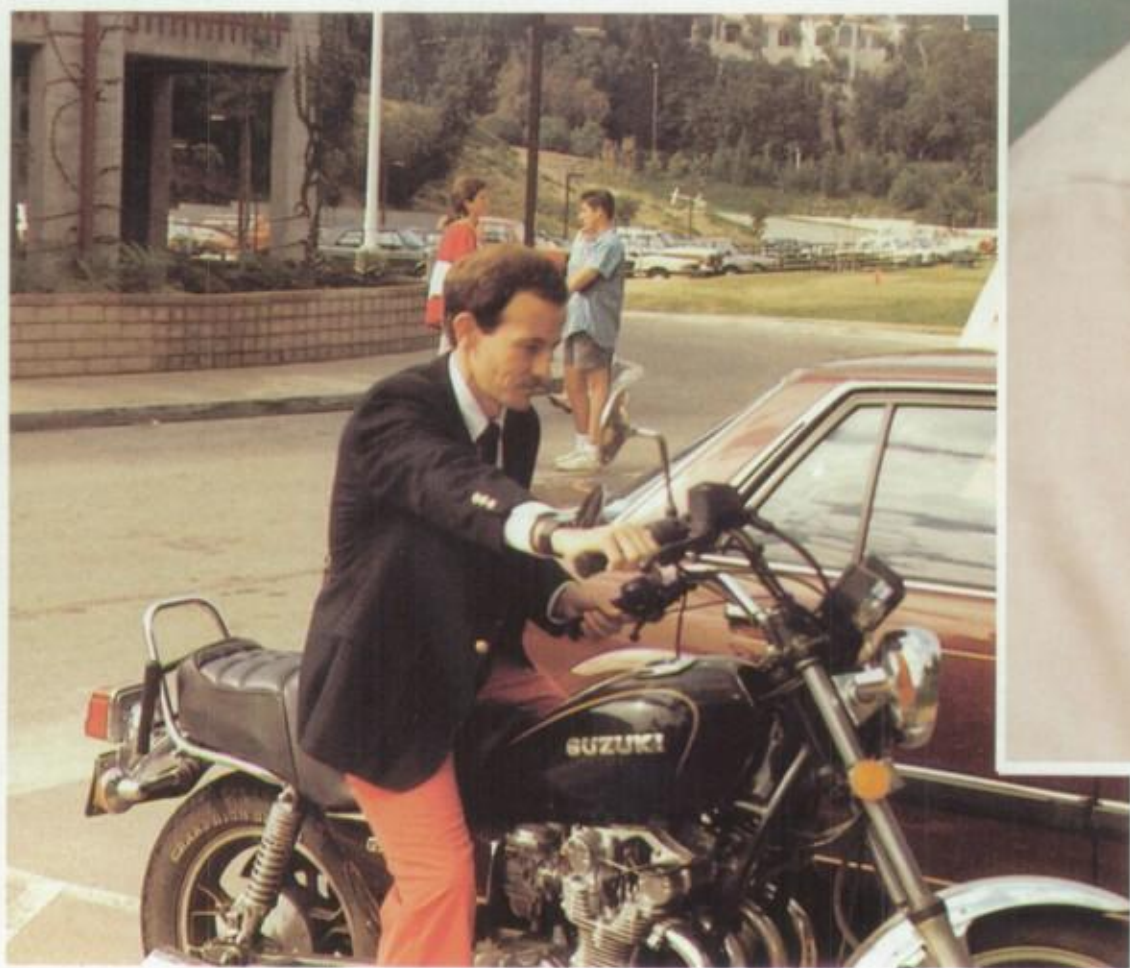

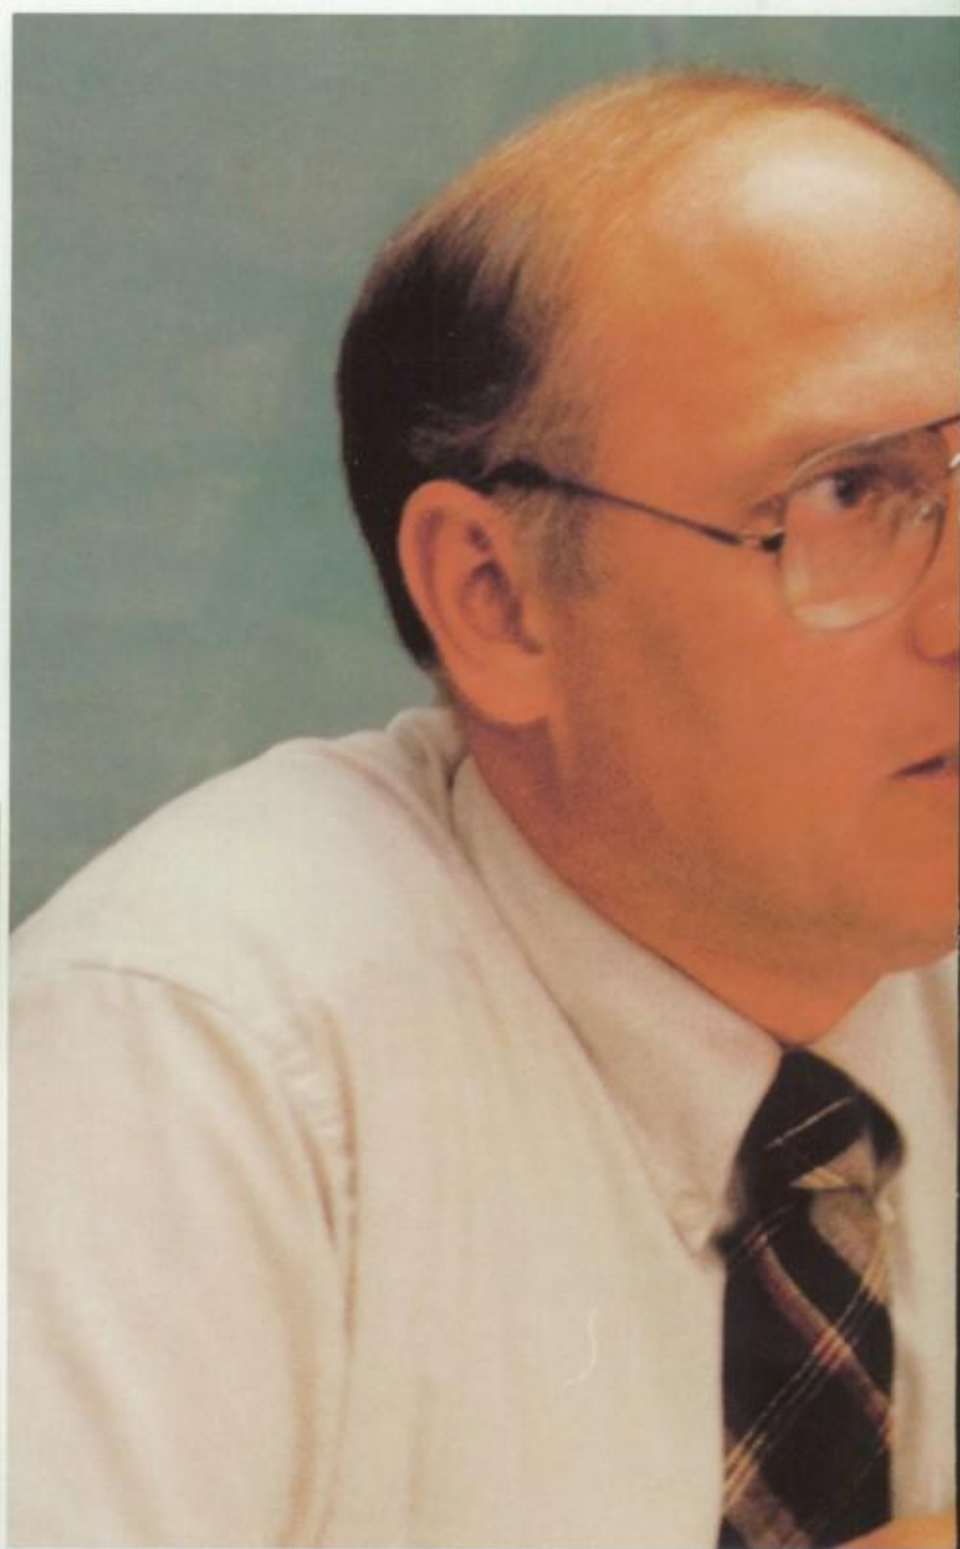

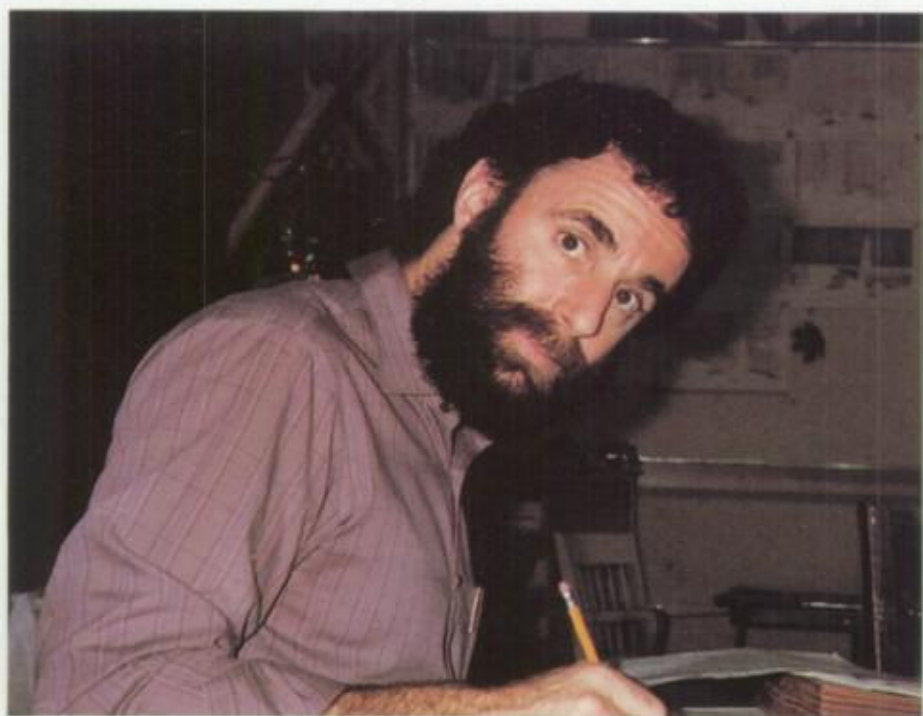

On Tuesday afternoons, both students and teachers leave behind their studies and work and come upon an hour of change, self-expression and enjoyment. Here we Brentwoodians display that there is much more to us than meets the eye. We are all unique and special in our own way, and it is through the activities period that many of us communicate these certain qualities.

FACULTY

The world's greatest history teacher is a football coach? And a stand up comic? You're joking. A Math teacher, you say, does what? Conducts Seminars and befriends students? Get off it. No, to be honest, this is true. The Brentwood School faculty is so diverse that, in fact, most teachers are "more than meets the eye." Teachers are not only academic professors, but also athletic instructors. In addition to this, they are witty and friendly. In fact, if you have the chance to sit down and talk informally with a teacher, you might find out his or her favorite T.V. show is your's too. Contrary to popular belief, the faculty, too, are human. No, they are not machines or even small computers. They are people.

In a quad during lunch, you might find Mr.

Balak discussing cross-country strategy, Mr. Hutson strumming up a few laughs, Mrs. Lockard discussing St. Elsewhere, Mr. Allan talking about motorcycles, or Mrs. Warren discussing school spirit. Take a walk into the quad and you will find Mr. Kueffel chatting about his weekend, Mr. Pilsbury showing a student proper swim strokes, Mr. McCune demonstrating perfect corner kick form, or Ms. Wallace discussing Stange Brew with a senior. Or is that "Hamlet?"

In truth, the teacher that you might think only cares about grades probably is more than skin deep. He or she is multi-faceted. Don't be fooled. Your teacher might even be an alien from another planet. I wouldn't doubt it.

SPORTS

Two blockers plow their way through the defensive line to give half-back a hole through which he darts, gaining yet another touchdown.

The opposing team serves. There is a bump, a set and a feigned spike. Then all of a sudden, a final body springs into action. As the body leaps into the air, its arms swings around, landing a blow on the ball, sending it past the helpless defenders with ease. The point is won.

We are all familiar with these scenes in sports. We all know about the victories, the achievements and the occasional defeats. But there is a side of sports which many of us forget. Behind all the strategies and victories we see during a football game or a tennis match, there is nothing but hard work and practice.

The scene is Brentwood School. The time is a little before 6 A.M. on a weekday morning. Cars start to pull into the Junior and Senior lots. Varsity football practice is about to begin.

It is 10 O'clock at night and most people are out for the evening. Notice I said 'Most.' A certain group of girls still have sweat on their faces and cramps in their muscles. Girls varsity volleyball practice is still in session.

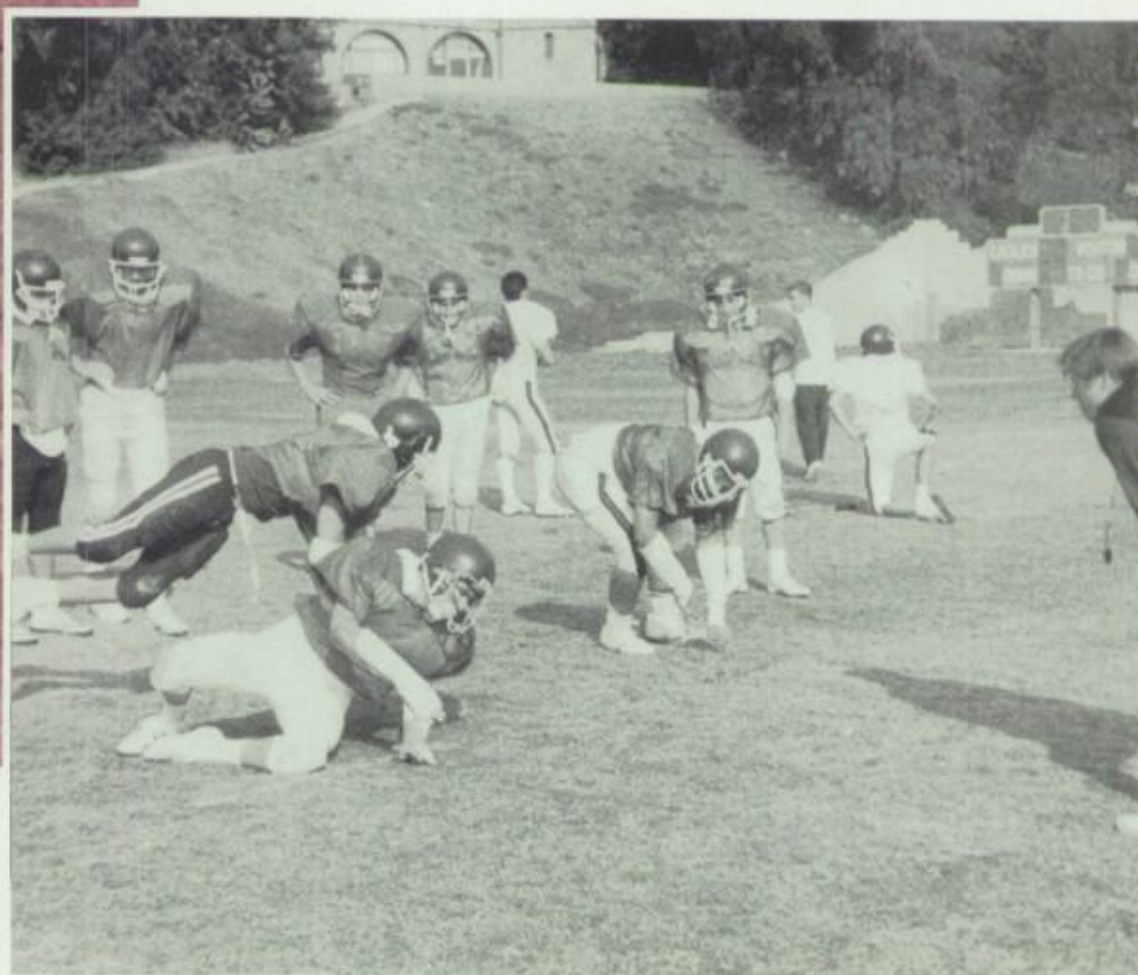

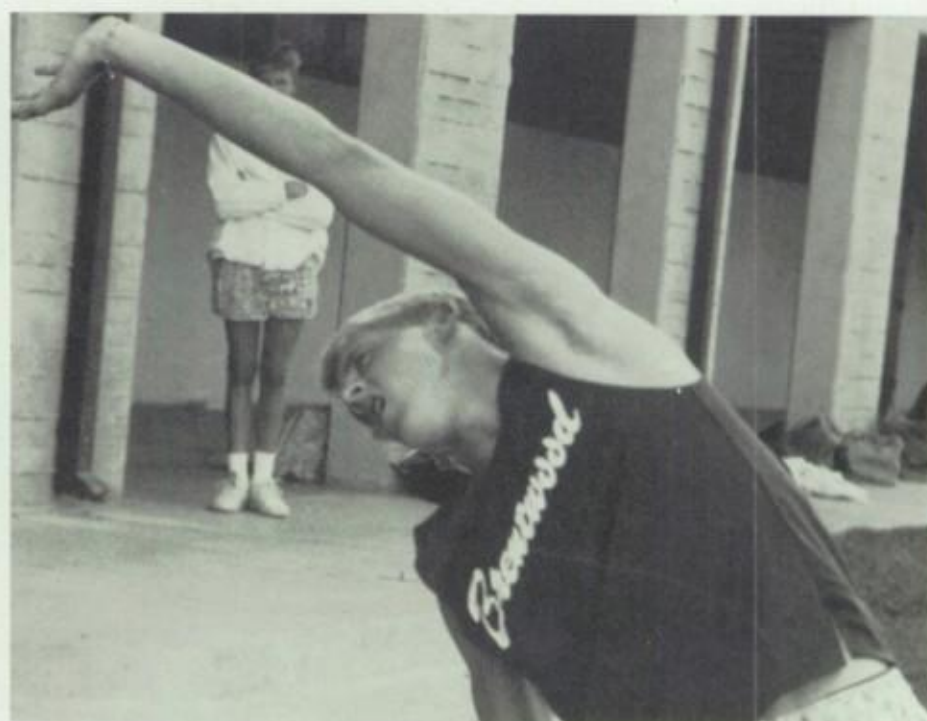

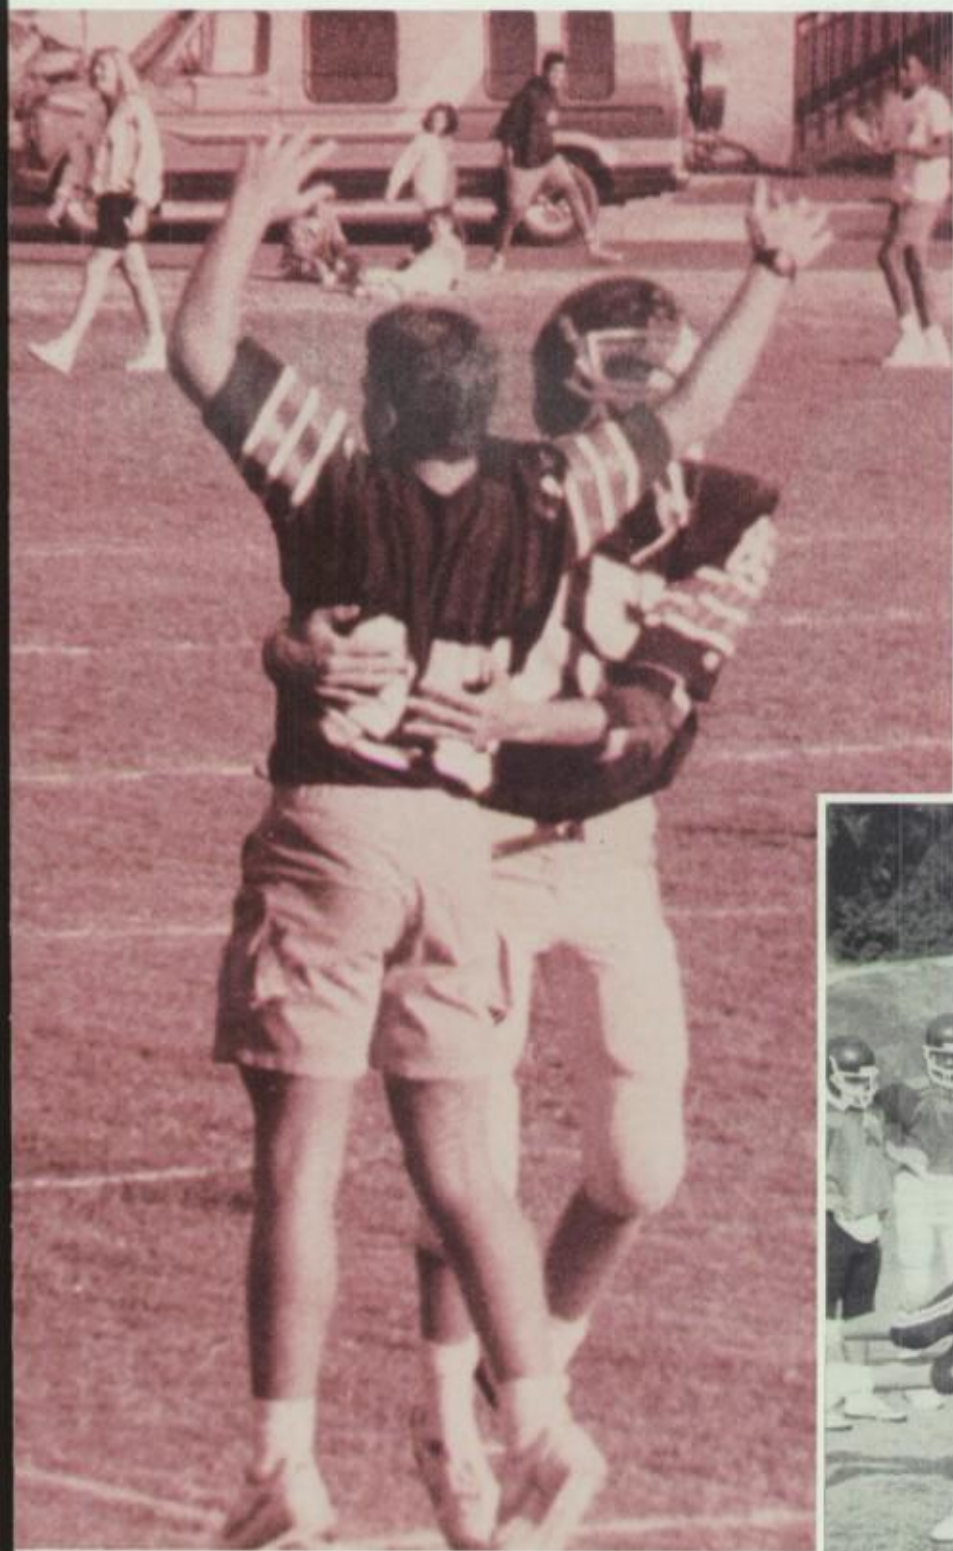

Scenes like these perfectly illustrate the kind of determination and hard work that goes on behind the scenes to make all these achievements possible.

But not only are the sports different in reality than appearance, the athletes, unlike many athletes at other schools, are brains, actors, writers, class officers and even year-book staffers.

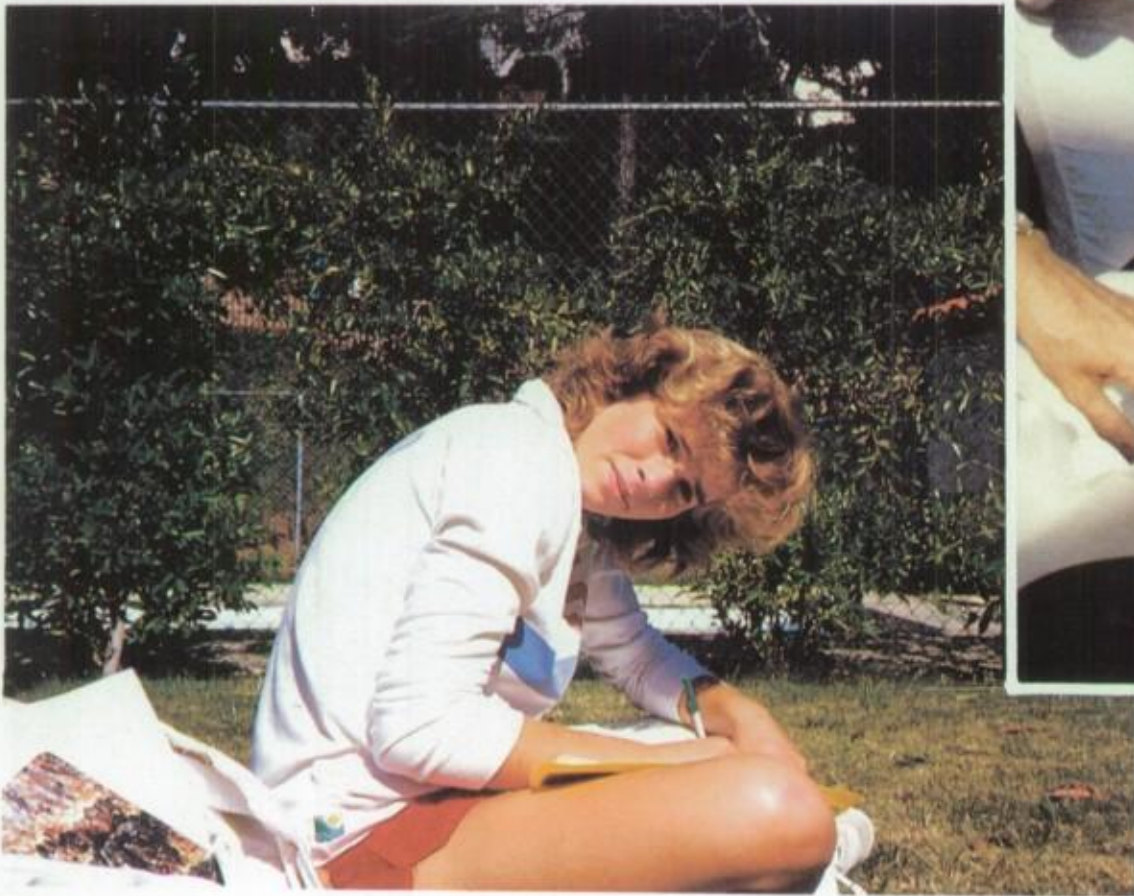

So next time you pass a jock in the halls, don't think of him or her in terms of their achievements and losses, for there is more to sports and its athletes than meets the eye.

AFTER HOURS . . .

The bell rings; it is 10:15 and break time once again. In a faraway classroom, you can hear a teacher, with her students on the run, exclaim, "The bell does not excuse you. I do." And so begins our cherished break time.

When many of us think of the word "school," we envision a building with classrooms. Within those classrooms, there are teachers and work. We might think about sports and activities, too. But, these concerns are only part of what "school" represents to us. Probably the most meaningful experiences Brentwoodians have are out of the classroom interacting with friends and peers.

As you stroll through the quads, you notice more than just academic machines; you see people. If you could have a little ear in every conversation, you would hear just about everything, from the latest romantic evening to the newest in tennis racquets. Everything from the philosophies of Emerson or Woody Allen to the point spread on the Ram game might be discussed. After all, when else can you ask, "Is there life after death? And, if so, what do I wear?"

So, while many see school as stale buildings and tedious assignments, there's "more than meets the eye" to life on the Brentwood campus.

ALL WORK . . .

A wink zips across the classroom, going unnoticed by the seemingly unsuspecting teacher. The book-drop is on. The teacher turns around to write on the board and smiles to herself. Another book-drop? How boring. Can't they think of anything more creative?

Across the school in another classroom, two girls pass a note between them. They giggle. The girl behind them reads the note and also titters. The note is circulated around the room, until everyone, including the teacher is laughing hysterically.

In another room, the instructor turns his back and the student sneaks part of a twinkie in her mouth. The teacher turns back around, and the girl quickly hides her face.

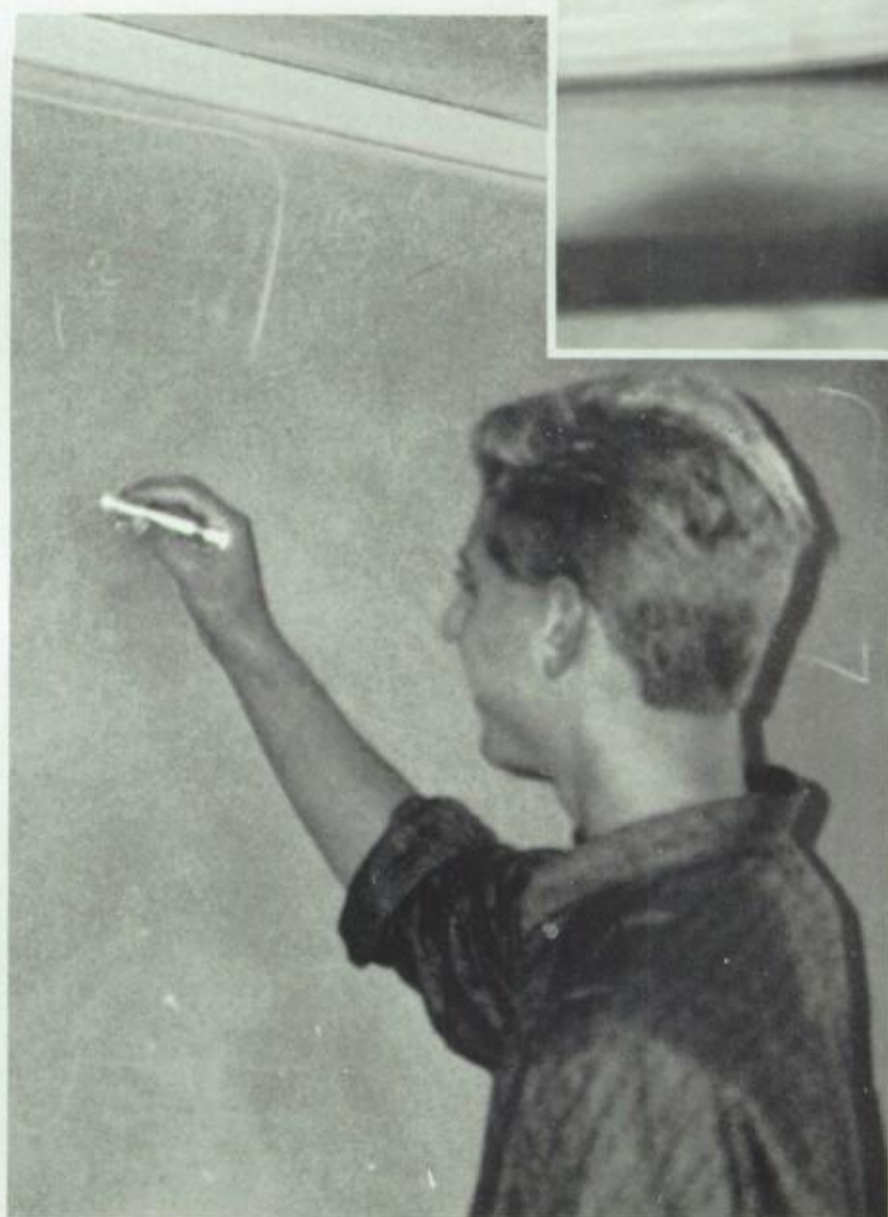

From the wink of an inside joke, to the passing of a note, to a quick bite of food, student life inside the classroom is not only academics. Of course, not everyday is fun and games; but on the other hand, everyday is not tests and quizzes and essays. Behind the closed doors of a classroom, "more than meets the eye" takes place.

Learning inside the classroom takes place on more than one level. Not only might a student learn how many deoxyribonucleic acid a rare fish has, or what Hamlet's cousin's brother's best friends's dog's middle name is, but also when to be quiet, how to respect peers, and how to obey the honor code.

Hey, next time you decide that the class is boring or that the co-tangent of a bisecting trapazoid sphere doesn't thoroughly stimulate you, use your eyes and look to see whats going on around you.

For all you know, you might be missing some of the most memorable experiences of your entire life.

SENIOR

Mr. Barry Krause, otherwise known as "Krause," has been teaching at Brentwood for the past seven years. Every student who has come to Brentwood as an unsuspecting seventh grader has had him for a teacher (They did not know what a treat they were in for). He teaches every seventh grade science course, as well as a few eighth grade courses and an upper school Human Anatomy course. Mr. Krause has a reputation as being the wildest, most eccentric and best teacher in the school, for his method of teaching is like that of no other.

Krause has a creative approach to demonstration. His room is filled with reptiles, fish, rodents, insects, rabbits, skulls, and 101 various inanimate and animate objects to use as examples and displays while teaching. This room alone is a wondrous space that tickles and engages the mind. To get a point across to the class, Mr. Krause might choose to go to extremes such as burn a twinkie, feed a mouse to a snake, or dissect a coyote that he found lying dead in the street on the way to school. The key to his success in teaching is his ability to get the students' undivided attention by presenting the material in a fun and a fascinating way.

Out of the classroom, his influence and charisma continue. He takes his students on field trips to gun shows, gem shows, reptile shows, and shooting ranges. His gamut of interests and knowledge gives him something to share with every kind of student. Because of his popularity, Mr. Krause is often seen being followed by a pack of kids, like the pied piper. He talks with them about politics, science, his personal life, or any problems that they might have. He is totally available to his students. He always has time. He always cares. Mr. Krause's love for teaching and his complete commitment to his students leaves them involved and inspired.

This is why the senior class of 1987 is giving a tribute to one of Brentwood's finest and most unique teachers, Mr. Barry Krause.

TRIBUTE

Miss Huchel, a friend, a teacher and an occasional police officer, has been with Brentwood School for over ten years. Through the years, Miss Huchel has grown to be an integral part of the Brentwood atmosphere. With both faculty and students, she can be assertive; yet, she acts out of love for each and every one of the people she may, shall we say, "bust."

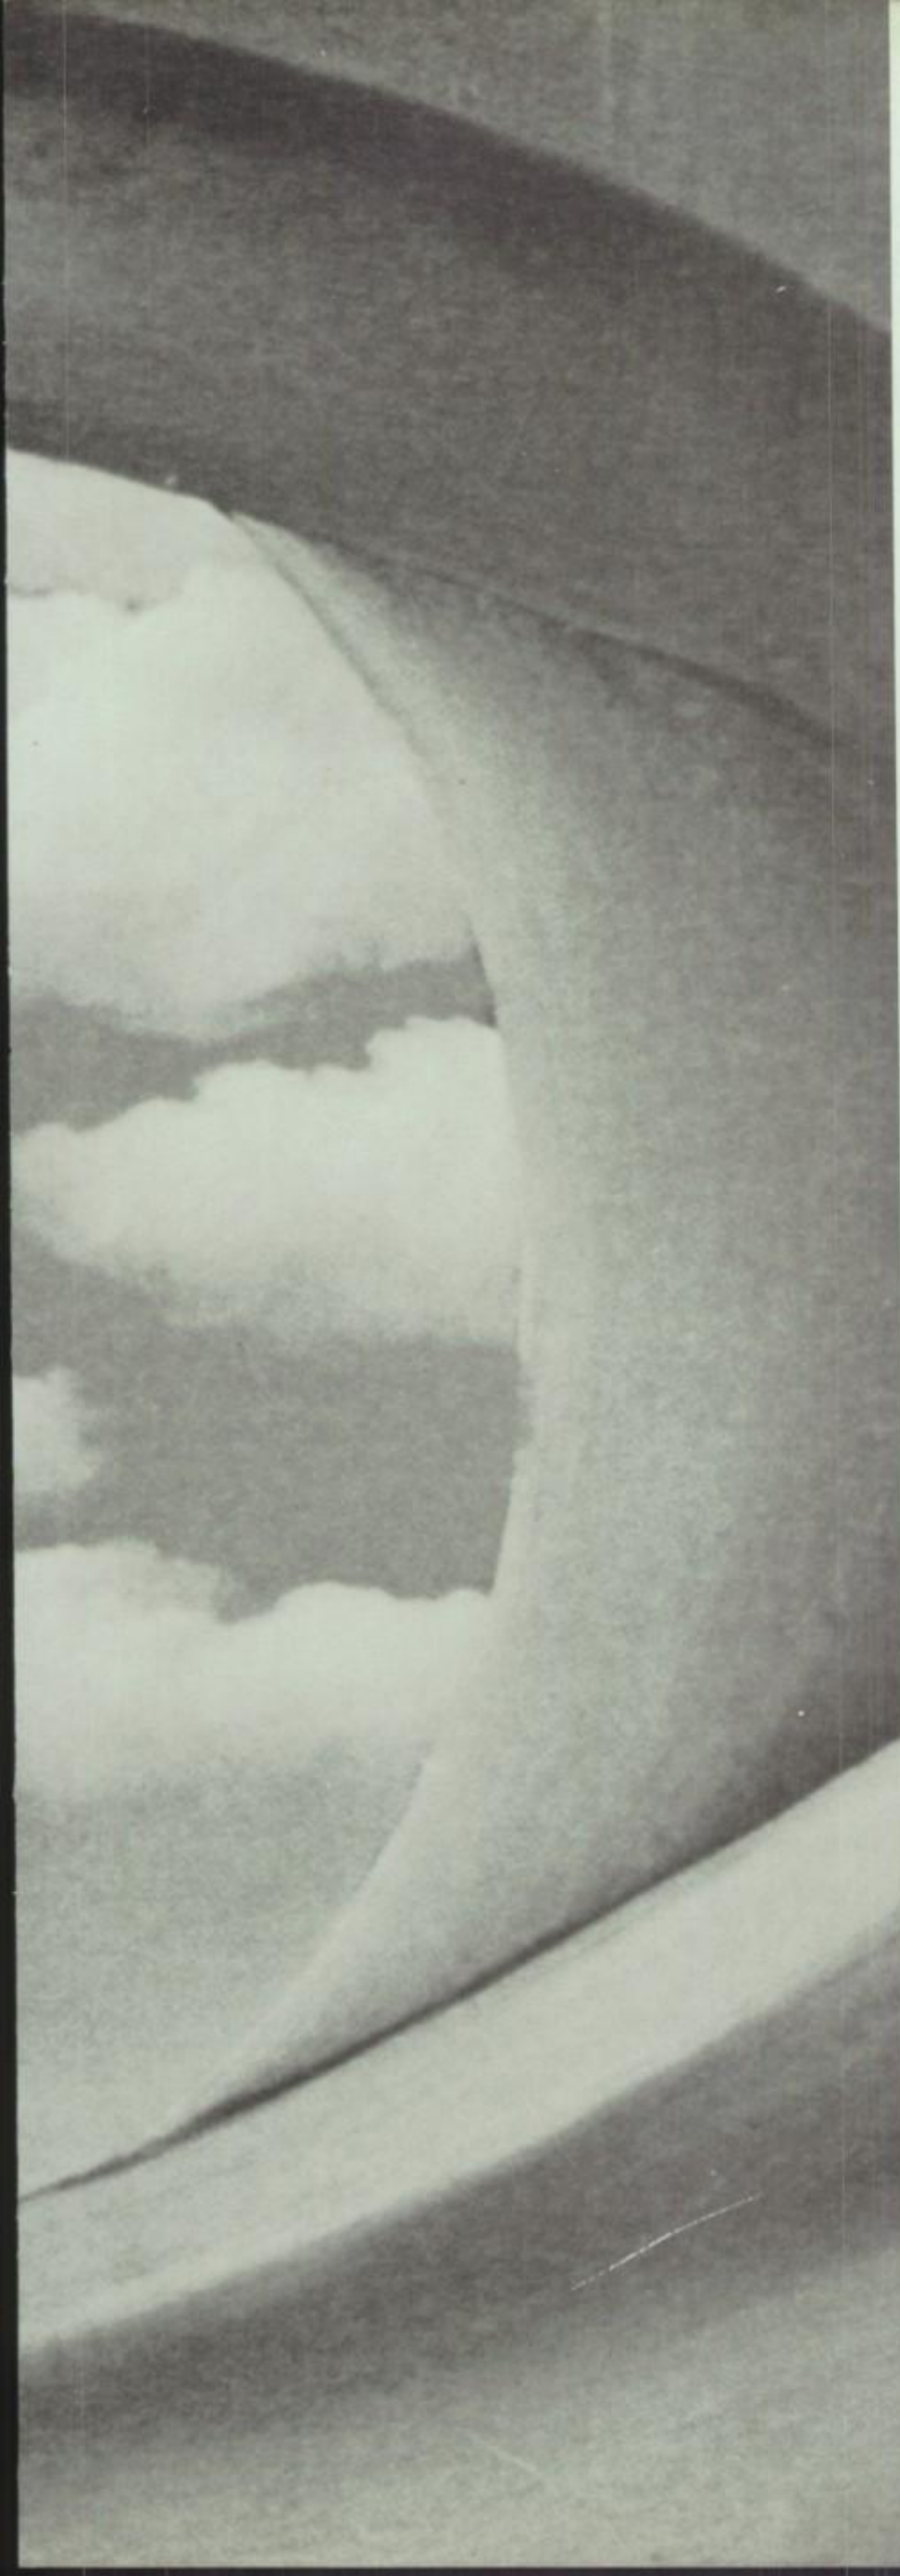

The authoritative aspects of Miss Huchel may tend to stick out more than the caring and loving ones, but Miss Huchel, the person, carries a lot of love. Because Miss Huchel has the ability to comfort and help, students feel comfortable bringing their troubles to her and asking for guidance or even a hug. The song "You've Got a Friend" has Miss Huchel written all over it because she will always be there to help.

The 1986-87 Aerie Yearbook Staff would like to honor you with this tribute, Miss Huchel.

you can stay asleep, you can close your eyes
you can trust
the people of Paradise to call your keeper and

Silences make the real conversations between friends. Not the saying, but the never needing to say is what counts.

To all my friends: I will always be there for you, whether you need me or not. I just hope that when you need me I'll know.

Just as tall trees are known by their shadows, so are good men known by their friends.

To my parents (which includes step-parents): What pleases me most about writing one of these sentimental, I love you forever, thank you for all you've done ... etc. yearbook quotes is that I don't need to. You already know.

The family tree is the only tree whose branches seek the shelter of its roots.

MOM & DAD: Did you ever think this day would come? I sure had my doubts. I thank you with all my heart for your constant love and support through the good times and the bad. Together we learned to grow. I love you both and hope to make you proud forever. Always, JAY.

BRIAN: Well, broski, you are quite a guy and now is the time to tell you. It's hard for me to say stuff like this but I truly do love you & respect you a helluva lot. I couldn't ask for a better brother. Let's work at it and stay close.

LORI & ALI: My two best friends. What can I say? All I know is that you two are like sisters to me and you can't get much closer than that. The 3 of us make quite a raging team. I love you guys more than words can say and I know that our friendship will last past high school, no doubt. Thank you for always being there. I'll always be there for you both. FRIENDS FOREVER.

JESSIE ROSE: Why do you have to live so far away? Even so, miles couldn't weaken our bond. Remember "Like a true nature's child... we were born, born to be wild." Thanks for all the incredible times. I can't wait to raise our kids together. I love you.

XAN: Look, you are too special to write about on some yearbook page. Without you, my high school life would've been worthless. Your friendship means more to me than can be put into words. I admire & respect you and most of all Alex, I love you.

HILLEL & JEFF: I adore you two. I couldn't have wanted any other guys to spend a raging summer in S.B. with. Promise me we won't lose touch. Always there...

JAMIE: What a friend! Always around to make me smile. You are an incredible (and fun) girl. We can road-trip any time. I am so glad we've grown so close. Love you, James

JESSICA: We've made it thru 5 years of BS and there's no way graduation can stop us. I really love you, we'll be friends always...

ADAM: I don't know where to start. 8th grade? Senior year? Well, whatever year it was I'm glad the way things worked out. "Why are you so loveable?" I LOVE YOU. Ad, we got tonight...

WENDY H: My most constant yet least known about friend, our talks have been so meaningful. I'm happy we've stayed close over the years, your concern and friendship have meant a lot to me... Luv you...

SEXY GRETTE: (with a french accent) Do we know how to parfairt or what? Your "new" friendship means so much to me... let's stay close and share some deep secrets.

JEN: It took some time but we've finally developed a friendship of our own. I am so glad that we shared some really great times. Thanks for opening up to me and for listening to what I have to say. I love you tons.

HILARY: Homes, we've hit our rough spots but we've recovered well, don't you think? We have shared so much since that first smile in 8th grade that it's hard to know what to write. All I want you to know is that you can always count on me. I love you, Homeo.

Mrs. Wallace: you were my inspiration... thank you.

Mr. McCatty: Thanks for all that you've taught me. I truly admire your understanding of life.

Mr. Cacicedo: I missed you this year at school but I'm glad we remained friends. You've really helped me out in many a hairy situation. Thanks.

Mr. Cronin: In just a short time, you've given my life a new dimension. When I'm a published writer you can say you knew me when... Thanks.

Alison: Well, it seems we're back and better than ever. Stay close, Hei: I don't want to lose us.

Andrew: You are an important piece in the puzzle of my life. High school never would've been the same without you. Our friendship means a lot to me, Andrew. Life will be good to you, I know it.

We want the world and we want it now! When the music's over turn out the lights.

Love Machine and Pepe: "YO JOE" ... The Zodiac ... "Trust me I'm out of control"

Heeter: "I'm not acting stupid I'm acting fun."

John: Thanks for the flattops.

Mats: "Skoal" ... "Besa me culo" ... Mats Tornbloom the first man to drive his motorcycle from Sweden to L.A.

Dan: OH no, I'm so dead, what the hell it was fun ... "If God is the only one up there doesn't he get lonely?"

Bobbie, John, Duetche: Yea I'm out of control but you know what, it's kind of fun.

Caroline: Gee, well um I don't know, what do you think. Sorry but I don't write letters and probably never will. Oh well.

Mom and Dad: I'm doing the best that I can (most of the time). Try not to worry so much I can take care of myself, and besides it's not good for you. Thanks for more than an occasional push. I needed it.

Eleanor: Get out of my room, and stop bugging me, and by the way I win.

To the rest of my family: Thanks for putting up with me so far.

"Box of Rain"

Look out of any window, any morning, any evening, any day.
 Maybe the sun is shining, birds are singing, rain is falling from a heavy sky.
 What do you want me to do, to do for you to see you through?
 This is all a dream we dreamed one afternoon long ago.
 Walk out of any doorway, feel your way, feel your way like the day before.
 Maybe you'll find direction around some corner where it's been waiting to meet you.
 What do you want me to do, to watch for you while you're sleeping? Well please don't be surprised when you find me dreamin' too.
 Look into any eyes, you'll find fire, you can see clear to another day.
 Maybe been seen before through other eyes, on other days while going home.
 What do you want me to do, to do for you to see you through?
 It's all a dream we dream we dreamed one afternoon long ago.
 Walk into splintered sunlight, it's your way through daydreams to another land.
 Maybe you're tired and broken, your tongue is twisted with words half spoken and thoughts unclear.
 What do you want me to, to do for you to see you through?
 A box of rain will ease the pain, and love will see you through.
 Just a box of rain, wind and water, believe it if you need it, if you don't just pass it on.
 Sun and showers, wind and rain, in and out a window like a moth before a flame.
 It's just a box of rain, I don't know who put it there, believe it if you need it, or leave it if you dare.
 It's just a box of rain, a ribbon for your hair.
 Such a long, long time to be gone and a short time to be there.

Grateful Dead

Sometimes you have to cry when nothing seems to wait for you, but nevertheless you know you're locked towards the future. So on and on you go, the seconds tick the time out. There's so much left to know, and I'm on the road to find out.

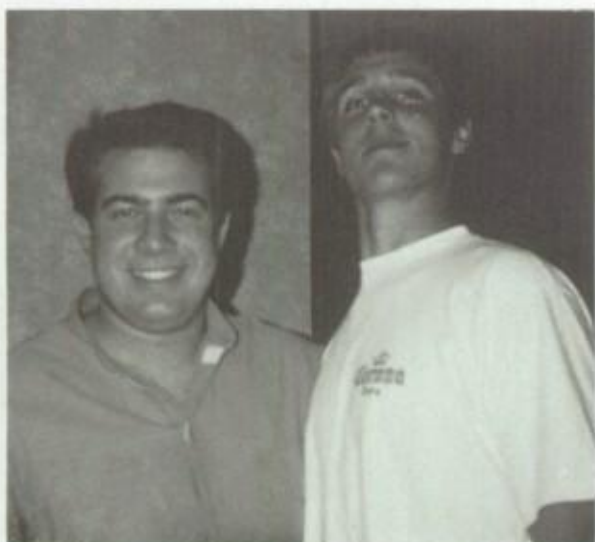

Good friends we've had and good friends we've lost along the way. In this bright future, you can't forget your past. Dry your tears I say, everything is going to be alright.

TRACY & KELLY: To my most favorite semi-average people in the world (hah!). Thanks for keeping me alive during government (or my absence from it!) Stick together and you two will do just fine.

DAVID S.: To the greatest friend in the world. Thanks so much for everything. You are one of the best people I have yet to encounter.

LINDA H.: You dazzled me not only with your red hair, but also with your enthusiasm and spirit. Thanks for keeping my spirits up. C.B.

ST. ELSEWHERE: Without you my Wednesday nights would have been lonely. Too bad you're not a girl for if you were I'd marry you. The tears, the laughter, the good times... and bad. You made life easy for me 1 hour each week. "And when the night is cloudy there is still a light that shines on me. Shine until tomorrow. Let it be." — The Beatles

STEVEN KING & ROALD DAHL: You kept me up late nights and scared me half to death. Thanks for so much, especially a new outlook on life — even if it was in the 4th dimension.

DR. BELT: You are the perfect person: loving, caring, and special. As a teacher you opened my eyes to a realm of science and as a friend you showed me what a person should be like. I'll never forget you. Thanks.

MR. HUTSON: To you I give my personal senior dedication. After 4 years we have unbelievably survived each other. Please don't ever lose your sense of humor. Hang in there and don't doze off during your own lectures.

MR. MCGANN: You showed me how to try, try again if at first I don't succeed. As a coach and friend you were truly great.

DEBBIE: To the best sister in the world. I truly envy you because of your determination and "stick-to-it" in gymnastics. We have been through so much together. Good times and bad. Don't ever change and be the best you can be. "Let us die young or let us live forever. We don't have the power but we never say never. Living in a sand pit. Life is a short trip. ## PLAYBOY INTERVIEW: Andrew Breitbart a candid conversation with the number-one songwriting champion about breaking away, dancing on the ceiling and singing all the way to the bank

A few years ago no one had heard of this incoherent, yet lovable Late Night fun show host. Today, turn on the television and inevitably there he is with his own "off the wall" pseudo-talk show, "Jacob Lolich's Late Night Fun House." Highlighting the lunacies that his mind has to offer, the program halfway resembles a unique take-off of the twenty year super sensational Late Night With David Letterman. Legend goes that Andrew idolized Letterman as a youngster, but he adamantly refutes this.

As I caught up to Andrew, teaching cartwheels to neighborhood kids in the Santa Monica Mountains, I was not sure what to expect. He greeted me with an awkward eighty degree angle handshake. I had never seen one like it before. He invited me into his sizeable canyon home, highlighted by eight authentic Navajo tepees in the middle of his living room. He offered me some freshly squeezed orange juice and a peace pipe. I never knew that he was such an American Indian buff. None the less, Andrew made me feel quite comfortable. I could tell from the start that Andrew was not hesitant about telling me his life story. He was wearing a trendy straight jacket that he made popular from his unstable days.

From his early high school days until leaving America to spend eight years in Northeast Asia to get away from the "commie-like librarians who have nothing better to do than to say 'shh'." Andrew chronicles the friends and wacky times that inspired him to write such classic novels as "Dearest Sharon, I Most Certainly Do Mind You Leaving the Table Before the Rest of Us Have Finished Our Meals," "I Feel That It's Quite Obvious That the Margarine Is Much Yellower Than the Butter" and "Mom, Would you Like to Dance: 101 Bar Mitzvah Helpful Hints." Before the interview could start, an angry dark complected man came into the house and ordered the two of us to get out. Andrew had taken me to the wrong house. We left. Andrew could not stop laughing. So I just walked. Andrew skipped. Our interview began.

Playboy: So Andrew, where did all of this, let's say "weirdness" come from? Your parents?

Breitbart: Well first of all, my parents are the most sane people in the world. They definitely did not deserve to be stuck with me. They are the best, seriously. I can remember when they used to buy books about child psychology. They thought I was a freak. My teachers were always sending notes home, and they were also sending notes to my home, also. (Pause) They linked my behavioral disorders to sugar. That was the funniest thing I had ever heard. For six months they didn't let me have any sweets. They think it helped. (Laughs) Anyway, I bought them a house just north of San Francisco, they play a lot of golf. I just like to drive the cart for them.

Playboy: Well if it wasn't your parents than who or what was it?

Breitbart: You know, I can't really say. I guess my friends were always kind of strange. I had these friends who lived on my street who were older than me, to fit in I guess I had to be avante garde.

Playboy: Exactly what does "avante garde" mean?

Breitbart: I don't know. Well anyway, my friends Eric, Chris, Jeff, Larry, and lotsa others would always be together playing ball, but the neighbors hated that we played against their homes. Dr. Soloman would always come out when the ball hit his front door and say, "Yesterday, you little hoodlums knocked pine needles on to my newspaper; when I opened the paper up, the needless went all over my eggs." I would laugh in his face. Everyone would laugh, God, I was such a little brat. Mr. Soloman once said that I was the "ring leader" of the street. From then on I was out of control.

Playboy: Do you have any real good friends that you are still in touch with?

Breitbart: (sipping on some mineral water with a lime twist) Oh sure, wait a second. I hate this stuff; it doesn't taste like anything. Remember the good old days when water didn't have bubbles?

Playboy: Yes, Of course.

Breitbart: Hey buddy, don't get so offensive. Remember, as I once said when hosting the Thirtieth Annual MTV Video Awards "And the winner for the most overrated person in the history of the earth . . . Bruce Springsteen!!!"

Playboy: Right there Andrew, that was a prime example of how you go off into these mind boggling tangents. I don't understand you. Does anyone understand you? Do you understand you?

Breitbart: I understand that I am ahead of our time in more than one way. I know that certain things that I say and do don't come out the way or time that I wanted. Right now, for example, I am thinking about this obsession that I have. These two girls come into my room only wearing each other, then . . .

Playboy: Come on Andrew, you can't talk like that. Smut like that does not belong in Playboy.

Breitbart: Ooops! I forgot. I should get to the point shouldn't I. I like to do things spontaneously, is what I'm trying to say. No actually, I'm trying to say that my success would not be possible if it weren't for my faithful sidekicks Ponch and John. No, what I'm really trying to say is there are a lot of people in this world who have the same shoe size, but they don't wear the same shoes. This is due mainly to Kinneys. Thank you Kinney for being the Great American Shoe Store. Well actually, the main point that I'm trying to get across is that we are all in this thing together, so whenever you need a place to stay, anyone reading this, I'm sure that I can work something out for you at my place.

Playboy: Andrew, you've been known to be somewhat of a ladies man, has it always been this way?

Breitbart: You know, strange as it sounds, I have had so many girls that used to go to high school with me who have actually said to me "Andrew, I wish I could turn back the hands of time so that I could have gotten to experience LOVE Andrew style." It's like they regret not having spent hours alone with me. Strange.

Playboy: Exactly what is this "LOVE Andrew style?"

Breitbart: Well, it has nothing to do with, well, just ask Drew Barrymore, she knows.

Playboy: You and Drew. What happened?

Breitbart: It's tough to talk about it, but I guess if she thinks ET is better than me, what can I say? Drew, if you are reading this; Come back to your "Drewl Bunny," I miss you so much!

Playboy: Is it true that you were voted Most Likely to Succeed in high school?

Breitbart: No, that was John Irwin.

Playboy: I heard that you didn't mention all of your friends on your senior page. Could this be true?

Playboy: I heard that you didn't mention all of your friends on your senior page. Could this be true?

Breitbart: OK, the facade is over. I'll admit that this interview is a fake. I just wanted Jodie Foster to think that I was important. I'm sorry friends. I owe you a bag of rice or something to that effect. Just turn to the ads in the back and I'm sure that you'll be happy with the complementary pictures that I threw in as an added bonus. Good-Bye, see you all at our reunion. I'll be the tan guy with the busty babes.

"Other than preferring to ride side saddle, I consider myself a pretty masculine guy."

"The world is like a globe, but much larger"

"As a matter of fact I did get a D in Mrs. Radomile's Spanish class. And, no, of course it didn't hurt my chances of going to a good college, or for that matter, succeeding in life. It's absolutely irrelevant."

TO MY PARENTS: Being your youngest child, I've probably gotten away with a lot of things I wouldn't have if I was your oldest child. I want to thank you for overlooking these things, and also for giving me everything I could ever need in my life. Most of all, thank you for loving me and being there for all these years. I love you both very much.

ANTHONY: Hey brah! I guess just about everything I've ever done in my life has been in one way or another, influenced by you. A lot of people think I'm crazy to let this happen. (I wonder why?) But after all, what do they know. Thanks. Later bro.

RUFUS: It's hard to believe that we've known each other for nine years. From J.T.D. to Brentwood to now, you've been that most consistent and cool friend I've ever had. All I can say is that it's been too cool knowing you, Ruf. Later.

Estéban — thanks for the Retreat talks about cool things; filing me in on Psychology, music talks, — and all the advice. See ya, Hex-Xany.

Mr. McCatty — Throughout my six years at Brentwood you are one of the only teachers who has made learning fun. Thank you for everything and best of luck. Mrs. Z — "X!!!", Thank you for putting up with all of my laziness and negativity over the past four years. I hope that you have enjoyed teaching me as much as I have enjoyed learning from you. Thanks — Xzan

DAVID V.: It's been five years since we became friends. Ever since then it's been so fun, it's a joke! I can't believe you've put up with all of my shortcomings for so long, but thanks for sticking with me. Good luck at Dartmouth.

Julie: Although I've only known you for a short time, I think tat our friendship is the best thing that's ever happened to me. You really can't imagine how important you are to me or how much I care about you, no matter how many times I've told you. What I do want you to know is that you've taught me more about myself than anyone else has. I hope that I've taught you something about yourself, too. Thanks for everything, Julie. I love you always.

ALLISON AND LORI: Cuties! I am so glad that I have two such fun and adorable friends as you two. I want to thank you both for making me laugh when I was in a bad mood or callin' me "cute" to start off the day. I love you both, cuties, I hope we'll always be close. Keep in touch and I'll be there anytime you need me.

STEVE: It's been very fun and interesting trying to figure you out for the last couple of years. Thank you for all the advice you have given me, Steve. I hope that I have given you something in return. You know that I'm trying to get at better than I do, but that's what I like about you because it makes things easier on me. Bye and good luck.

Mom and Gerry — Thanks for your love and support during these seventeen of my wonderful life. My life has been so terrific because of you. Junior, I am glad that I could fix all of those Scotchies for you and will miss that when I am away. Joanie, you are so beautiful. Please no more chicken or pork chops. Thanks and I love you so much.

Dad and Libby — Thank you for providing me with a home away from home and greeting me with open arms. It means a lot to me that we have been able to maintain a relationship that is not effected by the time between visits or the miles. I love you.

To the Brady Bunch — It would take too long to tell each one of you how I feel about you, however I just want to thank you for always being there for me. I love each and everyone of you.

Catherine and Kelly — My little baby sisters. No matter how far away I'll always be here for you.

Tory, Mike, and Patrick — Thanks for your help, kindness, and love I appreciate it greatly.

Beth, Doc, and Baby Lori — Believe it or not you will miss me when I'm gone. Thank you for everything I love you guys.

Ms. Huchel, Mr. McCune, Mr. McCatty, Dr. Temple, the Balaks, Mr. Magier, Ms. Shibuya, and Coach Porter — Thank you for everything that you have done for me. You have provided me with very special friendships. Mr. McCatty, Ms. Huchel, and Mr. McCune — You three have enhanced my life in so many ways, giving me advice, love, and friendships. I won't forget you if you don't forget me! 3874687

Kimmy — Pier, Superdog, Chicago and the bar downtown, J.J., the side of the car, driving lessons, superstars day, Dean, thanks for the copy, 9th grade finals, Marguerita's, today, the boat, Paul Reed, plan A or plan B, "what do people wear in California?", roller skates, "the fruit of the of the land and the pick of the people." Kimmy, I have so much to say to you but I simply cannot find the words to express exactly what I want to say. The mere fact that I have never signed your yearbook states that I have such deep feelings about our relationship that I can't express. I love you.

Annie — My first friend in Los Angeles. You have been such a good friend to me through everything. The times that we have had: Michael Goddard, the Improv, scheming, dean, driving lessons, banana, today, Chris' apartment with Mr. X. I'll see you in the East! I love you.

Kristen and Hilary — Although we have not spent as much time together as we used to you still hold a very special place in my heart.

Bobby, Malek, Christian, and Bruce — Well boys, we have had our fun, but it has just begun . . .

Kevin, Mike Seth, Adam, and Josh — I can't imagine growing up without you. When I look back to high school I'll remember that it was your guys that made it all worthwhile. Kev, I will think of you whenever I am in the street.

Jill — Please be my little scrapple forever!

Kiko, Hilary and Kelly — "Suddenly I break out in a grin from ear to ear and realize that's why I'm here." You've got a friend for life. I love you guys. — James Taylor

Julie and Jessica — "Thanks for the times you've given me, the memories are all in my mind." — Lionel Richie

Holly — During my Senior year I became very close to you and I am glad that it happened. You are someone that is very special to me. Your friendship has a unique meaning to me because we are so much alike both mentally and physically. I appreciate your ability to confide in me when you have a problem or just want to talk. Holly I want you to remember that I will always be there for you. I love you.

Chicago Buddies — The memories are so great and I want to thank you for them. I want to drink some paap with your maam. Sts. Faith, Hope and Charity will live with me forever. Let's go to Superdog and party down. I love each and everyone of you guys. Keep in touch. 1029384756qpwoerutyalskdjfhgzmxcnbv.

I dedicate this page to my grandfather, whom I love and miss.
 Mom & Dad — I don't know how to thank you for all the love, care and attention you have given me over the years. You have always given me your support, and have always been there when I needed you. I know you always will be too. Even when I am across the country, I'll still need you. I love you both so much.

Steph — How could anyone ever ask for a better sister than you? You are such a great friend and I am so lucky to live with someone as talented and funny as you. I'll miss you next year; Who will make faces in the mirror with me? I'll buy you a souvie in Boston. Remember one thing when I'm gone — if you feel it do it. I love you Sboho.

Mike — When I think back on the fun I had in high school, you will be the first person I think of. We always managed to have a good time together. It all started with I'm five and carried on the CHMFFG, girls on the pier, Speed Stick ... by Mennen, let's make noise, Over-Under 40 Club, Poser Mike typewriters became projectiles, Andre W, Born to be Wild, Bar Mitzvah bros, along with many others. Thanks for six years of the best friendship I could ask for, I know it's just the beginning. If you ever want some ear, you know where to come.

Matt — I never would have guessed when we met on the first day of 7th grade that you would be my best friend throughout high school, but you were. How could we forget the times at the beach, when we played football with the freak and volleyball with Wilt? Also who could forget Firmona, Queef, I'm a shepherd, she swallowed the quarter, The Graduate. The dog flip on Sports Machine, one ... two ... one, two, three, four, we own 1/5 of a surfboard, Ed Berod sucks, and Spacey. Too bad we won't be friends after high school (just kidding), I know we will be friends for a long time to come because I won't let anything get in the way of our friendship.

Seth — It's amazing how well you understand me. Sometimes it scares me because you always know what I am thinking. I think we're very similar and that is why we are such great friends. I won't forget how much you helped me. Other people could help with the little problems, but I knew to come to you with the biggies. I admire you in so many ways and am so glad we are going to Boston together. I wish you the best. You deserve it.

Kiko — To my best frousin (gladje) — this might come as a shock to you but I am not going to mention any nouns. It's not possible for me to write memories to someone who has been as important to me as you have since the day I was born. You don't know how much you have helped me over the years. It's hard for me to explain to you how significant you have been in my life. I'm sorry this is not going to make you laugh, but for a change, I thought I'd be serious with you. The funny times are too numerous and I know we have so many more coming. Thanks for always being there for me. I'll always be here for you Kik. I wish I could say more, but I know you understand how I feel. Raindrops keep falling on my head.

Kel — Since the first time I met you, I've known that there is something special about you. You are unlike anyone I have ever met before. I have never been so close to anybody before, or been able to tell anyone the things I can tell you. You have made the last year the best year of my life and I don't know what I would do without you. I'll never be able to tell you how much you mean to me. You are the most important thing in my life. I love you Kel. "Stay with me, my love, I hope you'll always be right here by my side if ever I need you. In your arms I feel so safe and so secure and every day is such a perfect day to spend all alone with you." Genesis Stefani — To think that until 9th grade, you thought I was a made up person. What would I have done without you in Physics? Nobody would have been more lost than me (except Ad), don't worry, he's only a phd, Lock, deferred, dirthead, Tres, Todai, Eck, repressed, macaroni and cheese?, offroading on Sawtelle. Thanks for the good times Stef P.S. I'm sorry we never got to Zuckys.

Allison — In the last three years, you have realized things about me that nobody else has ever cared enough to notice. I know more about you than you think also. We have been through so much that I will never forget. See you at Tufts trickster.

Ad — You are the only person who would play Strat, Microleague, Comp. Baseball, and Nerf hoop (we had plays) with me. We had such a great time. I hope we never grow up. A few more things — Agnes the robot, what is Freedom Overspill?, smegwrist, art, what's your beef pal? What would have happened if I didn't slam my locker on your head?

Lor & Lyns — I don't know how I could have made it this year without you guys. You were always there when I needed you. I won't forget our "little talks."

Gretchen — Nobody made me laugh the way you did; you always cheered me up, especially when you and Kim did you know what in the street.

Steve — You have taught me that there is much more to life than I thought there was. Thanks — Teddy.

Howard — You made the good times better. Thanks squid.

Hillel, Josh, Matt H, Kim, Kristen, Jeff and Andrew — Thanks for making B-wood a little bit more funny, easy and bearable.

Linda and Don — Thanks for everything.

A special thanks to Coach Brown, Ms. Huchel, Mrs. Lockard, Mrs. Balak and Mr. McCatty for everything.

Mom and Dad — I'm extremely lucky to have you as parents, not many others would put up with my stuff. Thanks for all the great times we've shared. Thanks for always being there for me and for being THE BEST people to talk to in ANY situation. I LOVE YOU!!!

Shana and Melissa — The two greatest, funniest, cutest sisters in the world. I love you both and will miss you terribly.

Nanny, Papa, and Nana Toddy — I think I am the only teenager who actually enjoys being with his grandparents. I love you!!!

Andrew — We were both the brothers we were never given. Life away from you at college is going to be the most horrifying experience of my life so study hard to come to my school!!! The Avengers-Klee and Lance will never win ... like a dog on your lawn ... discovering playboy ... horse racing on roller skates ... microleague ... Stanley Pappufnik and Brian Zemekus ... VSL ... street baseball ... the racoons at Arrowhead ... My best friend, so long, but never for long.

Klee — I never thought that from the day we marched over to sawtelle while I was wiping my mucus filled hands on my shorts in ninth grade that our friendship would grow to what it is now. I don't think we've ever had a fight; probably because we both know that if we did we'd laugh in each other's faces, because everything we do is funny ... PE w/sakers ... mitra ... let's ski at the top of the mtn. to get closer to the sun ... ah, quite a refraining ... a hair transplant ... football pads ... the Enquirer ... our "goals" for the physics final.

Kev — Thanks for slamming your locker on my head or else maybe we never would have become this close. Keep our friendship strong, it is so very important to me. Good luck at Tufts ... Strat ... Gooooooo Shana ... Denny's ... there's a tomato in my salad ... nerfoop ... going to sleep when the sun rose ... football at P.S. in rain ...

Matt — Our friendship has lasted so long and been so strong. We really stuck it out together and stood by each other through some hard times. Though we're going separate ways right now we'll always be together ... MASH (11-0-1) and John Moore scores for the other team ... ice skating at Arrowhead ... the Golden Bears ... street hockey ... intellivision ... computer baseball ... the etceteras ...

Seth — HAY BAYBAY!!! You weren't lucky to get into Harvard, they were lucky to get you. Good luck, I'm glad we're still Great friends after our "throw the pepsi" fight. Trust is our strongest connection — trust and silence, that is ... Hey Danny Baby ... We're with them ... kicked out of Bob's ... Solana beach and my first, well, you know ... the etceteras.

Lori — I can't get mushy because I'll spill my guts. You know how valuable our friendship is to me. Where will we be in fifteen years, honey, I hope together!!! Will you marry me?

Julie — The first girl I've ever loked. We've been through a lot together, I'm glad we shared our senior year as more than friends and were reunited this year; I guess you can never get enough of a good thing.

Lindsey — "THOSE PANTS" ... they drive me wild and so do you.

Christen — "The Handshake" was ALWAYS the best part of my day.

Dori — My third little sis'. I guess we can't get married anymore cause from carpool you know I'm always in a bad mood in the morning.

Cathy — My favorite to flirt with, we're not through yet, sweetie.

Mike, How, Josh, Stef, Kell, Ali Gelli, Sexy Gretty — Thanks for being great friends and providing me with fun times every day.

Mrs. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Balak, and Mr. Porter — Thanks for all the friendship and support you've given me at Brentwood. I could not have made it without you.

Bobby (Rail), Eric, Coach Ingram, Coach Jesson, Coach Hutson, and the rest of THE HOOPSTERS — Thanks for making Basketball such a great part of my senior year. To the youngens: Rail, V., and Ay Dee will be back next year to WOOP you in alumni games.

Pinc and Shan — The Stork wouldn't be the same without you two.

Funnah and Mojo — "Now we be done so we leave in rhyme; same bat channel, same bat time!!!" — Flo Bovz

Mama — Mother
To one who bears the sweetest name, a touch of kindness, a bit of fame who shares my joy ... cheers me up when I'm sad, the greatest friend I've ever had. Long life to her for there's no other ... who could take the place of

My Dear Mother.

"I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore." (Ps. 66:12) It is to you that I owe it all. I thank your power, grace, salvation, peace spirit, and love. My Lord and my God I will serve you forever."

Rooms

Two dark rooms all alone and defiled by sin.
Both seek true peace and happiness.
But will both find?
Is there anyway that these two empty rooms can be filled.
Both want peace so desperately.
Yet only one finds.
One's desire for true joy and happiness allowed it to hear the knock at the door. Both heard the steady tap of a compassionate fist.
Yet only one finds.
The one that finds is no longer a dark empty room, it has been filled up with LIGHT, LOVE, JOY and TRUE PEACE.
The visitor has come, but has never gone.
Yet only one finds.
The visitor is steady knocking, pleading, trying to break through the thick darkness of the other room.
Yet for some odd reason ...
Only one finds.

Mrs. Dunn — Thanks for being my advisor, the never-ending discussions about my never changing schedule, and my ever starting, never finishing knitting lessons. God bless you ... I'll miss you (sob, sob, smile).
Mrs. O'Hanlon — Thank you for making my senior year a pleasant one. I have to give it to B-Wood they topped of my years by giving me, you for my Senior Seminar teacher. Thank you for being open enough to share my sometimes completely different views, I will always remember you, and keep you in my prayers, May God bless, strengthen, and keep you.
Mr. Krause — I haven't forgotten about you. Thank you for teaching me not only the parts of the body, but also the parts of life. Class discussions were, humorous and touching. May God bless you.
Angie — May God continue to reveal himself to you. May you be abundantly blessed by the Almighty God. I will miss you Angie. I thank God for you and your faithfulness to Bible study. I pray that you were blessed by it. If you never remember anything else remember this "be open, honest, committed, and real with God." I love you my sister. Remember this — 10th grade retreat, VA hospital, "hold your head like this," Biology, P.E. — swimming, aerobics, ... smile. "Join the cross-country team." May "the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen" Galatians 6:18
Lorraine — May God bless, keep and show Himself majestic to you. Seek the Lord and you will find him. Thank you for your commitment to Bible study. I love you and I'm praying for you.
Christina — My friend, I will truly miss you. I will continue to pray for you, I'll visit you next year (Big Time Senior ... smile). Thanks for being real ... I love you. P.S. Remember C Track Chemistry with Mr. Allan (smile) Mr. Allan, it was great (smile).
Arturo — Thank you for your friendship and coming to Bible study. May you be blessed by God in whatever you do. Love always Callisha. P.S. Thanks for help in Español.
Jeanine — My new friend, it was fun taking you home. Thanks for coming to Bible Study. May you be blessed all of your days. Live for God! Love, Callisha

Monique — "You know ..." I love you. My best buddy, I will miss you more than you will ever know. You have been such an inspiration to me. You have taught me many things and I treasure your friendship. If Brentwood never gave me anything else, they gave me you. You are a true friend. Thank you for being REAL. Thank you for all of the moments we spent together. "Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should call the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not. (1 John 3:4) Remember — cross-country, talks in the gym, talking to Todd on the phone, lunches by the bookstore, prayer all over the school, Senior Seminar, Westwood, "create in me a clean heart O God, and renew a right spirit within me" (Psalm 51:10). "Who gave you the Colossal nerve, to put the Almighty God on your time schedule ... (smile)." lunch at your house, my driving, our laughter, our tears, our study habits (smile), "Jesus is our cornerstone; Pipe line with God," infatuations, your aunt, sponsoring the little girl, "Ask your father," and endless hours, days, months, and years of talking. Above all I will miss you. Dear "LOVER of Ephesians" (smile), it went by so quickly. Nevertheless, our times together are not over. You are a lifetime friend and this will never change. We will spend eternity together in that heavenly place God has prepared for us. Thank you for Bible study. I'm grateful to have had you for a partner and to have sat at your feet and heard the manifold wisdom of God. I love you Miss Hamada and a TRUE FRIEND couldn't have come any better. "May God grant unto you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by His spirit in the inner man; That Christ may dwell in your heart by Faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints ... and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God." (Ephesians 3:16-19) I love you ... see you in a few months (you know ... smile). Love your sister in the Lord,

To my friend, who happens to be my mother (smile). I love you more than conceivable. I love you with the true unfeigned love, a daughter has for a mother. I thank you for your strength, endurance, love, a home, clothes, food, talks, discipline, and most of all, for being my mother. I'm grateful to you, for all that you have done for me. I appreciate you, I honor you, I respect you, I treasure you as a precious jewel. You are the reason why I'm able to put my trust in God and rise above the ordinary. You always told me that I could be whatever I chose to be, be the BEST. By the power of God, He has always allowed me to do just that, I thank you for your support through the years. I thank you for the memories. I pray that I will continue to make you proud of me. I know that you may not understand, all of the decisions that I am and will be making, but I assure you that "all things work together for good to them that love God and are called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28) I love God and I'm called according to His purpose and the plan He has for my life. I will succeed in whatever I do, because God is directing my life. I pray that God will richly bless and sustain you. I love you Chicky (remember that smile). You're still my best buddy and you can never lose your place, because it can never be replaced ... I LOVE YOU.

Dearest Todd —

You have played such a special part in my life. I thank you for your prayers, encouragement, support, long-suffering, meekness, temperance, peace, joy, faith, goodness, humor, strength, and love. You've been a spiritual blessing and inspiration. I thank you for many wonderful memories and the satisfaction of knowing that memories aren't the only things that we share. Both the past, present, and future are ours and we know that "the steps of a righteous man or woman are ordered by the Lord." (Psalm 37:21) I thank God for the Agapé love that he has given us for one another. With you I will stand, proclaiming God's plan. There is much more for me to say, but I am convinced that you know ...

My Heavenly Father

"I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart; and I will glorify thy name for evermore." (Ps. 66:12) It is to you that I owe it all. I thank you for your power, grace, salvation, peace spirit, and love. My Lord and my God I will serve you forever."

whatever I do, because God is directing my life. I pray that God will richly bless and sustain you. I love you Chicky (remember that smile). You're still my best buddy and you can never lose your place, because it can never be replaced ... I LOVE YOU.

Your Baby

"And if it seems evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." Joshua 24:15

To my family: Thank you for your encouragement over the past seventeen years. Without you I could have never made it this far.

Dad: You have inspired me to become the best person I can be. I wish you could see me now. You hold a special place in my heart and will always be my best friend. I love you.

Lionel: People can't understand why we're so close. Neither can I. I'm just glad we are. There is nothing I can't tell you except those three words, so instead I'll say boogly boo.

Womb Buddy: Anyone who can stay friends with me for seventeen years has to be sincere or as crazy as I am. I think you're both! I'm going to miss those two minute runs on the beach. Love you Hil.

Angie: Broderick Dave, Dave Broderick. Without us, where would they be? ... Happy birthday to you, Angie! ... Tell Rach to get a new hairstyle.

Chris: My purple buddy ... laugh it up fuzzball ... sideout ... offense ... defense ... best teammate in the world. I could go on forever, but all I really want to say is, thank you for always having time to talk. You really care. I LOVE YOU!

Cindy: My beach/V-ball/aerobics buddy ... can I borrow ... giggle ... take care.

Dan: My masseuse and good friend. You are irreplaceable Dan, and you're going to make a girl really happy someday. KIT.

Dana: frozen yogurt ... WOW ... Dana and Cay, will you get me ...

Jen: A a Eugene ... it's one o'clock and time for lunch, hum dee dum dee dee ... me, I'm just a lawnmower, you can tell me by the way I walk ... bigbo obies.

Jim Billy Joe Bob Frank: Um, Jim, can I have a um, ride? ... where are your parents? ... why did you pinch Laura? You are going to be a madman in college Jimbo. I'll miss you.

Karen: Robbie Robbie Robbie ... Dave Dave Dave ... I love him ... I'm mad at him ... I hate him ... no you don't ... yes I do ... no you don't! ... yes I do! ... fine, he's dirt. Good luck with future relationships; I'll always be there for you and what's his name!

Linkassaurus: A memory that will stay with me for the rest of my life: climbing the mountain and seeing trees, a lake, and lots of brush; everything but camp. I hope to see you at Pomona Linkus.

Lisa: I wish there could have been more Steve Saeta classes with you. KIT.

Marc: ehhhhhhhhhh ... what?

Dave: "You have your own special way of holding my hand ... don't ever let go." — Genesis Greg: I have always admired you — probably because you are where I hope to be when I'm twenty-four. Just promise to give me a free check up every once in a while. You know I love you.

Mom: You have done the impossible: putting your three kids through school while simultaneously rebuilding your own life. No other person has ever shown such determination and strength. Quoting from Lionel, "Jean Ann Enns, you're one hell of a mother."

Love always, your superfantastic Kid.

Mo: Dr. Belt ... you got a better grade ... whack! ... that's my boy ... nudge nudge ... just like I taught you! Without your smile, I would have never made it through B-wood. You are a truly special person.

Rachel: You smell.

Stevie: Nudge nudge, wink wink, know what I mean, know what I mean, say no more say no more ... famous quotes ... he's jealous again ... not anymore ... Tianna ... now I'm jealous! You still give great hugs. Take care of yourself.

Tracie: The Nutcracker ... cotillion ... jazz ... aerobics ... modern ... B-ball, V-ball, S-ball ... Stephen S ... Steve ... Brad ... Jeff. Wanna still catch that boat to Tahiti? I hope you find what you're looking for. Good luck.

Wendyll: Yosemite ... the suitcase ... hatred ... friendship ... Charthouse ... New York Seltzer. I'm glad we became friends in the end.

Shannon: Everybody's teddy bear ... McDonald's ... in search of the perfect girlfriend ... thanx for being there for me with open arms.

Steph: Pink Floyd ... Jen ... What's her favorite song? ... Southern California is so underprivileged ... and then there's Bruno, the "Soap Opera Story. Ich bin so froh, dass du hier zwei Jahre kommen. Du bist eine ausgezeichnete Freundin!

German IV: The early days with Ms. Hahn ... the mini-skirt ... the dreaded "O" in her gradebook ... the old "salt in the coffee" trick ... the Black Forest Inn ... then came Herr K ... we're going to die this year ... phew, false alarm ... look at those socks! ... that sexy hairline ... Russell, where's the camera? ... Jeff, where's your book? Christian, where's my dollar? ... Peter, where are you? ... David, where's your Coke? ... furry scrotum, I'm gonna miss you guys.

Special thanks to all the teachers who tried to make me a good student, and all the coaches who got me in shape!

MOM & DAD: I have so much to say and yet somehow so little. Thanks for all that you have taught me and for all the love you have given me ever since I can remember. One of the greatest gifts you both have given me is your trust. Your inexhaustible confidence in me has helped me maintain my sanity and my own self-worth.

DAD: My soulmate in the family who shares my undying appetite when it comes to that famous Swiss chocolate. I know that we have had our share of bad times, but somehow they fade into the background compared to all fun and the good times!!! I admire you much more than you can ever imagine and hope that someday I will be able to be as multi-talented, creative, and energetic about life as you are. I LOVE YOU.

MOM: Thank you for always being there for me when I needed someone to talk to or to get good advice from. Your ability to handle both a profession and a family is admirable and rare. I hope that the years to come will hold much joy and happiness for you. I Love Ya ...

Myriam: To my favorite deadhead in the whole world ... You more than anybody else has influenced me and shaped me into the person I am today ... I know the last couple of months have been tough for you but you'll pull through. I'm so proud of you ... Thanx for everything and all the memories. I love you ...

If you want me, you
center
In the outskirts and in the fringes
In the corner out of the grip

When they ask me
What are you looking at
I always answer nothing much, not much
I think they think
I must be out of touch

Steffi: Nun ja, wie lange ist es jetzt schon 4 1/2 Jahre? Die
Besten ... Pudding um 11 ...
The Irish Pub ... Schon wieder ein Freund? Also sowas?!!?!!
Ich kann Dir wohl niemals genug danken für alles was Du getan hast und was Du auch alles gehört hast. Unsere Freundschaft ist die BESTE ... Du bleibst und bist immer bei mir
#!!!! I love Ya ...

Manu & Susu: Arcachon ... die tolle
Zugfahrt ... Badminton, dieses Spiel hat so irgend it was an sich ... Ziggi ... der Holländer ... die Drei ... es war so super und ohne euch wärs weniger als halb so viel lustig gewesen ... Ja ich weiss, Stephie's Deutsch ist mal wieder nicht so ganz ... Manu ...
Jetzt schreibe ich Dir aber wirklich, ich wünsch Dir was ...
Susu ... Die Weinachts ... plätzchen ... hier in L.A. ... ich hoffe wir kennen uns noch lange BAP ... I Love Ya.

Bruno: Irgendwann kriegen wir vielleicht unsere chance ... die eit diez wir zusammen verbracht haben werde ich nie vergessen und ich Dank Dir für all die schönen Erinnerungen die wir gemeinsam haben ... Ich hoffe das deine Zukunft all das enthält was Du dir wünschst ... Keep the dream and maybe someday it will come true ... I LOVE YOU ...

But I'm only in the outskirts
And in the fringes
On the edges of the avenue
And if you want me, you can find
Against the grade

Marni: The Lettuce Patch ... yes, that infamous little eatery where our friendship began. I'm so happy that we got to know each other and our friendship is something very special. Thanx for listening to my endless stories and somehow I hope I've helped you along the way too. I wish you all the best ...

Monique: So are we going to college together or what? Waiting for the bus ... Somehow I always do an awful lot of walking when we go out
... "I know where we're going" 30 minutes later we finally reach our destination ... I hope you succeed and may all your dreams come true. Love Ya ...

Cindy: Hey, beach buddy ... the weird dude at the beach ... may I borrow some of your sand ... NO! Oggi's and our life philosophies ...
The VCR ... You were the first person I got to know at BWOOD and ever since then we've been friends and even though we see things totally differently we've done really well. I've learned a lot from you ... Thanx buddy for all the good times ... I Love Ya ...

CHRIS: The memories that we share will stay with me for a very long time. Your advice and your willingness to listen to all my problems has helped me take it through the past 2 1/2 years. Our friendship has helped me grow and it has enabled me to better understand myself and the people who surround me. DANKE!!!! So, how's your boyfriend's girlfriend? You and I have always managed to keep our lives simple and uncomplicated?!!?!! For the future I wish that all your hopes and dreams come true!!! I LOVE YA BABE!!

SHANNON: Our friendship is something so special I almost don't dare to write anything in fear of spoiling all that we've shared by saying too much. Well here's an attempt. — I cherish all the moments and memories we have together with all me heart. Friends like you don't come around very often and since I've had the luck to have you as a friend I won't let you go so fast. — Catalina, "this is true," all those talks over dinner, 4th of July ... thanx honey for all you've done and for caring. I LOVE YA ...

JENN: Even though we don't spend so much time together anymore I still think about all the things we've done together. — coming home at 3 AM, just a tad bit late, streusel Kuchen, a certain sexual savage whose name we will kindly omit, the list could go on forever. I LOVE YOU BABE!!!! Don't go changin', keep your head up and go for it!

CAY: Hey, you immature smack!!! One of the few sane people I know and one of the few people who understood me from the start. THANX!!! I consider myself lucky to have gotten to know you because you're a very special person and friend.

MOM & DAD: I can't thank you enough for everything you've given me. You have always encouraged me to be independent, yet you are always there to advise me. Your support and confidence in me have helped me accomplish all of the goals I have set for myself. Thanks for raising me in such a loving, stable and 'together' environment.

LISA: When I was young, innocent and easily influenced, I used to idolize you. You obviously enjoyed playing the dominant role. As I grew more intelligent, we began to fight and argue as do most brothers and sisters. Now, however, I think we have the perfect relationship. Because we have totally opposite strengths we each add different things to our relationship. You have done a great job in giving me advice and helping me set my priorities. I know you have the potential to do anything you want, and I will always love you, no matter what you do.

HOMEBOYS: You homies have made high school fun. We have shared so many memories in the past two years: Castle ... Regular Jon's ... Cafe Roma ... Dreyher ... paint guns ... Genesis concert ... Simple Minds ... Prom ... Binde ... Lamonica's ... Top of Kenter ... parties ... helicopter parties ... parties at Christian's & Brett's ... Skimboarding ... The Wedge ... State ... Zuma ... drive back from Merrieth's sweet 16 ... Tenmasa ... flipping at Russel's ... Laserium ... Murphy's ranch ... Trivial Pursuit ... Quarters ... sarcasm & anti-sarcasm ... Semi-Formal ... La Chaya ... Fatburger ... football games ... IHOP ... Halloween-hockey masks ... Diesta ... Light and Healthy ... Sprint ... Benihana's-La Cienega and Marina ... buckling on the beach ... Vail ... New Year's Eve ... "scaling the neon sign" ... Stan's ... King George V's ... etc.

BRETT: Threat monger! You have been a really great friend. Your generosity and amiability make you a unique person. You make everybody around you happy and you can fit in everywhere. memories: five accidents and four tickets isn't too bad ... setting the alarm off at Vicente Foods ... the PT ... buckled bowling ... Record-a-song ... cappuccino ... dog piling at your house ... giving Jeff a melvin & shredding his underwear ... Zuma skimboard contest (those guys were bad, seriously!) ... Untouchable's concert ... Simple Minds concert (seventh row center) ... Aardvark's ... Builder's Emporium ... Laker game with Christian and dinner at Dan Tana's ... "Beyond the Edge" ... Vail.

CHRISTIAN: It all started out in as a skate session at the Brentwood mart. Since that night at Matt's house our friendship has come a long way. Your an extremely confident and dedicated friend and you're always fun to be with. memories: Matt's party ... top of Kenter ... playing quarters & trivial pursuit at your house ... "You have the credit card? O.K. Cafe Roma" ... skating at Paul Revere ... late night cappuccino at Croissant Show ... Improv: "You talk so funny I can hardly understand you" ... cruising Westwood (call me when you can drive) ... Volkswagens ... your beer bottle collection ... cops at Tenmasa party with Suarez (playing piano on the car).

MARC: Rubi, you have a lot of style, character and determination; I know you will succeed at whatever you want to do. Your friendship has meant a lot to me. memories: Spies like us ... skimboarding in the moonlight ... driving in circles ... playing Nintendo in the store for an hour ... bracelets at Postermat ... driving out to Pt. Dume ... making up the word "POMO" ... scaring people from the roof on retreat ... New Year's Eve betty in Vail ... limo on the freeway ... pantyhose.

CATHY: In less than five months, you've changed from some 9th grader with a bad reputation into one of my best friends. Your abilities to think and to feel make you an incredible person, a special friend, and someone I can relate to very easily (when we're not playing games). Remember, I 'love' you and always will. Good luck next year!

ANNA: My co-detective! Wait, you're a freshman? Well then, let's spread some rumors. Anna, I admire you for not putting up with anyone's B.S. Stay strong and stay fun!

ANYA: I've only known you for a short time, but I love what I see in you. I hope we grow closer and more open to each other.

RIMA & CHRISTEN: You're both energetic, caring, and fun to be with. You always make any situation (school, party, anything) a little better just by being there.

"You can blow out a candle, but you can't blow out a fire. When the flames begin to catch, the wind will blow it higher."

with. Good luck next year! LARRY: You've been my best friend since we were in the third grade. Although we don't see much of each other now, you mean a lot to me, and I hope you find happiness with whatever you do. DAVID, BOBBY, THOMAS, BRIAN, PETER & JAY: It's been fun hanging! LORI, JULIE & ALLISON: It's been fun talking, teasing, and playing with you. Have fun at college! MR. MCCATTY, MS. PODNER, MR. HUTSON, DR. SIOHANSI, DR. COOK, MRS. WALLACE: You are all unique and wonderful people, and, as I have learned, you all have something to offer. You have been perhaps the most important people at Brentwood for me. Thank you.

RUSSEL: Our memories go way back to ninth grade when we used to order pizza and sleep in the guest house. Bubble what? Fatty what? Anyways, I'm glad we started hanging together 'cause it's been a blast. memories: R & R auto detailers ... swinging from the rope in your backyard ... your pathetic BMW ... your ridiculous RX7 ... driving to the valley ... Upland ... Mountain High ... our Mammoth adventure ... our ninth grade lunch table. XAN: Aarrhhi! When I first met you in the seventh grade, I was immediately attracted to your individuality. You are different than anybody else I know, and you've helped me retain my individuality. memories: Bitchen Ski Club ... Devil's Punchbowl ... Mammoth trip '81 & '82 ... Siouxsie & the Banshees ... "Hong Kong Garden" ... Siouxsie concert '86 ... Genesis concert ... taperecording the Peter Gabriel concert ... skating and going to Regular Jon's ... burning feces with Lysol ... building ramps ... Dodger games ... Mountain High ... Princeton Review ... the baby at the hockey game in Salt Lake City ... making up songs on chairlifts ... Duquesne ... computer with Lem ... Rip City. JEFF: Zooker, I don't think we ever really talked until last year, but now you're a close friend. Wow, man, life's a trip. Good luck in college and I'm sure you'll make it as an architect. memories: skimboarding with wetsuits ... skiing at Mountain High during lunch ... Genesis concert ... drive home ... what cop? ... what gate? ... turn on the lights, turn on the lights. GARY: Cherrball, it's been two years of excitement that I've known you. memories: skiing ... Mammoth ... jacuzzi ... Mountain High ... Vail ... buckling at Rocky Roccoco's ... pulling you into Bridge Street Shuffle ... French ... New Order. MALEK: Of all the homeboys, I've known you the longest. It's great that we became friends again. memories: rapin' about Brentwood Elementary ... Lawerium ... warping out on the paintings ... the globe ... the movie ... your Dad's formal party with all the food stations ... Record-a-Song. FRED: Our relationship grew from a small seedling into a beautiful rose in Ms. Podner's tenth grade French class. Since then, you have been a terrific friend. You're intelligent, reliable (when you want to be), and everything else I wrote on your brag sheet. memories: Cross-country & Track (two of my fortes) ... the Dweebus ... going 50 miles out of our way to get top a meet ... General Public concert - missing the Three O'Clock ... you know who's parents ... top of Westridge ... French ... History ... roses ... picking up my car every other week ... VW Santa Monica 829-1888 ... Jack in the Box after Cross-Country ... College trip. MARK: Pincus, where are you? Where's Encino? Mark, you're one of the best friends I've ever had and I'm sure we'll keep in touch in the future; after all, we talk now don't we, and you live in the valley and go to some degenerate institution that is supposed to be a high school. memories: bagging on each other ... your parachute pants ... my plaid shorts ... eighth grade history with Mr. Hutson & the blind ... Nazim ... playing computer games at your house ... our Warner Bros. tour ... planing to take the picture of the two of us and our cars ... La Jolla ... How many times did you blow it? ... Thompson Twins concert (Irvine and Universal) ... bagging on Brentwood ... losing your car in the Beverly Center ... I'll see you when you come out to Los Angeles. KIKO: You're a small, unbelievable freak. It's been a lot of fun knowing you and watching you squirm under pressure. memories: Chemistry with Si ... I'm gonna fail, I'm gonna fail ... study hall ... fighting with Josh ... History ... the battle of for the GPA ... "Mona Lisa" ... the fighting elves. AMY AND ALLISON: I'm glad I got to you this year. The two of you together always seem high spirited and happy. Thanks for picking me up when I'm feeling bad. EMILY: We've spent the last three years talking with and teasing each other. You've made school, especially Speech and Chemistry, a little easier to cope

Mum and Pup: Thanks for always pushing me to "go for it," helping me to be my best. Everyone says that their parents are the best, but I know you are. I'm positive you are. It's so hard to say how much I love you in such a small space. But I don't think you'll ever know how much I do.

Drewstr and Catman: Everybody biologically loves their siblings, but very few are actually good friends with their brothers. This is something very special. Very special. You guys be good and take it easy on the Units; the Great Pacific is leaving. Practice your hoop and maybe someday you'll beat me. Maybe.

Matty: I don't think I can ever attend another party that will top your Bar Mitzvah. Thanks for including me. We have something very special and I can't figure out quite what makes it work. I could guess and say that it's your honesty, humor, intelligence or what have you. But I know that our relationship is something more. Something that will last forever. I know I'll be seeing you a lot next year and thereafter. I know we'll never drift apart.

Key: Your understanding and sympathy have always helped me stand by you when I wouldn't have otherwise. I would keep reminding myself how you always acted towards me when I was down. We've gone through so much together that I can't see us ever splitting. I am looking so forward to seeing the first of your movies from Beantown. I love you big guy.

Sister Poro and Cousin Rich: Hey guys, thirteen phughking years. Who would of thought we'd stay close all the way from the red rocking chair to our senior year. Have fun in college. And How, don't worry about the attendance.

Lori (Laure?): How the hell did we become such good friends in less than two years. Don't worry about next year, you'll do fine. And please, don't try to set me up with any of your friends.

Joshua Glen (T. C.): I have this feeling deep inside that you'll succeed in whatever you do as long as you keep your mouth shut. I don't say this meanly because you know I love your witty comments. Your good-natured humor is always appreciated. Remember our days with Irma when you're in the dead winter of Upstate New York.

Seth: Well, we almost made it. From the worst of enemies to good friends. I really enjoyed getting to know you better. I think we are both too obstinate to look past some of our rough edges. Have a good time next year. I'm sure I'll see you when Penn kills Harvard.

Kimmy and Gret: Even though we had a couple of squabbles, working with you two this year has been a pleasure. Be careful next year and don't get into too much trouble.

Christina Ann: I really enjoyed talking with you these past couple years. Your good hearted advice has always been accepted. And remember, stop throwing pens! It's all fun and games until someone loses an eye.

Special Thanks to: Coach Brown, Shib-dibs, Mario McCune, Mr. McCatty, Ms. Huchel, Ms. Dunn and Ms. Radomile.

*Now the years are rolling by me they are rocking evenly
I am older than I once was Younger than I'll be
But that's not unusual
No it isn't strange
After changes upon changes
We are move on less the same
After changes we are more on less the same*

To my friends — Thank you for being a wonderful part of my life. Some words of advice: The world is like a globe but much larger. It's vastness causes people to be lonely and wary of others; however, people must unite. They must form an army with the Superfriends and conquer selfishness and malice. If all goes well, love will triumph. But the pessimist might ask, "What if nothing really matters?" or "What if life is just an illusion?" If that's the case, I definitely overpaid for my C.D. player.

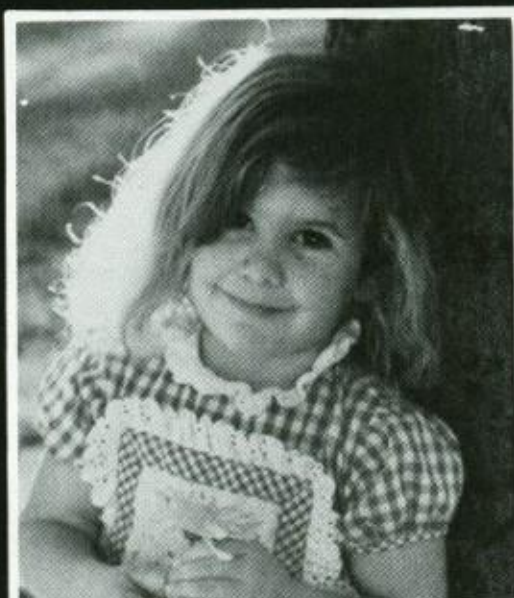

Well I'm on my way
I don't know where I'm going
But I'm on my way
I'm taking my time
But I don't know where.
Paul Simon

Sometimes the lights all shining on me;
Other times I can barely see,
And lately it occurs to me
... what a long strange trip it's been.
The Grateful Dead

Teach your children well, that parents hell will slowly go by, and feed them on your dreams the one they pick is the one they'll go by. Don't you ever ask them why if they told you you would cry so just look at them and sigh ... and know they love you.

CSN&Y

Laura — We have only known each other for two years, but you have been a really sweet friend. I hope that you are happy wherever you go. I love you Sunshine. Remember the Beastie, Mikey, "I wanna be a sto ...", the allnight shrink session, yogurt, and the Corona mamas.

Abby — You are an original, the New Yorker that "got lost and drove too fast" with me in California, journey in the parked car, the confused sto ... and those amazing stories. Do the Beastie, please!!!

Shalita — Eventhough we drifted a little, I still consider you to be one of my best friends. We experienced much together and I will not forget those times. Westminster, fireroad, JD and the Mercedes. sh ... the dog, Pete, JD, SJ, RR, SR, Spect, Robbie, "Don't worry we'll get there," Cancun, Tim, Chris and Chris, Moody Blues, and (oops!) the Police. Remember, "this ain't no picnic!" Be happy. I love you.

Hilary — I have known you all my life, from Bellagio to Carlthorp to Brentwood. Good luck wherever you are.

Ari — Can I ask you for a favor?

Bobby — Thanks for all those "life sucks, so what are you gonna do about it" talks. They helped me to not take life so seriously.

Cay — All those talks would have cost bucks if you were a shrink. Thank you for listening and understanding. I know that our conversations will never be dull.

Robbie — We have been through so much together that I could never forget you. You got me through some really rough times. I love you.

Jami — You are nuts, but I love you.

Peter — Our friendship only had a few months to grow, but it grew fast. Thanks for being my shoulder to cry on. I hope that you are happy in Sweden.

Galen — Always there, my lifetime best and most dependable friend. I love you sis.

Rob, Cathy, Tom and Nancy — Thanks for always being there. The advice and understanding got me through these rough years. You are the best bunch of big brothers and sisters that I could imagine. I love you all.

Michael — You are the best but most mixed-up big brogher in the world. I cannot imagine it being any different. You can always count on me, because I love you.

Mom Dad — These past six years have been tough on us all. I want you to know that I appreciate everything that you have done for me. I love you both very much.

Danny, Matthew, Lauren, Jennifer, and Michele — I love you all, the best nephews and nieces in the world.

Special thanks to Mr. Balak, Ms. Wallace, Mr. Cacicedo, Dr. Cook, Ms. Huchel, Mr. McCatty, Mr. Krause, Mrs. Schneider, Mrs. Temple, and Mrs. Stevens. You all helped to make hard work not so hard.

Lori: I get this feeling that I may know you as a lover and a friend. But this voice keeps whispering in my other ear, tell me I may never see you again! In your arms I feel so safe and so secure, everyday is a perfect day to spend alone with you. My love for you is immeasurable, my respect for you immense. I learned how to laugh and I learned how to cry. So you'd think I could learn how to tell you goodbye. If getting you back is against all odds then it's a chance I've got to take! I can never thank you enough for being there when I needed you and for teaching me the things I could never learn anywhere else. You are the greatest and I love you!!! Christian: A long time ago there were two crazy little kids. One slightly taller than the other with multi-colored short hair and a green jacket with a bullseye on the back. The other was a long haired little freak who wore Iron Maiden T-shirts. Fate took its toll and these two kids became best friends. Every week they would grab their BB guns and go hunting. At night too they would dress up, get some cloves and do some female hunting in Westwood. Like all best friends they went through some hard times but now they are as good of friends as they ever have been and will continue to do so. And even though they don't go to Westwood anymore (except Light and Healthy) the hunting always ends with a good catch: Can-Cun: Flamingo 106: La Boom: Castle: Mulholland: Jet GLI: Chaparel: Cappucinos: Cafe Roma: Chin-Chin: Seridan: Zebra kid: Fourth of July: New Years: McDonald's: Andre: Olympics: Roger's Jeep: Computers: Marcee and Holly: Bettys: XTC: Cold and Soggy: Halloween: Lechen Muschi mein freund.

Alan: From the days of thrashing Puff the Magic Dragon till the present we have been best friends. Even though you go to college with hics and rednecks we will always be close. Stay away from the cross-streets of Pico-Hoover and remember that Patties phonenummer is in my book.

Malek: I am glad that you came to Brentwood and we got to be friends. Few people can say that they have seen the Dead twice with Malek Akkad. And believe me when we are older and I go out to a Akkad Production flick with my wife and kids they will know about the Mal-dog.

Allison: Our friendship has had its ups and downs and I will take full responsibility for the latter. I hope we can become good friends again because your friendship means a lot to me. Thanks for everything.

X-Con: We have drunk zillions of cokes, eaten a multitude of Changs and Pretzels, and terrorized every neighborhood in the city. No bus stops, poseur or any other freak is a match for us and our paint guns. You are a good friend and will always be one: Mods: Quadrophehnia: Bristol: Castle: Bionic Ear: SMA: Upland: Guesthouse roof: Our good friends Master card and Visa: Bonnadventure.

Eric and Todd: For two friends out of school who I see every week on the top of a hill what can I say except someday no one will litter, the police won't harass us and the castle will be ours again.

Marc: Even though we have only been friends a relatively short time we have become incredibly close. I can't remember everything I want to say so I will make it brief. Some people say that we Brentwood people don't know the value of a dollar, but I know that both of us know how far or how much a dollar bill can go! Gromace and Brian: Although I only see you jokers 4 times a year you have been a part of my life. Never forget Light and Healthy, Deep, Dark Valley and all the times at the castle.

Roger and the Worm: You guys are great for the past years you have been my older brothers. Thanks for the use of the car, apartment and anything in the fridge.

Threat: I will never forget you. After all how could I! You have left your mark on my garage, trees and walls around the block. We became friends in traffic school and maybe it's my fault you did not learn anything. You are the funniest person ever and the biggest flail I have ever met: Chicken soup: Bettys on Di Este: Light and Healthy: Bindle: XTC: The Dead: Your Party: Kegs: Your new balcony: Skinboarding: "Who did you rear end this time": "Oh I didn't see that cop."

Bobby, David, Peter and Mess: We have had good times and I will never forget the WSB or our tours of the Botanical Gardens. Good luck! Special thanks to Ms. Z, Mr. Reed, Mr. McCatty, Mr. Kraus, Esteban, and the waiters at Light and Healthy. Also special thanks to my grandparents for driving me where I needed to go, making me breakfast and giving me all the love in the world. I love you. To anyone I left out — "This Bud's for you" — Thanks for being part of my life.

Mo: Stick to your beliefs no matter what, our walks, calls to Rob, trips to Carmel, Leigh fixing her face, candles, David, T. Dolby, prom dresses, I.D., fairies, Mark take care fluffy muffin! Dana: Our friendship came late, better then never. All your great jokes, winter, spring, summer or fall, the jolly blonde giant, prom shopping, notes in our English books, driving Mul, bye bye. Trac: We went from being twins to friends, I must say I like the latter. Cards from Europe, 1st date, Flashdance sweatshirts, our bet, Mat Sat the Bat, bra shopping, I can still wear that bra! Cay: I'm glad we drove together it gave us time, even if I did fall asleep at the wheel.

It is time for you to stop picking your nose! Angie: The spirited one, you're always there with a smile. You are very special and rare to find these days. You look great in boxing shorts, I'll miss you Apollo. Cindy: I can't imagine I ever hated a Capri owner. I guess that is what growing up is all about, you see people for what they are not what you want them to be. We'll have to talk all night again sometime. Jen: Take stock in yourself you will profit. Jim: Always there to talk to — usually about our love lives, you're a good friend and I'll still only be a phone call away. Megs: Sydney, calling the patrol, late talks, Sunset at 65.2 plunge and a snore, remember that 4ever! David: We've been thru a lot, and there is most likely more to come. No points for 2nd place, so you better catch up.

Guys: Take care, try to get on without me.

Jules: We've always been close even though no one knew. We've always been able to talk, I've always thought of you as a close friend. We've done well, Jules, better than most. One day you'll learn how to make M&C.

John: We always fought, but you told me things about myself that I didn't want to hear. Thanks for the honesty.

Jessi — My little sis, you have always thought me strange, you're right. Take care, remember I'll be back to check on you. Drive carefully — Luv, Wendy

Ms. Huchel: For 4 years you have been my baby-sitter, my adviser, and most importantly my friend. B'wood would not be so hard to leave if you were not there. Who will take care of me, yell at me, call me, and care. Everyone should be lucky enough to have someone like you so close. Thanks for being such a nice shoulder to lean on. Don't think I'm gone for good, I'll fall, and I do mean fall back into your life again. I love you!

Mr. Mc: A perfect person, a great teacher and friend. Lunches with you will stay in my mind forever. You and your class showed me another side to reading one I enjoy. I meant it when I asked you to marry me, thanks for Emerson and everything else.

Mrs. Lockard: My 1st and last B'wood English teacher, what a way to start and leave. You've always given me the extra encouragement I need, you have helped me to become what and who I am, is that good?

Wis Family: Summers are some of my greatest memories! You have helped me thru more than you can know. You let me be me no matter how immature that is.

Les & Chuck: My parents away from home, thanks for letting me corrupt your kids.

Laird: Don't drive them too nuts, never mind, have fun.

Ash: With those legs, no problem, I promise.

Grandma: I hope you are proud where ever you are, I still don't know where the clowns are maybe one day I will.

Linda: Thanks for being there and listening.

Kevin: My bro., B-ball coach, love life adviser, wrestling partner, and roomy! You're a great guy, think of who your sis is!

Dad: The true director. Thanks for always being there to help me or give that needed push. I may be pigheaded, but I'm trying. Thanks for letting me realize what I'm capable of . . . anything. Like father . . . like daughter.

Julie: My idol. Even thru sweat socks and ivy I've always loved you. I still worry about that poppy. You showed me the reality of life and myself. I love you Ice, Wemby!

Lisa: The quite girl in the front of the class. Thank God for the bridges: the glue girls, driving with me, no brakes, the drive-thru, Hawaii, prom, David, Berkeley, driving all that way, Dwight and Chris, Jules bed, coming to my games, prom, Ready For the World, Regular Johns, trail mix, my philosophical depressing letters from N.Y., daily phone calls, prom, vestal virgin, "take off the halo," retreats, sharing clothes, "is this mine or yours," our ring, Renaissance Fair, Jerel, stupid questions, "put in the paper," Mr. Allan, lunch with Mr. Mc., apple juice and Coke, pink, prom, driving the pie, dorm room, Boulder, "I love this song," Artie, being tan, this page, stealing candy, the horn, 2½ hour photo, I can't believe you put up with me this long. I'll always be here. You've been thru so much yet you remain so sweet and caring, thank you for being my best friend and so much fun, I love you.

Chris: That night at Safe-Rides everything fell back into place. It seemed no time had passed, but we were both more secure with ourselves, or maybe just more secure with not knowing. Flannel shirts, talking until all hours, contemplating life overlooking the bay, renting bikes, the S.B. Yacht Club, D.Q., Top Gun, Gordy, nightly walks, Christmas parties, Ted, David, Ayn Rand, Mark (both), a meal on 1.27$ is a feast, B. J., Malibu Grand Prix, someone to tell, every B-ball, bathrobe, a quick jog into S.F., Chris thanks for being someone to enjoy D.C., Always remember that "Only the good die young." I'm safe how about you?

Sasha: I did not know that on Sept. 27th my life would change so much. My Knight in shining armor, you stole my heart in one evening. I LOVE YOU! The roof, the ballet, fidgeting, the silver ball, art class, my many notes, Palm Springs, "If being happy is a sin . . .", Your 959, Tommy Tangs, semi-formal, family dinners, "What if they don't like me?" cutting my food, #11, chocolate shake, a small Coke, a small bowl of onion soup, #11 (well done) with no Russian dressing, a large Coke, my baybie, my first true love, "Mr. Happy" "How often do you think about . . . ? playing pool, hot water, large bathtub, laughing, not being embarrassed, Word Upl, typing, writing together, our first Christmas, a tree, how domestic! KOST 103, waking in your arms, rain, and a fireplace — 1 out of 4 isn't too bad, H.M. 85, my ring, "He's a freshman!", biting, hip bones, "often," he's asleep, "Nightly 2 hour conversation — it goes deeper then that, you've asked nothing of me, but given me so much. I hope my dream comes true, I don't want them spoiled! Thanks for helping me, loving me, and being there to hold me. I even have trouble ending this!

Mom: The perfect mom down to prom dresses! Thanks for putting up with your youngest zygote. I know I drove you nuts, but insanity runs in the family. To put it mildly, I love you! Want to dance?

"I would rather be laughing with the sinners then crying with the saints" — Billy Joel! This is dedicated to the class of 1990, work hard, strange coming from me? Love me!

Mom & Dad — No matter where I go or look, I will never find the same intense love and support that I have found in you. Thank you for all that you have given up for me. I love you both very much.
Sean — Thanx for being there for me, and you are right — we have to stick together. Love you.

Jessie — Hang in there; you are going to make it. If you ever want to talk, just call.
Heather, Chris and Tripp — I will forever think of you three together. I miss you, and I wish you the best.
To Angie, Chris, Jennifer, Shannon, Glen, Danny, Jennifer, Lurey & Loraine, I wish you the best. I will miss you all.

Philein — My very best friend. This is for you:

Dr. Belt — Although you are retired, you will always have a heart of youthfulness and of gold. I miss you.
Mr. McCatty — I feel truly honored having you twice as a teacher. I thank you for turning me on to Eng. and for helping me with my writing. I wish you the best in your own writing — I'll be looking for your books at the book stores.
Mr. Cronin — I have never been through or learned so much in one year from a teacher as I have with you. Thanx for putting up with me. My best always to you and Virginia. Ophelia
Mrs. O'Hanion — You are one of the few teachers who reveals herself as a person and as a teacher, both showing sensitivity and intelligence. I wish you and your family well.
Mr. Hutson — With your only free period, you were always willing to give it up to help me in Gov., thank you. You have a lot to offer, Mr. Hutson and thanx for sharing some of it with me.
Mrs. Sodona — You are a wonderful dancer and choreographer; I'm glad I was a part in your wonderful creation.
Mr. Knight — You have quite an eye for ART!! I thank you for making art something that is not taught but learned and experienced. I have learned so many valuable lessons from you; one that stands out in my mind is PATIENCE. Thanx again and I will miss you dearly.
Mrs. Z — You always greeted me with such a warmth and love that made me feel so special. With your sensitive heart, you knew when to be firm with me and when to have compassion for me. Without fail you were there for me with words of wisdom and kindness. You will always have a very SPECIAL place in my heart, Mrs. Z. I will miss you the most at B'wood. I love you — Always — your Mariko. (keep up the fight for the animals) and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

Create in me a pure heart, O God,
 Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
 Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

Mommy and Daddy — You two are the best parents anyone could ever have! (Well, almost always) Thanks for everything you have done in the past 17 years to help me grow up. Even when things are rough, I can always count on your support. Thanks for believing in me. I will always love you. Love, Hilary Teach your children well, that parents hell will slowly go by. Don't you ever ask them why, if they told you you could cry, so just look at them and sigh and know they love you."

Holly and Daisy — You two are the best sisters anyone could ever have and the best friends. I'm so glad we've gotten so close in the past years. Your loyalty, laughter and tears have made me love you so much! Our memories together are the best. Be good and don't steal all my clothes. Don't be too hard on M&D, but keep them on their toes! Have fun, Love, Hilary. HC-I treasure your ability to listen and always appreciate your loyalty. Thanks HD-Good Luck at BWOOD!

Shalita — There aren't words to express our friendship. We've shared everything and had so many fun and wild times! I admire your laughter, daringness, loyalty and caring. #### THE PLAYERS

Amy — Amers, this is very hard for me. I love you most in this world, and we won't ever be living together again. I am so grateful to have you as my sister. I know that we will always be close. Next year will be a big change for you. It won't be easy, but you're going to be very happy. Write me often.

Mom — You know everything about me, and I came from inside of you. It's your love for me that has made me the happy person that I am today. We've had our fights, and I'm sure they are not over. But our relationship will never be weakened. I will miss you and dad very much. I love you.

Dad — You are the man whom I respect most. I think the loving bond that we have formed stems from the contrasting personalities that we have. I know you are proud of me, and I'm going to try to stop competing with you. I love you.

Howard — Well, well, well. What can I mumble about? You have become an essential part of my life. I respect you very much, and am eternally grateful for all the time you have spent listening to me. We've had countless memories and analyzations, which are best left alone. I'll miss you and your sense of humor very much. When you're ready to talk about what you hide, I will be there. Stay brilliant.

Fred — Serge, I have much I would like to say to you. We've come so far since our carpool days of seventh grade. Our friendship is an excellent one. You're very important to me, and I'll never forget the things we have done. I have only one question for you — how did your eyes get so big? P.S. Your marriage to Amy would have my blessing!

READE — Okay, Aryan, here goes. I always love spending time with you, and there is no one else who has your taste in music. You have such a good heart, my friend — it's what I admire most about you. Meeting you last year was a good thing. Peter Gabriel and Roxy Music will always bring me back to you. Thank you very much for all your help on this page.

Stefani — Hey 360! Our recent friendship is growing wonderfully strong. You are one of the most caring people that I have ever met. Stay loving, but don't let yourself get hurt by people who aren't able to return your love.

Steph — You were my first love. Our relationship was something I will always cherish. As it seems to be inevitable for all adolescent couples, our relationship had to end for now. I'll never forget you or what we've experienced together. We'll meet again.

Sam — Bonzai boys forever! You and I together are unstoppable. I love your independence and incessant quest for action. I know our friendship has been limited this year, but I'm confident that it will have its revival very soon. Since our youth, our friendship has always rotated from strong to weaker to strong again. Have an excellent senior year.

Michelle — The girl with the smile. You've had a very positive impact on me over the years. We've shared some great times. I am privileged to have such a dedicated friend. Take care of yourself.

Steve — The boy I grew up with. Well, I'm ready to enter the college life. Believe me, you'll be hearing from me. We really had some childhood, didn't we? I hope that we can say the same about our adult lives.

Josh — The guy who gave me the infamous alias "Butt love"! How can I thank you enough for the gesture? You've got a great sense of humor, and a very sensitive, caring side. I'm really starting to appreciate you as this year goes on. I know that sometimes you get a lot of heat from people for being obnoxious. Once you learn when to joke, and when to be serious, those biting comments that you get will disappear.

The DeFelices — I love you all as my second family. I've missed you ever since you moved away, but I know that we will stay in touch.

The Israel Boys — So you were right, Dave, after Israel, it would be all over. That doesn't mean that I have forgotten the endless good times that we had. Ron, Dave, Rich, Scott, Mark, and Danny — you guys are great.

Mrs. Wallace — I'll always remember the discussions of our English class. Maintain your carapace of steel at all costs — the students need it! I thank you for putting me on the path towards literacy.

Mr. Krause — You have more compassion and perception to give your students than I thought was humanly possible. Try not to think so much about death. It's bad for you. Goodbye.

To all my other friends and acquaintances at Brentwood — thank you for everything.

All the world, even you Should learn to love the way I do.

Andy: The little sports fanatic, this is not the time to apologize for being such a horrendous sister; just know that I love you.

Brian: Giullone — Stay mellow — there truley is a wonderful world waiting for you somewhere out there. Stay close. Remember, the Muskrat loves you.

Nadine: There was never such a class as our Biology class! Jacuzzi's, Movies and late night crams, DM, DB, MB, and MP (the list goes on) . . . what would we do without each other?

Meighan: What a tough trail. I love you, hon. Our relationship is too special for words. Depeche Mode, Hawaii, Kea, . . . the valley is where it all began (do ya believe it?)

Chris: Oh boy! All I have to say is, Thank the holy Lord in heaven you were there. I don't think I need to say anything . . . you know what I am thinking anyway!

Siubhan: Ichiban, Berkeley, Brett, Hans, Onion flowers! Growing up as a black and a jew, I became a bit confused . . .

Steph: My little intellectual . . . I can't wait 'till we venture through Europe!

David: Maybe one day I will perform on Rodeo drive for you, but for now, just keep doing what you are doing, and know that I am proud of you. Thank you for showing me some of the best times.

Mark: Kind sir, Shining Knight, Me Amore, Confidant, My Only Third Man, The Fun Never Ends, My Best of Brothers, My Closest of Friends. "What a long strange trip it's been"

Meighan — You're such a special friend. We share some type of understanding with each other that I've never had before. The time we spend together is so precious to me! I love you. Summer 84

"Ever the best of friends."
Charles Dickens
Lyndsey — (Nu, Du, Monst, Nugle) The time we have shared together has been the best times of my life. The things we have experienced together have been very special, and of course very fun, and I will never forget any of them. I love you so much Lyndsey. You are my friend for life. It must be the attitude!

"I get by with a little help from my friends"

John Lennon and Paul McCartney
Loren — My other friend for life, you too have been there with me through the mostly good and some bad. All the way back in seventh grade I knew you were someone special and you did not disappoint me. I love you. It must be the attitude!

"Where'er I roam, whatever realms to see, my heart untraveled fondly turns to thee."

Oliver Goldsmith
Mom — you have not only been a terrific mother, but also a best friend.
Dad — You've affected my life in more ways than you know, I won't disappoint you.
I love you both very much. Thank you for all the opportunities you have given me.

"For there is no friend like a sister in calm or stormy weather."

Christine Georgine Rossetti
Debra — I can always trust you to be there when I need you. Best Sisters forever.
"One man in a thousand, Solomon says, Will stick more close than a brother"
Rudyard Kipling
Greg — You definitely made growing up fun! I'll never forget anything you have taught me.
Randy — I'm so glad Debra married you! You add so much to our family that I can't imagine us without you. We have THE best of times.
I love the three of you very much!

Nick — We have been through a lot together and our friendship has survived it all. (That definitely says something for our friendship.) You have brightened my life with your great humor and your caring words. Love you Oh No Kamo!

Seth — We have become close in such a short time, considering that I have known you since sixth grade. The advice that you have given me is so valuable and as we said you're definitely a "keep in touch" friend. I love you.

"A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere. Before her (him), I may think aloud."

Ralph Waldo Emerson
Amy — A friend outside of school is a valuable one. We started our friendship in an unlikely place, Hotchkiss. We have cried, laughed, and been terrified together. The security of our friendship is amazing. I love you very much.

"The best mirror is an old Friend"

George Herbert
Jill — Since I've known you my entire life, I can say I am overall best known by you. Your honesty and loyalty to me I recognize and appreciate. I am so lucky that you put up with everything that I dish out, love you always.

"Old friends is always best, less you can catch a new one that's fit to make an old one out of."

Sarah Orne Jewett
Mike — You have always been such a great friend to me. I can't ask for anyone better. I'm looking forward to the many more laughs ahead and look fondly back on the ones before.
Malek — You really are one in a million! You're a terrific friend and I really love you!

"Without friends no one would choose to live, though he had all other goods."

Aristotle
To my great friends from last year, you made eleventh grade memorable. "A friend is, as it were, a second self."
Marcus Tullius Cicero
Hilary — you will always hold a special place in my heart. Live and let learn. I love you.
Julie — I'm glad we got our act together. You're a special person and I love you.

JEFF — the zookeeper, we started surfing together, remember the sunset days? "Just call me Poseiden," nice bowl cut, have fun at the sling shot contest with the Eagle Scouts, volleyball in the outdoor court — you, me, Glen, and Danny, remember what a homeboy you used to be before I taught you the ways? I'm sorry about Alison, Atilla's haircuts are rad, nice single fin, Trestles trip — your car broke down and so did your racks — jaywalking the freeway. See you in the Caribbean and at U.C.S.B. You're a good friend.

MALEK — I still can't remember when we met. We've had a lot of fun times together and I hope we will do more in the future. I hope you get in U.S.C. World Party, sloth, subliminal campaign advertisements, flat tire at 1 a.m., Mrs. Feder's class, Hughs market parking lot — mimicking Led Zeppelin. Come with us to the Caribbean. See you in the summer, brada. BOBBY — winnebago, Trestles, sl-i-i-i-ce, Surf Volume 1 & 2, arms Hewson, the elbow, but it has a hole, nice ollie Sterz, you're just a goofy version of me, cloves on the beach, red light — joke. NEW ORDER Brraah! Osta. DOUG — this testimony is dedicated to Doug "Pet Shop Boys" Neiman. What can I say except everything? Let's start with the millions of inside jokes. More Prinn stories please, suburbia. TxRx, Did somebody say...? hand gestures, Mr. vocab, Sterz, "Looks like a kind boogey session" — Donny, what's up bro, River Jetties, Dawn Patrol, LEO-LINE & CARILLO-COUNTY in Spanish — we're definitely at county line, arms out of control, Jenny Woods... Next, Panama Reds "You're number 1" — "Of course." "Maybe you know my brother Joel, Kelly?", Strider... Brad Strider & Shaun Blazer, The Shadow, the bums at Bay street. Let me borrow your board." rap music in your room, Doug/Barber, Susan, TRESTLES TRIP — red light, she's kinda cute, cloves, "I'd like to thank the city of San Clemente," good jokes, so rad it was scary... AAAHHH! the elbow. That's all I have room for. You've been a good friend and we'll surf a lot in the future. Surfer's alliance brah! Osta. THOMAS — we've been friends for about 8 years, now and we have piled up the inside jokes. Alecca is a rager. I love Tina. GIGI, Vail '86, Team Plastique, "Please you have to have a picture of me on your page!", Gilbert in the summer "Who else would have done that to chico man?", Shel"... trash can band" & "broooo... pull over buddy!", sleeping with his bike, fourth of July "Nice Hat" at Beach Club, Spago, all the movie premiers, pissing in front of the restaurant in Vail, New Year's Eve in Vail, dropping it on the chairlift, Nintendo Super Mario Brothers, Curtis ski trips — T-bar jump. Have fun in your senior year Tom. I love you Tom. Come to the Caribbean with us. The boys of summer. BRIAN — we've been friends for a long time, too long — through the canyon?, the famous jet ski adventure — jumping waves at CHRISTIAN — there's too much to say. We've been friends for 3 years; spent about 900 days of them together. I've never had such a complete friendship in such a short time. There are a couple of memories I'd like to share with you, Remember when you first moved in? After my first visit to you I knew we would become best friends. SHAVE ICE, BRA! You called me burner: I miss that. Start of 11th grade; most raging ever! Quarters one-on-one after school, skating to Liquor Barn, my ultimate goal is to seize... menage a trois, zombie at Westward Ho, Beverly Hills Cafe with Thomas, Shel, me, Kristin — "You must play football," Team Plastique, making faces in your mirror; scaling the neon sign, window soccer, Simple Minds, Carmine is a homo, U2 at Eve's house, F.U.R.Y., P.O. MO., vocab wars, Fatburger, that night with Jennifer Lebe "complimentary leg massage." wanna take a jaaacuuuzzi? I love you dude. I'm scared of the future. I hope we are friends for the rest of our lives. See you in the Caribbean, bro. RICKY — I don't know what to say. We have been going out with the homeboys for so long now. Remember Mammoth in Easter? Rad night life, Lisa Podosin, jacuzzi and snow combo, "Can you turn on this car stereo in the room." "Yeah, Christian, you owe about fifty dollars for the room." Vail '86, Brett doing a helicopter, driving Russel's car into the pool, Bridge Street Shuffle — thanks a lot for pulling me in, Mountain High. See you in the Caribbean. We'll build a ski mountain after Wharton. BRETT — I remember first meeting you: running into Hillel's Volvo. Nice way from Dallas. "you're two ahead of me" — girls, Alison Atlas, Wild Child by the Untouchables, thanks for running into me, Karen Krydel, making nicknames "How about Threat?", Grandma Hewson, we are the best helicopter jumpers ever, towing me at Kenter school with your car, plexiglass skimboarding, taking nitrous oxide hits. I'll see you in the Caribbean, too. I love you, man. MARK — the lark. We have to go skimboarding at the WEDGE. Dang momma leShay, she da be da one, you're a class A rapper at the castle — Oh, hi, Coby, you're the best vice-president ever, Encino Surf U.S.A. she had her mouth full at the semi-formal. "Hey Bill, bring out all the cases of mini Lowenbraus.", she looks sick in the daytime, looking for bobbies in Vail on the run, horniest ever on the chairlift. Guess where I'll see you this summer, See you at U.C.S.B.

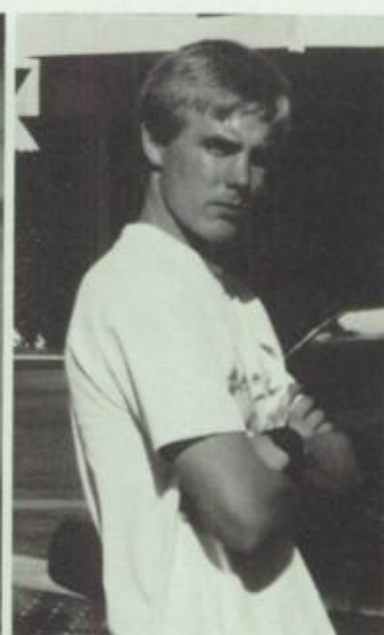

Sunset, Vail '86 with Tripp, riding in the trunk, helicopters, new VolkIs, Allisha in the Jacuzzi, New Year's Eve, building the skate ramp, falling on my head, your trying to surf, doing rolly-pollies in the ocean at Bel-Air, playing stick ball in the basement, Thomas falling off the minibike, and just having fun all the time. I love you like a brother and we'll definitely see each other through life. ALEX — "Give a good back rub, and she'll turn over, and you're stoked" Please be my all over body messuese. JOEL — what a brother you have been. We were not always very good friends but now we are almost good friends. This does not mean you can borrow the coupe. I can't go through our whole lives together but most importantly remember the good times before things got screwed up. You are one of the funniest guys alive today, but you do not look like Bruce Willis. See you later. Love you. MELISSA — I love you more than I can write so I won't write a lot. You are very special to me. San Francisco, let's do it again. MOM AND DAD — mom, thanks for the nose, legs, and asthma — just kidding. I love you and I just can't write enough because you're my mom. Dad, thanks for all of your support — I love you.

SPECIAL THANKS TO: SIMPLE MINDS, NEW ORDER, THE CURE, THE MODE, GENESIS, PETER GABRIEL, U2, AND THE FLO' BOYS for providing listening pleasure. THIS IS A DEDICATION TO ALL THE GIRLS IN MY LIFE — SORRY I CAN'T FIT YOU ALL ON ONE PAGE.

Thanks to Brentwood School for a good education and special thanks to Mr. McCatty — you're the best teacher/friend I've ever had. Emerson rips. "and we'll go walking hand in hand; because all across the land, it will be east at Easter." Simple Minds: Sparkle in the Rain "I will serve no fries before their time." Brad from Fast Times

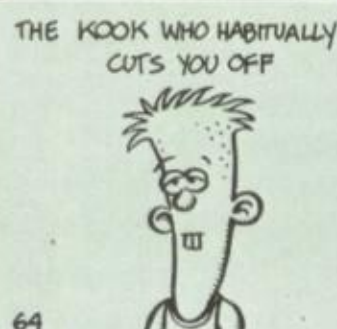

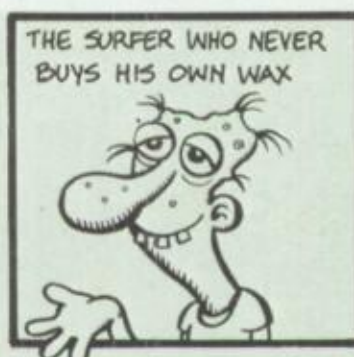

TO ROBIN AND DAD: thanks for being the guiding force that got me to where I am today. Without you I would not be an anomaly — a compromise between surfing and academics.

ADAM: Even though we did not get along sometimes, you made me realize that I'm glad I'm not an only child. I hope you'll think so when I'm away.

PETER: Somebody should still make a movie about us.

TO THE ANCIENT HAWAIIANS: Thanks for creating a sport that means so much to me.

TO EVERYBODY: We are all snails in a shell called Brentwood. We grow and get nurtured to maturity in this shell. How durable the shell is depends upon what you yourself contributes to it. And when we become seniors, it is time to look for another shell and thus be able to grow more. For the benefit of those yet to enter brentwood, we leave it a stronger and more attractive looking shell than it was when we came. Brentwood is a cool shell but I welcome the change and adventure of finding a new one. Take Care.

NICE TRY ANYWAY.

Dad and Inge: Even though we are miles apart, you are always close in thought. You gave me a chance to grow up and become my own person. You were always there when I needed you. "Just a phone call away." I know that everyone has problems but I was lucky to have you helping me through mine. I know that when I finally do have kids I will ask them all the questions you have asked me. They did help me sort things out. I love you so much. Thank you for everything you have done for me. xoxoxo

Mom and Bill (Willie): There is so much to say to both of you. Willie, you are the best stepdad I could ever have wished to have. Your reassuring words always seemed to be the perfect remedy. You believe in me more than anyone. To me you are perfect. I love and respect you so much. Mom, is there enough words to describe what a wonderful person you are. Our relationship is more than just mother daughter, you are my best friend. The times we share are so special. What am I going to do next year without you? How about being my roommate? Wouldn't that be incredible. I Love You more than I could ever tell you. La Costa will always be one of our most special memories. Care for a facial? I send you kisses, xxx

Greg: My big bro, I can't believe what you put me through when we were little: Strip shows, locking me in closets with Meg and her???, telling me I was adopted, calling me names BTV, CW, Through the years, the fights led to tears. But we were destined to end up loving each other and become friends. It finally happened. You have so many fine qualities. I am very lucky to have you as my brother. You have helped me through the years as no one else was able to: the plane rides home, the late cries . . . Somehow you always take care of me. I Love You.

David: "Let me tell you now, all that is on my mind. For a love like yours is oh so, very hard to find. I've looked inside myself, now I'm very sure, there can only be, you for me. I need you more and more . . ." L.R. Since the day we started going out, September 12th, you have been my best friend. I care so much about you. I can't even begin to think about not being with you next year in the last three years we have matured together. It seems that with each day I grow closer to you. All of the memories I hold could fill books. These are the most special: James Taylor, Silver Lake, Palm Springs, Anniversaries, La Bodega, New Year's Eve 86, IGBY'S, Birthdays, Queen Mary, Goodbyes, Hellos, staying over, the safe box. Dallee, I could go on forever. "You're in my heart, you're in my soul. You'll be my friend should I grow old. You are my lover. You're my best friend. You're in my soul." R. S. I LOVE YOU FOREVER XOXOXO Winter, Spring, Summer, or Fall, all you have to do is call and I'll come running. You've got a friend." J. T. Find me in ten years.

Alison: Since the 7th grade we have been best friends. Best friends are never lost. The fun times we have had together could brighten up any gloomy day. You once wrote, "make new friends but keep the old, one is silver but the other is gold." Alison, you are gold! I care so much about you. I hope that you will always be happy in whatever you do. In the future, I know that we will always be able to understand each other. We know such a great deal about one another. Alison, I love you and I always will. Never forget our weekend in P.S. That was incredible!

Kim: This year has been filled with memories of you. Words to describe you are caring, considerate, dependable, and loveable. We always seem to have fun together even when we are just sitting around. I know that we will always keep in touch because of the bond that we have had for six years. Don't ever hesitate to call me wherever and whenever you need me. Always remember that you mean so much to me. I Love You tons: Ian, Lip Stick against window, grow a little, Vera, Roses, IGBY'S, 1/15, Nights out, sunning, boyfriends, jeeps, food, long talks, bad pics, Hard rock (who kissed who?) Mrs. F., car scents, gifts from?, nightmares, facials, prom dresses, beach, my cousin grabbed what??? XOXOXO

Meighan: I think that we are sisters. We understand each other and seem to always be on the same wave length. Our nightly calls always brighten me up and somehow I am able to laugh about anything. I am positive that wherever we end up next year, we will always keep in touch. As far as the future goes, are we still opening up a medical office? If so I will call you in about 15 years. Meighan, stay as sweet as you always have been. I Love You.

Julie: From the first day I saw you, I knew that you were special. I was right. We have had some very special times. I really hope that we keep in touch always. I love you. Halloween, double dates, cloves, Australian accents, La Jolla, sailing with???, D.D., "T"-friends forever, the beach, spud, and so many more to come.

Loren: We have something special. Hisby Lisby always, dressing up, Sushi, Craig, candles, Bel Air Bay, midnight strolls, taking the car out, dinners, Staying Alive, and all the dirty notes (ha, ha) I love you. Good Luck at P. I will miss you.

Bobby: You are such a nice person. I always feel that I can call you and you will listen. Remember your Dad's party, your many dates, my cousin, Magic Mountain, Gretchen's sugar daddy, the prom, the Regency Club . . . Good luck always, I love you.

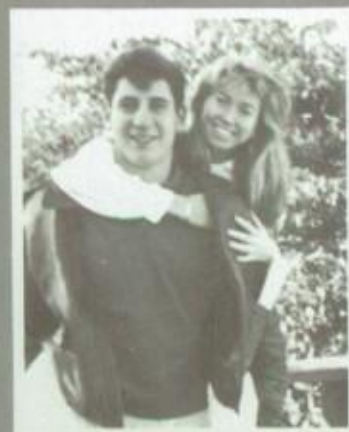

Lyndsey: I Love You. Somehow we always have something to say to each other that will bring a smile to both our faces. Keep in touch. Ski trips, lunches, homecoming, secrets.

Jennifer, Lori, Jessica: You made tennis so much fun. Jen, we have been friends for so long. I care a lot about you. Take care and if you ever want to play, give me a call.

Mr. and Mrs. Leit: Thank you for being so caring and warm. I love you and will miss you so much.

Special Thanks to: Ms. Huchel, Mr. McCatty, Mr. Anderson and Dr. and Mrs. Temple. Mrs. Warren: You are the greatest teacher and friend.

Gretchen: Thanks for all the fun times . . . I DEDICATE THIS PAGE TO MY GRANDPARENTS WHOM I LOVE VERY MUCH.

Mom and Dad — I will never be able to thank you for everything that you have done for me. Thanks for all the support no questions asked. I love you. Aunt Patsy — to my friend. I love you always. Don't fade away. Phil and Mindy — no matter where you are, I will never forget all the happiness we shared together. You have touched my life and what I have learned from you will never disappear.

Marni — what are best friends for? From bowling in the valley, driving in your car, rainy nights with Yaz, magic mountain, someone who coughs, the mononucleoids, the tenth grade class of two, yuck!, coke cans, all in the family, minor bag sessions, flying eggs, MKB days, our romances, Dr. Belt's, lean cuisines, memories of you baby, and here's to many more.

Alison — talk about the real thing, it just goes to show you that no matter what, true friendship will survive.

Hilary — my sis! I love you cutie. I have had the best times with you. From not being allowed to talk on the phone past 6:00 to now, you've come a long way baby, and you deserve it.

Wendy — I have never laughed so hard in my life, from the guy with the lobotomy, to the monster in the black jeep, the hard times, the basketball days, tears in the night, and my precious Sydney, It's been a blast. Finally got rid of the guy with lft legs, lft body and lft head. Driving in the pie. the car thief, thanks for the lotion, I love ya!

Emily — my Forest fairy, no matter how much space is between us we will always be close.

Diane — to a teacher who has touched my heart and filled my world with music, I miss you.

David — I love you more than you'll ever know. You've helped me through some really rough times, and I'll never be able to thank you enough. The basketball man (YAI) with grace that deserves a rose. Look out for water on the floor. Eat at Islands You won the bet. Don't forget to commute. I hope our plans come true, a penthouse if you insist.

Punkin — my Secret to Keep, you are my-dream come true.

Mike and Tina — In just a short few months I have learned so much and on top of that I have made two special friends. Thanks for everything. I love ya — and Mike, I'm still working on your BMW Doug — never give up hope. You have been a very big part of my life. I will never forget you. I miss you already. Don't be a stranger.

Link — my rebound buddy, I wish you all the best. I luv ya!

Monique — all of our conversations have meant so much to me. Thanks for being one of the few who understand. Don't change.

Lisa — Chemistry, what a mistake, but at least it's over with. Thanks for making me laugh. So much for getting lost at Powell.

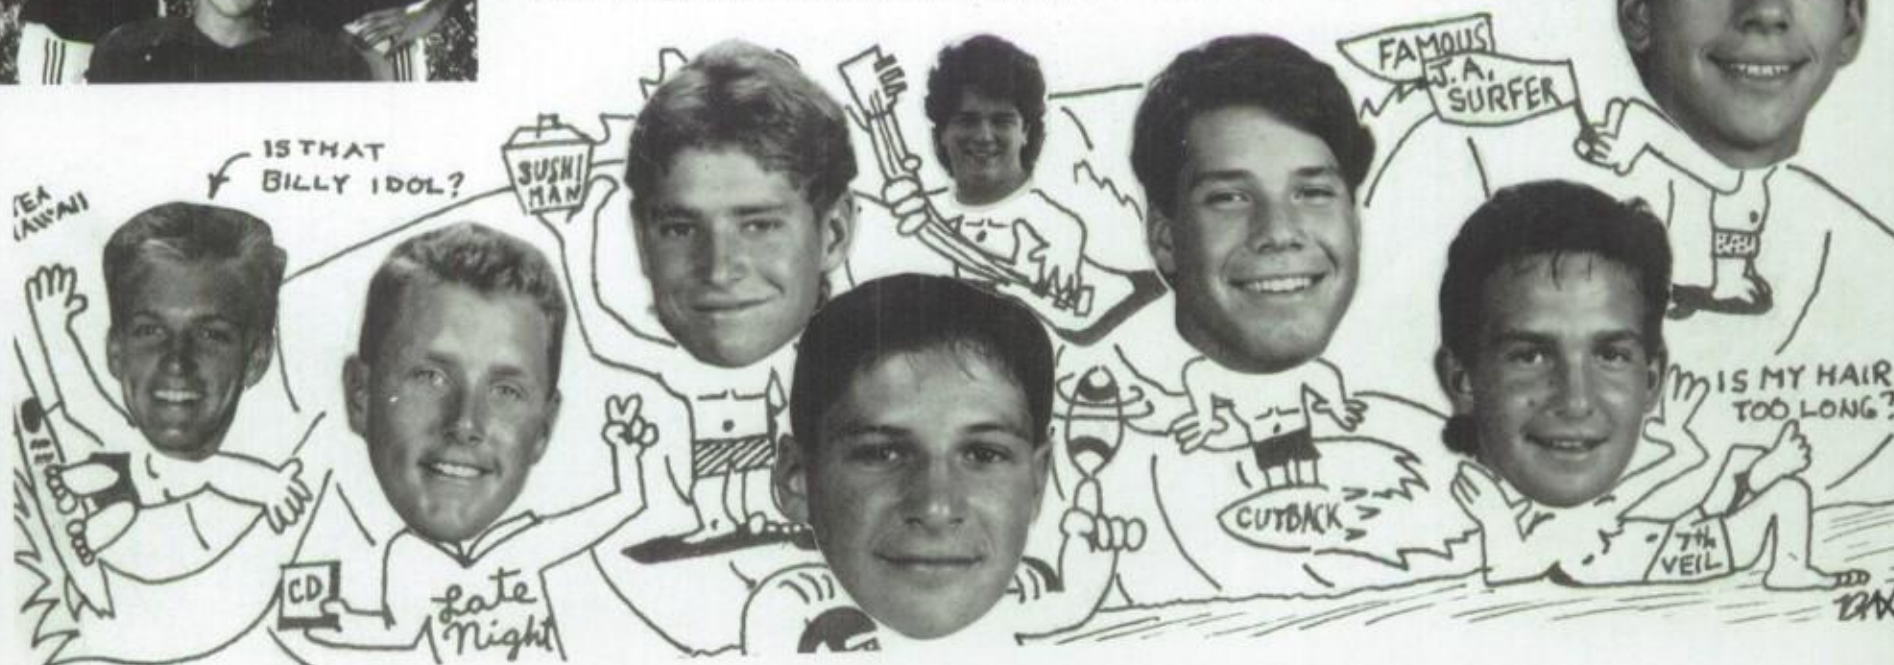

Thank you especially to my caring parents, David and Susie, my terrific sister, Amy, my frolicking dog, Murphy, and my Rumblefish, Sparky; who filled my high school years with excitement and spunk. Leaving Brentwood in tenth grade led me to Principia, a St. Louis boarding school where (yes, it's true) I could find no waves nor weather even slightly reminiscent of Los Angeles. Mr. Balak and Mr. V. deserve a round of applause for helping me with the whole college deal, as does Andrew. Who else would have spontaneously climbed over to Jeff's Valley house through my Mandeville Canyon backyard. My understanding parents kept my debating skills sharp, and my sis sensitively stopped me from getting out of hand. John, Malek, Andrew, and Hillel proved the joys of glorious Tijuana many a time; while Nick, Gary, and Doug are the surfers who dominated everything from hairball California Street to overhead San Onofre. Football with Seth, Andy, John and Nick, was fun as long as Renner was out there struttin'. Jeff got unstoppable when we let him run wild in Newport, and parties without the Pieces just weren't worth dropping into. A hug goes to epileptic Rabbit for not breaking down at Maria's as of yet. I'd like to give you the reader a big hug, too!

Lopaka Howell

P.S. Thank you for being perfectly A-1, Allison. You're amazing kiddo.

MOM & DAD — I finally made it and I'm going to college. Hope you two don't stress too much without me around. There's going to be no one to yell at. Thanks for the support and the patience. Love you both a lot and I will not let you down, you'll be proud. You won't be there for the screw ups. TIFF — Thanks for helping pave the way with mom and dad. You made it a little easier for me to mess up. Also, I get a lot more freedom because of you. The Family vacations have been a blast, but mom stresses way too much. Would you relax! Next year what are you going to do about borrowing things. Try not to punt too many guys while I'm gone. Luv ya.

THE NUCLEAR FAMILY

CHEVY vs. FORD?

GLEN — Thanks for the tutoring help, couldn't pass without you. What do you want to do? — I don't know. Finally got some good skis. Rap is forever.

THE BEST OF THE BEST!

JIM — CARS! Burn outs in the IROC! Racing the TA! ABS in the Beamer! E brakes. Double E rides are the best. Let's talk to the Com Center. Finally I trust your driving. GRONO — Cruising Westwood buzzed is the best. The Bangles. Don't forget to set the E-brake. Road Trips. San Diego. 115 to Huntington Beach. Cruisin' for life!

WENDY — Contrary to your belief, I do not only think about cars and girls. Our friendship is unique and it's all out of love. Poles don't move in parking lots and don't forget to turn on the lights. I haven't found the man in the moon yet. Good friends are forever — I told you.

MO — Thanks for being there for me to talk to. You're always there when I need you for advice. What's gonna happen next year?

TRACY — Aerobics and sushi. We've had some good times and I hope there will be more. SC over UCLA.

ALLISON — Friends for the longest time and our friendship will last forever. You've been there for me and me for you. We survived one school change and we will another. Mike will always hate me. Thanks for the years, luv ya.

KORY — Ski buddies forever. When we gonna party next year? Who you gonna introduce me to? Hard core skiers.

MRS. Z — Ceramics is a great but I hated getting dirty. Loved your class and I'll be back.

MRS. DUNN — Thanks for the rec and also all the extra help. You're always there for that extra help.

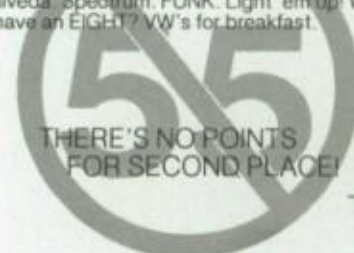

MRS. BALAK — Thanks for the help with the college stuff. Guess I'm going after all.

DREAMIN IN THE G.N.

DAN — We know which is better and we don't need R&T to tell us. Driving with you is fun but against you is better. Bristol runs. Racing Sepulveda. Spectrum. FUNK. Light 'em up! Why do you have an EIGHT? VW's for breakfast.

THERE'S NO POINTS FOR SECOND PLACE!

"Seems I'm not alone in being alone." Sting

Dave: We've had some great times together. It's easy not to be serious when you are around. Your ability to animate others is a very special quality. Anyhow, I did not include a picture of you because I saw enough of your face on the last page.

Mom and Dad, Mom and Dad: I will always be grateful to you for the chance you have given me to be myself. I love you for who you are and for who I am. The love and care you have given to me has been invaluable, and I could not wish for better parents. I hope you know this already.

Stephen: You always find new ways to act like a little brother. Although we are different on the outside, I feel we are really quite similar where it matters. I love you.

Grandma and Grandpa: I would be a much weaker person were it not for our relationship. Your love and reassurance has given me courage at times where I have lacked it. I cherish the time we spend together.

"I came into this world, not chiefly to make this a good place to live in, but to live in it, be it good or bad."

Thoreau

Shannon: We seldom seem to do anything, though when we are together we have a lot of fun. Take it easy and we'll do something later on.

Reade: Mr. Tennis, I wish to thank you for your Lucky Charms, lack of temperment, and most of all, your original, spacey personality. You're a riot and a great friend.

Josh: You are the most hilarious and sensitive guy I know (who is 5'9" and lives south of Pico Blvd.). Of all of the people at Brentwood, I would most want you in one of my classes.

Matt: I will try to refrain from calling you the H-name. What can I say but that it's been fun, and I hope that it will still be fun next year.

Danny: Hurry-up, you're late again you fool! You have proved to be a true friend, and an amusing companion. I know we will always be so. We're going to have a blast. By the way, what is the national dish of Australia?

To the rest of my friends: I must thank you for making my life at Brentwood a pleasant one. I am sure many more great times lay ahead of us. Good luck and I'll look forward to seeing you in the future.

"Schools are for training people how to listen to other people." David Byrne

Mr. Krause, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Ohanlon, Mr. Basmagian, Mrs. Bogle, Mrs. Wallace, Mr. Knight, Mr. Hutson, and Mr. McGann: I would like to thank you for making Brentwood a great school and for making my education interesting. I truly appreciate the pride and the care you place in your work. Above all, I admire your class.

Mr. V: Thank you for helping me through my toughest assignment in the past six years. Putting up with all of my insecurities and answering all of my useless questions must have been a frustrating task. Without your patience, I would not have been able to survive the fall of '86. Let's play tennis sometime.

Mrs. Warren: It has sometimes seemed as if you have been a mother to me at Brentwood. I have especially enjoyed the times we have talked of things other than geometry or Senior Seminar. I hope we will continue to talk in the future.

Mr. McCatty: Your 11th grade English class was the best class I have had at Brentwood. And yet your most valuable words had little to do with literature. Whether you know it or not, you have become a mentor for me. Your thoughts and values have been a superb influence upon me and the rest of my class. I admire you, as well as your beliefs.

"Burned all my notebooks, what good are notebooks. They won't help me survive." David Byrne (at least, not until next year.)

Mom and Dad — You two have truly been the greatest. You have supported and encouraged me through both the good and the bad times. Although we all had our differences, we all managed to straighten them out regardless of their severity. And in answer to your question: Yes you both have done your job. I love you both very much. Oh dad, sorry for the nights when I kept you up past 8:00 pm.

Holly — You are truly too organized and together for my taste. But we both know how I am. As far as siblings relationships go, I would say that we have done pretty damn well. If in any time in your life you need me you know I will always be there.

Remember where you came from, where you're going, and why you created the mess you got yourself into in the first place.

To all those who ever brought a smile to my face — I thank you.

"Don't be dismayed at good byes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends."

Sabien — You have truly been an influence.

Mom and Dad — I cannot even tell you how much I love you both. I know sometimes I don't show it but I really do. You both have helped me so much through the years and I never could've made it without you. I'll miss you both next year but always remember that I love you very much. Thanks for all your love and support.

BeBe and E — Thanks for all your love and encouragement. You are both awesome grandmas. I love you.

Grandma and Grandpa — Even though we live so far apart, I love you both very much.

Nanny and Uncle Tim — I have always thought of you as my second mom and dad. I'm glad that we live so close so we can share so many things. You're a great family and I'm so proud to be a part of it. I love you both.

Tricia and Tim — My brother and sister I never had. I'm so glad we got to grow up together. You guys are the best. I know we'll always be very close. You're the best cousins anyone could ask for. Good luck in whatever you both do. I love you.

Sharon — Since I spend half my life at your house I want to thank you for putting up with me. Thanks for all your hospitality, love, and encouragement.

Jennifer and Connie — It is so hard to say everything I want to in this short space. You guys are my very best friends and I love you both. I'll never forget all our memories: summer, Gidget, Sit Ubu Sit, talking on the rocks, NB, Jetty, Junior Lifeguards, the surfing group, Ding Dongs, renting movies, new summer friends, parties, spying — What are the Swaggers doing to their house? — cruising, basketball, I'm gonna start swinging!, State, beach volleyball, taking and breaking the bus, Hey —, yeah, Hey —, yeah, bagging, sleeping in, Oscar the Grouch, we just don't get along. Top of Capri, mini mac, and quarters and millions more.

Jennifer — I can't tell you how happy I am that our friendship has lasted so long and that it grew so much in the last three years. You've helped me so much and I never would have made it through high school without your supportive friendship. There are so many great times that I remember, and so many times when you helped me, and I know that there will be many more.

Connie — Even though we've only been friends for three years I feel like it has been all of our lives. I remember the first summer we met and all the talks we had on the rocks. We made a vow that we would stay friends forever and I know that it will last. We have shared so many fun memories and I know that there will only be more to come. You're a very special friend.

Katrina — We've been friends for so long I don't know what to say. Someday we'll get our apartment and have the families over for dinner on a night we're not raging. You're a great god sister and I know we'll be just as close when we grow up. Have a great senior year. I love you.

Coach Shibuya — What can I say? You were the best advisor I could've had. You helped me grow in so many ways. Knowing that you were always there for me to talk to made school a lot more bearable. Thanks for all your help and advice in everything. I'll miss you. By the way, Michael Jordan is a God!

Coach Porter — You've made my volleyball career so much fun and have helped me to improve so much. Thanks for the great seasons. By the way, did I say Congratulations?

Shalita — I'm happy that we ended up as friends. Thanks for all the good times. Good luck!

Hilary — There are so many memories I can't begin to write them all down. We've been through so much together, both good and bad. The good times however, definitely stand out in my mind. You have always been there for me and I appreciate it and want you to know that I'm here for you too. Next year will be awesome, hopefully we'll be at Berkeley together. Thanks for all the great times.

Gretchen — Well we made it Gretty. Volleyball... club... running out of gas before practice... going to the valley... setting goals... coaching... inside set... private talks, and so many more memories. You've been a great friend and I hope our friendship continues to grow. Good luck in whatever you do. Love, Kristy

Vic — My Brentwood killer friend. I don't know if I would've made it this school year without you. Thanks for being such an awesome volleyball fan. I'll never forget CLCs... our awesome Hornets... your great driving... Roses are Red... talking about you know who, and so many more. Thanks for all the great memories and weekends. I'll miss you. Love, Kristen

Evan — Jamie, Neil, Paul, Kenny — My basketball buddies. You guys have made this year so much fun. I'll always remember all the basketball and quarters games. Thanks for your friendships. I'll miss you all but you better keep in touch.

Kelly — One of my oldest friends, together there are so many memories: Palisades Village School, Palm Springs, waterskiing, Brentwood, volleyball. You've been a great friend through all these years and even though our friendship has changed in many ways I still feel very close to you and am always here for you. I know you'll have an awesome time at Princeton. Good Luck.

Loren — To my favorite manicurist, I had a great time playing volleyball with you. Good luck in College. By the way, pink in the afternoon is my favorite color.

Lyndsey — My setting partner. Your A and B dumps were awesome. Thanks for making volleyball season so much fun.

Christen — My computer partner, I'll always remember the K Christen Connection. Good luck next year, I know you'll be the star setter.

Kevin — Thanks for being such a good friend. I never would have made it through Bill's class without you and Jeff. Your support during volleyball season also helped a lot. It's nice to know you're always there to talk to. If we don't end up together in San Diego, have an awesome time in college. Good luck in whatever you do.

Matthew — With you I have felt a Fraternal bond. What has been most important to me in the past three years as far as our friendship is concerned is the consistency. We have been honest with each other, and I know I can confide in you my most protected thoughts.

Kev — My main squeeze. And I should say I still believe it to be "health." You have allowed me to completely reveal my emotional side like no one I know. The night we went to "Wendy's" has left an indelible mark on my life, and I really don't know what I would have done without you to talk to then. I'm not only excited, but also comforted that we'll be in the same town for the next four years (and on the same side of the river, to boot!).

Baby — We have had the most well-rounded friendship — from "Solano-speech" to the deep discussions and I value both sides. Above all, however, I would like to thank you for your ability to accept. When I came to Brentwood, you were the one who admitted me into the old circle of friends, became my confidante, and cushioned the blow of the new school. I don't know if you will ever realize the importance of this, but the impact was immeasurable.

Andrew — I feel fortunate to have seen aspects of you which not many people have known. You have made an effort to understand me, as I have with you, and I believe that has made all of the difference between the two of us. Above this level, we've had the "great times," but the ability to reach back has given our friendship real substance.

Nicko — Your return was as important to me as it has been to you. I've never met someone who can be as probing and analytical of his own thoughts and feelings. Yet what I've prized the most are your astute perspectives of life and your uncanny ability to absorb and filter everything in a particular situation while keeping a perfectly calm disposition.

Michael — I'm sorry we were too stubborn initially to see each other for who we are, however, we've nurtured a really strong friendship during the last two years, and we're one helluva dominant force on the basketball court.

Jefe — 18 years: from Halloween parties with H. R. Puffinstuff and Robin Hood to the Prom in monkeysuits; it's been a really long time, man, and we've covered a lot of territory. I think it's safe to guess that our friendship will be around for many more years.

Johnny — Thanks for the summer at Club Med — Malibu division. Our friendship, like your home, has been a release for me.

Yahoshua — Rogers and Hammerstein couldn't have done it better than we did. Between our most creative moments while composing and someone's first day when someone else shot a bit of juice on his shirt, you've always had the ability to take stress, turn it askew, and laugh at it. I'm still learning from you.

Bob — I remember touring you around and wondering if you would really chose Brentwood; I'm glad you did (and twice, at that). Maybe our employment ventures didn't exactly work out but I know we could've hit it with the designer T-Shirts. Thanks for the surf instruction.

Yowman — You've helped me to put into perspective the stresses and often overwhelming complexity of life.

Shannon — My first buddy at Brentwood, and my two-on-two partner for four years; you'll always be a special friend.

Malman — I know some day your ideas will be a reality once you start allowing yourself a bit of credit. It has been excellent working with you and becoming your friend this year.

Ali — Your honesty allowed me to open up to you; thank you for being there, but moreover for appreciating and understanding my feelings.

Chaka — The finish-line of a long run on a dark night — no more needs to be said except that I'll be back.

Kel — There have been a load of laughs, some nagging and hitting, and a lot of coping; being there for all of them have made the last two years of friendship truly special.

Lo — Through both the richly thick and the extremely thin times between us, you have and always will hold a special place in my mind and heart.

Christina — I admire your strength and kindness, two resources which I have more than enough times needed to tap for my own perseverance during the past two years. I believe "what goes around comes around"; if I'm right, you are in for one helluva' an excellent life.

Gretty, Steph, Lynds, and Jen — In a word, best of luck; you four have enhanced my High School memories tremendously.

Lary-Lary — Thank you not only for your friendship and open-mindedness, but also for your allowing me to experience with you the highs and lows of a senior year before I got here.

Coach Brown and the Football Squad — Thank you for making this season my most enjoyable ever.

Mr. B, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Wallace, Doc, Ms. Huchel, and Mr. Balak — Thank you for helping me to enjoy my experience at Brentwood; I've appreciated your care and interest, and I wish you all the best.
Mr. V — More important to me than your guidance over the last five years, and your help in getting me where I'm going, has been our friendship. You've opened up to me, and I admire you.

Mom and Dad — I've spent my life working on being completely "in touch" with my feelings, yet it is honestly difficult for me to express the gamut of emotions which I feel for you two. Nearly everything I am is because of you, and I don't believe any "thank you" to be able to weigh-in at the level. Although the last years have been difficult, I will always look into our lives and remember the laughs and good times with each of you. You are the most important people in my life. These lyrics always make me think of you: "Teach your children well; that parents' hell will slowly go by. And feed them on your dreams; the one they pick is the one they'll go by. Don't ever ask them why; if they told you you would cry. So just look at them and sigh . . . and know they love you." I love you.

Dave — Beave, our friendship had come a very long way in a short time, and is now my most valued possession. You have compelled me to feel completely those emotions which I've tried to block out during the last two years. You understand a helluva lot more about life now than I did three years ago, and although it may look too complex at times, you have a phenomenal and exciting future to look forward to. I love you, Alufia . . . Bide, Bide.

Dan — Throughout my life, you have been the much-needed constant. You're my "bud," and my "cuz." Grandma and Grandpa realized our bond enough to make us Summit members in '82. We've had some bizarre and hysterical moments in our last 17 years (a certain day at the beach comes to mind), and I know we can count on many more.

Jeff and Joyce — Your home has been a special getaway, and your being there has made me better understand the concept of family. I'm crazy for you.

Grandpa — Thank you for your love and support, but above all for your patience. I love you.

Nelly, Jessica & Jamie — You have been and always will be a wonderful part of my family. I love you.

Mom and Dad — You've done so much for me, and I appreciate it all, even though I don't always remember to tell you. I'm glad we've finally come to an understanding. I love you guys a lot.
J. J. — I'm so glad I'm not an only child. We've shared so many jokes and secrets that I know we'd be friends even if we weren't sisters. Thanx for never telling — I'm gonna miss you most of all next year. Love ya, Julie.

Andy, Todd, Kim, Heather, Les, Teddy — My camp buddies — You have made the last five summers the best times of my life. The gossip, overnites and staff parties were so fun. I grew up with you guys & I love you. Oh Todd, I'm eternally "sorry."

Marci, Tami Julie — "Woke up in my clothes again this morning, don't know exactly where I am" — the crew — I'll never forget all the parties, every weekend, all this year. Besides, you never complained about the "way" I drove. But please, no more Chin Chin and Harvard parties... sushi is much better.

Jess — Everything about our friendship is M-BEAR-ASS-SING, but I love you anyway.
Laine and Craig — B'wood hasn't been the same without you. Thanx for all the laughs: (SWAG, 10 lil', prom limo). You guys are the best.

Julie — Yuckay! You're one of my oldest and bestest friends. Thanx for all the advice, laughing and fun since acro in sixth. I'm so glad to know you. After all, who else can I call at anytime of night just to chat? And remember... "If he's rich and takes you out to dinner, then you've found an L.U.D. winner" — I love you Jules!

Michelle — We've been through everything together. You're so funny, Eli; thanx for all the crazy times: same room, 3 Brian/Ricks, Paul Pogo, Rick "U-Haul" Baio, skiing (on & off the slopes), Mikado, tortures for Rylo and Ewlo, kicking in walls, Russians, not too, Wambamba, Teddy poem, St. #2, what doesn't remind you of Grant, people do the craziest things (screams), the night (Frat bus and B & R and ticket), New Year's — Bbbb... (Babec?), called home from Karen's, Oingo Boingo (yelling at every car), writing backstage, soloists at Gabriel, cast parties (darts at noses and out with tenth graders, Jean Naté, Hard Rock (guy on table), hey armpit, and all the plays, concerts and other ridiculous memories. I love ya, Eli.

Greg — After all the stages er've been through, it's good that we are finally close friends. I value your opinion and original mind more than you know. The brutal honesty and deep talks have made me understand myself better. And don't ever stop writing poetry — now for me "Lies" doesn't apply anymore. Thank you.

Kiko — Since Arrowhead during Lycée when we pretended I was French and played "Make Me Laugh," we've shared countless memories. I'm glad we're such close friends, mostly cuz the gossip sessions and boy talks were hysterical. Remember, McDonald's song in the Smokestackmobile, Galen's incredible dive, Adam's stories, gossiping with Mme. O, my boyfriend likes you, good carpool drivers, prom conniving, dance class, 10 lil' Indians and all its results, etc... I love ya, Kik.

Dana — a-a, after all the complaining we've done, and I'm glad we've become friends. We've shared so much stuff: this high, Huge, wet-soggy-ball-on-leg, GP doll, George is sexy and so are you, sharp and under pitch — B-flat minor definitely, not over playing, sneaking off and I'll meet you at Ship's. Love ya lots.

Bryan K. — we're even now?
Brian D. — "If the sun refused to shine, I would still be loving you" — LZ — Thank You.
Tracie — Thanx for always amusing me during chorus, plays, and of course in causing a scandal.
Marni & Meighan — Thanx for always being there for me. Sorry about the toilet.

Ten Little Indians — From the first rehearsal to the cast party we had so many fun times. You are all so talented and great to work with. We did it all by ourselves and it turned out to be the best play ever done at B'wood. Small face.

Dr. Belt, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Wallace, and Mr. Krause — I loved going to your classes.

Mrs. O'Hanlon — I respect you more than any other teacher I've ever had. Merci pour toute l'aide et l'amitié pendant ces deux années. Je sais que nous resterons amies meme apres je finisse l'école.

"It used to seem to me -
That my life ran on too fast
And I had to take it slowly
Just to make the good parts last
But when you're born to run
It's so hard to just slow down
So don't be surprised to see me Back in that bright part of town"
— Steve Winwood

I will be king
And you
You will be queen
Though nothing will Drive them away
We can beat them
Just for one day
And you
You can be mean
And I
I'll drink all the time
Cause we're lovers
And that is a fact
Cause we're lovers
And that is that Though nothing
Will keep us together
We could steal time
Just for one day
We can be heroes
For ever and ever
What d'you say — David Bowie HEROES

To Mom and Dad, I will always be affected by your influences. Watching your son enter the world that you have warned him about for so many years ain't easy. But know that I'm going to be all right, and that I love you both.

To Jen, Little bro Fat-tushy "I get the front seat" summer camps "we just want to experiment with make-up on Nick, it's okay." I don't think I could of survived childhood with someone else to go through it with me. I love you, more than anything, and no matter where I go, I'll be okay, kind of a pact, OK?

You pick me up
When I'm down
And when we got out pretty baby
You shake up the whole town — Marvin Gaye

There's a drunk in my past
The one who let me out
Who wasn't around when I needed him
There's a drunk in my past
Who says each drink is his last Though I'd give him 'nother chance
There's a drunk in my past
And each time I go past my house
I'm tryin' to find my way home — X

That day, I first saw you passing by
I wanted to know your name, but I was much too shy
But I was looking at you so hard, until you must of had a hunch
You came up to me, and asked me my name
— you beat me to the punch

Do not go gentle into that good night,
Old age should burn and rave at the close of day;
Rage, rage against the dying of the light
Though wise men are their end know dark is right, Because their words had forked no lightning they,
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Wild men who caught and sang the sun in flight,
And learn, too late, they grieved it on its way,
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Grave men, near death, who see with blinding sight
Blind eyes could blaze like meteors and be gay,
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.
And you, my father, there on the sad height,
Curse, bless, me now with your fierce tears, I pray.
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Rage, rage against the dying of the light. — Dylan Thomas, 1952

Mom and Dad — For me to say I love you is not enough. I realize that I am the luckiest girl on earth to have such incredible parents. You have provided me with more than I deserve and for that I thank you. I will always love you and thank you for loving me for the past eighteen years. I Love You.

Michael — I used to feel bad because I thought you thought that Melissa and I got whatever we wanted. Perhaps your sleeping on small cots during vacations for the past sixteen years instigated this thought. Well, I believe that you will always know how strong and undestructible the bond between us is. I love you and my respect for you is immense. Good luck at being a rich man with a law degree, three wives, part owner of Paramount, and black. Michael, I know you will be successful in all future endeavors, I love you.

Grandma — I am so fortunate to possess such a wonderful grandma. Not only are you the best cook around but also you are the prettiest Hungarian in town. Chok oy megl I love you.

Melissa — You are not only my little sister but also my best friend. I cannot imagine growing up without you. It is important that you know how much I love you and respect you. Our memories of growing up and growing closer can only get stronger with time. Bogo, I will miss not seeing your face every morning. I love you forever and always.

Jessica — I expect to see you at every Berkeley, U.S.C. game. Thank you for adding to my high school years and Warner years. Good luck always.

Good luck to Jennifer Ube, Shalita, Hilary Hatch, Jeff Grandin, Julie Adler, Adam Ruderman, Angela Reddock, Mrs. Lockard, Liz Monroe, Sloane Tanen and the Class of 1987.

Hillel — Well, we started off very strong and hopefully the bonds will continue to grow. Keep in touch always and I expect to receive a call from you at least twice a year when we are living our separate lives. Good luck at finding yourself.

Lara and Jamie — Though there were times of turbulence and sorrow, I truly feel that we possess a unique and undestructible bond. I am confident that when we are 80 years old we will be just as close as we are today. I wish you the best of luck in all future endeavors. Thank you both for enhancing my high school years. Jamie — "Beatles are pretty smart." Lara — Jeff and Jon will want us back some day.

"Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you've got to do is call
And I'll be there, yes I will,
You've got a friend."

Uncle Tibor — You are my friend, writer, counselor, mentor, and close confidant. Your brilliance was revealed when you called me sisqui-pedallian. Thank you does not seem enough to satisfy all your services. Anyways, thank you for always being there with witty words of wisdom. I expect to see you at Berkeley. Love Always, Soft Hearted Hannah.

Sherre — Where do I begin? I know I do not have to express my happiness at being your best friend because you've known that for two years. Sherre, our memories can never fade for they will only grow with time. Never forget visit at Penn, Vladamir, eating rice at Jeff's, Jeff Kaufman, Bobs Big Boys, waiting till three at Jeff's, Seth, U2, Palm Springs, Fred, and so much more. I hope you become the leader you desire to be at Smith. I want our friendship to last until we are the old people at the convalescent home expecting to see the high-school volunteers every Tuesday and Thursday. Love Always

Mom — try not to freak out about the Empty Nest Syndrome ("Jeff, it feels like we're eating in an auditorium!"). You'll be visiting me once a month at college anyway. I can't thank you enough for being there and helping me out during my college application crisis, as well as helping me with my fashion and passion. I love you, Mom!

Dad — Big D, my best buddah! You always tell me how important it is to be a "mench" — all I have to do is look at you for the perfect role model. I love you dad, and I'm chrazie for you!

Janna and Steph — you are the two greatest and foxiest sisters ever. You are also two of my best friends. Janna — you have an insane sense of humor, and Steph, your creativity is incredible. But you both have one thing in common — you're the two best sisters a little brother could have. I love you both!

Grandma and Grandpa — I thank you both for being so caring and supportive of me throughout my life. Both of you are very special to me. I love you!

Yan — Whatsuputchu! What can I say to a person with whom I've hung out, played sports, pigged out (after the sport), held righteous bag sessions, and rapped about everything for the past 4 years. I can just say that you're my friend FOR LIFE. Thanks for being my best bud! P.S. — we still have to start the Club Gluttonous Corporation of corrolated cheeseburgers (Stan's, Island's, Apple Pan)

Sether — you've been a cousin, an older brother, and a life-time friend to me. I have the ultimate respect for you because I know that in whatever you take part, you'll succeed. I also know that you've been a person I can talk to at any time, and I only hope I've been the same for you. Good luck at Hahvahd, Cuz. You'll do great!

D.J. — thanks for being a great friend, especially during the past three years you've been at B-wood. I know you're not crazy about school, but I also know that when you find something you enjoy, you'll be the best at it. Good luck, Cuz!

Jordan — we've done so much together for the past 16 years. Psycho teachers at Hebrew school, Shine Auto Detailers (with the infamous Hollywood golf cart), cruising around (pre and post license days), and lots of hoop at the Wooden Center. Have a great senior year at Roads, and watch that hard left on Avondale.

Mark — Mr. Football stud and fighter pilot. You numbed my hands throwing around the pig, but I blistered yours playing Grid. Best of luck to you wherever you're flying.

Oscar — let's see how close I can get to that car. You have the wildest range of musical taste I know of (Beethoven to Beastie Boys). Stay cool 'cause I coming back to see you stick in '89.

Gee — "I smoke two, no, three, three ganja." "Keep running like that and you'll play for Michigan." Good luck!

Too all of my friends and classmates I've not mentioned — thanks for making my six years at B-wood as good as they were (very). Best of luck.

To Mr. V, Mrs. Balak, Ms. Huchel, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Dunn, O'Hanlon, Mssrs Mc Catty, Krause, Hutson, and Coach Brown. Dr. Temple — I appreciate all the help and knowledge you've given me.

"Life's been good to me, so far." — Joe Walsh

"Civilization is a religion. Civilized people walk funny." — David Byrne

Mom & Dad — I couldn't possibly say all I have to say in this little space. If it wasn't for you, God knows what I'd have turned out to be. Thanks for always being there to bail me out.
 Jenny — Well, ugs, this is it. In a few months I'll be gone and who's going to explain to you why a frozen banana is frozen? But seriously, I'm so glad we've become so much closer in the last couple years. I hope it lasts forever. Have a great senior year.

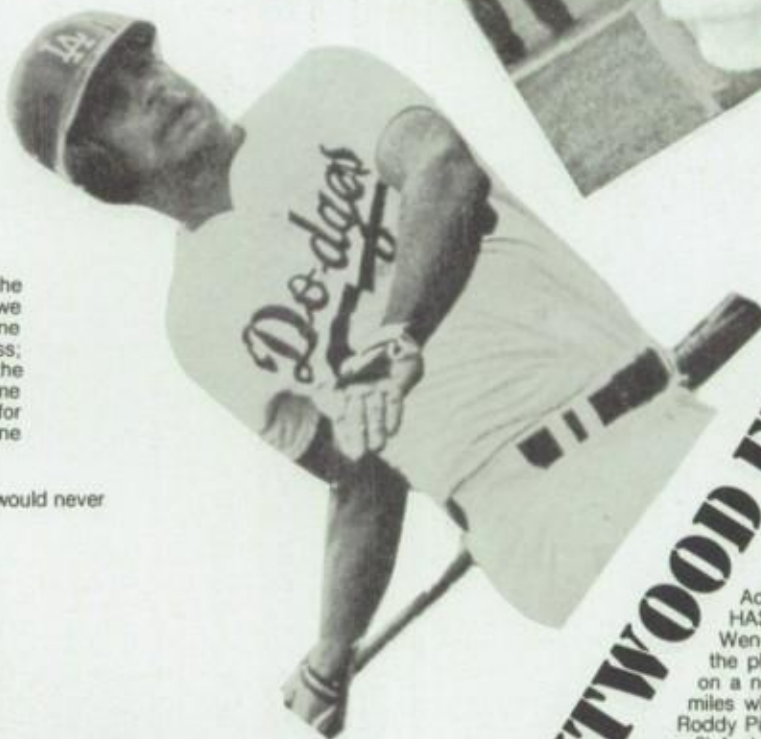

Brad — I don't think there are two guys in the world who have been friends as long as we have. We've come a long way since this picture (thank God for that!) And we've come a long way together: 6th grade at Egremont ... Slot-trivia ... scalping Dodger tickets ... scalping Dodger tickets to undercover cops ... "Red Fluff" ... Akela ... war for a dollar. Next year, we'll go our separate ways, again. But it won't matter. We'll always be friends.

Lance — There's so much to say, there's so little room. The memories are endless: "small parties" ... free time at Big Bear Tennis Ranch ... poker games ... Winchells ... the parking lot at Pic 'N Save ... Avnir will drive. And not to forget what started it all: riding dirt bikes in the empty lots of our neighborhood. Someday, we'll probably start a business together (hopefully it will bring in more money than our toy sales of 10 years ago.) But the important thing is that we still have the best 2-on-2 football team in the world (eat your heart out Adam and Andrew). THE CASIANO CAPS WILL LIVE FOREVER!!!

Greg — You're the only person in the world who can honestly say that you don't care what other people think of you. I'll always respect you for that. You always say exactly what's on your mind, and, unlike most of this school, you don't live to impress anybody. Hopefully, you'll keep one thing in mind: THE FRO MUST LIVE ON!! Don't change, Greg.

Even Reggie Knows which team is best.

And how can I forget ...

Bryan, without you I would never have survived 11th grade P.E.; Pincus, Shanfeld, Gandin and the rest of the pad football players; Kevin and Kristen, the best Physics table Bill ever saw; Josh, we picked the greatest football team that ever lived: Jade; I'm still waiting for some nouveaux cuisine and spa food; Mike, even though you dominated the chemistry competitions; my journalism class; my 9th grade Dianna Harmon class; Ms. Dunn and Mrs. Warren: if it weren't for the two of you the snack bar lady would have written my college recs; John Elway; Greg Brock; Kim, for helping me do this stupid page. Hayley, I hope you've gotten what you wanted; Ross, you paid for my gas for two years and I still don't know if it was worth it; Mr. Cacicedo, Mr. McCune, Mr. V., and anyone else who may have helped me survive (and even enjoy) high school.

And a special thanks to Paula, Tracy, the new toll booth, and the back of Z-lot. Without you I would never have survived working at such a ridiculous place.

TOY DOLLS

THE BRENTWOOD ENQUIRER

Adam — THE POWER OF THE PEN HAS NEVER BEEN SO GREAT, sorry Wendy Hagmann. When I'm with you, the phrase "anything is possible" takes on a new meaning. I mean, what's 3,000 miles when Hulk Hogan is fighting Rowdy Roddy Piper? (Are you as embarrassed as I am?) And to think, the newspaper and college bowl used to be serious! Ah, quite a few changes we've made (Jack Reynolds hand gesture). The fact is, we may be the only ones in the world who realize that importance of the phrase "Don't work too hard." For example, why put your papers in the holes of your notebook. Eventually, you're just gonna have to take them out. Together, we've managed to find humor in everything: "she's a professional!" ... "I think I'll refrain." ... community lockers ... Dodger games ... Hamlet lunches ... the list goes on and on.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1987!

To Mom and Don — the most wonderful parents in the world. I love you more than words can express. Ma, my best friend, the perfect friend — someone who cares, shares, and is always there for me. With you each moment that I live is beautiful, because you have made it that way. Though you may think this is goodbye, it's not. We will never part — I carry you in my words, in my actions, and always, in my heart. I LOVE YOU. Don — I am truly blessed to have you as my father. You are the most wonderful person, and you are the reason for the smile on my face, the happiness I have found, and the person that I am. I love you Dad so much.

Old friends.
Memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fears.
Time it was and what a time it was
It was a time of innocence.
A time of confidences.
Long ago it must be.
I have a photograph, Preserve your memories.
They're all that's left of you.

— Paul Simon

The best of times

Kev — For as long as I live, I will never have another friend like you. You have added up much to my life-happiness and laughter I will cherish forever. From Grandma and Grandpa's orange chair (Raindrops keep fallin' on my head and IchlBichl), through Castle Heights (Mr. Loef, let down your good news so we can play hitpinfistball with Denise Snenouge), to Arrowhead (Hi, I'm a bum; Bob Grunwood) to Hawaii (Je-sseNa-KOO-ka na na na; couch couch bo bouch) to Mexico (Does the gecko know? Poque agua? Si alcohol? No? heads in the fan, rocks in the foot) and Brentwood (Terces a tog I evah. Snausages, Green is perhaps and so much more) you will always be my best friend. As long as there stars up in the sky, I will never say goodbye. You are more than just my two in one Kev, you're my one in a million. I LOVE YOU.

Kat — No distance could ever deep us apart. Since the first day we met there has been a special tie between us, a bond I know will never break. I love you so much. One question: What happens if one siamese twin ...?

Stef — If it takes tipping over in a car to begin such a wonderful friendship I'd do it all again. You have stuck by me through everything, and have proven to be one of the best friends I could have. We've shared so much together: Laughing, crying, and growing up (yamay?) Remember that I am always here for you, just as you have been for me. I love you du. (last one, then quit)

Angie — 13 years of friendship and still going strong. We'll be together til the end of time. Sethrie — Our friendship has grown strong over the past years; I don't know where I'd be without your guidance, support, and constant companionship. Our time together will always stand out in my mind. Thank you for caring and for sharing the best years of our lives by my side. Love always.

Kel — Each day the friendship we started a few years ago grows stronger. You are one of my closest friends; I know that the end is nowhere in sight. We have trusted each other with our secrets and humored each other with our stories. Together we have survived the rough times as we played in the fun times. "Winter, spring, summer, or fall, all you got to do is call." Love you Kel.

Kim — What to say? You are one of the very special "worlds" in the quote, Someone who always has time to hear my stories and dilemmas, and understands. From Hamburger Hamlet (0) to section 9 Row W, I will never forget the good times we've had "So many dreams swinging out of the blue, we'll let them come true." Together, we can stay "forever young."

Steph — the closest thing I have to a sister. This year has brought us closer than ever, and thought it's been years, this is just the beginning. We have shared so much together, including our very own "SQUEEZE" language, and our "Cehe ne ne ne" method of singing. I love you so much, and wish you the best of everything always.

Matt, Mike, and Adam — Thanks for all of the good times and memories. Hayley — We have traveled a long, road together, and we have finally reached our destiny. The friendship we have built is so important to me. You have been like a sister. Je n'oublierai les temps nous avons partages. Merci pour tout que tu m'as donne. Je t'aime.

Ricky — GUUUUY — Though they have been few, the times we've had have been so special. Together we have conquered Brentwood (Beware of the peasant-serf). Remember, only the smallest freaks would see Mona Lisa (or pass sink notes in Mitra's class) Well, my Hahvahd dog, I love ya and I'll see you in the real world.

How — There is something very special between us, something which has kept us so close through the past few years. Thank you for listening to all of my ideas and thoughts ... thank you for sharing all of yours with me. Much love always.

Karen and Stacey — Thank you for making Summer '86 one of the best ever. I'm going to miss you both very much.

Allison — "Somewhere down the road our roads are roads are going to cross again — It doesn't really matter when." Some things are just too good to be forgotten.

Dad — Though there have been storms along the way, I think I see a rainbow in the distance. Grandma — Your strength, courage, and zest for life are an inspiration to me. Without your friendship my life would not be complete. I love you. Hilary and Shalita — You two have proven that it is never too late to start a friendship. Thank you for caring, and for making 1987 so fun! Love you both!

Mrs. Dunn — Thank you for all of your support and friendship. You have taught me more than just not to split an infinitive. Mrs. O'Hanlon — Mon professeur, mon amie ... Merci pour tout. Je vous aime, et vous allez me manquer beaucoup.

Mr. Balak — I made it! Just one day at a time — Thank you.

Mrs. Wallace — I am privileged to be both your student and friend. "I learned this, at least, by my experiment; that if one advanced confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours."

The Way We Were

"My friends: No one, not in my situation, can appreciate my feeling of sadness at this parting. To this place, and the kindness of these people, I owe everything. Here I have lived a quarter of a century, and have passed from a young to an old man. Here my children have been born and one is buried. I now leave, not knowing when or whether ever I may return, with a task before me greater than that which rested upon Washington. Without the assistance of that Divine Being who ever attended Him, I cannot succeed. With that assistance I cannot fail. Trusting in Him who can go with me, and remain with you and be everywhere for good, let us confidently hope that all will yet be well. To His care commending you as I hope in your prayers you will commend me, I bid you an affectionate farewell." A. Lincoln

The Future Is Now

Mom and Dad (my number one fans) — I couldn't have asked for two better parents in the whole world. You are constantly giving me support and encouragement. You have shaped me and molded me, while giving me freedom to become my own person. You are both the best. I love you so much.

Jason — I might not tell you, but I think you're the greatest. Your smile and personality always keep me going. There cannot possibly be a better younger brother than you. I love you Jason. I'm alive in a city
In a country of the world
And I want to go on living
I want to see my life unfold
And you know it's hard to go on living
At the stories of our day
And the dangers we're all facing Growing worse in every way
And you would think with all of the genius
And the brilliance of these times
We might find a higher purpose
And a better peace of mind

Say it isn't true
There always has been and always will be war
Say it isn't true

I stood stonelike at midnight suspended in my masquerade
I combed my hair till it was just right and commanded the night brigade
I was open to pain and crossed by the rain and I walked on a crooked clutch

You got to follow that dream
Wherever that dream may lead you
You got to follow that dream to find the love you need

Michael — I don't know what I would have done without you. You are always there, and I can't imagine what the last six years would have been like without you. Mike, you offered me so much, and I love you for it. Thanks for being my best friend. Palm Springs jacuzzi. My Bar Mitzvah. Soft tacos at 2 in the morning. My true Bruce fan and my number one fallback. "Potvin beats his wife." My dad and the hockey sticks.

Hillel — I am so glad that we really got to know each other this year. I wish we could have gotten closer sooner, because I really enjoy the time we spend. I hope our friendship continues to grow and grow.
Laurie — Our friendship has continually gotten stronger and stronger each year. This past year, it has meant so much to me. I'll miss you a lot, and I know we will stay in very close touch.
Howard — We have sort of gone our different ways in the last couple of years. We have done a great deal together. I still know that I can count on you.
Chris — A Bruce fan from head to toe. I am so glad we got to know one another in eleventh grade. We've been through so much. Our friendship means a lot to me.
Kim, Kiko, Kelly, Stefani — It's been great spending time together. We have shared so many fun experiences.
Coach Brown — I have never had a finer coach. You have taught me everything I know about being a football player. I have learned determination, responsibility, and leadership. I thank you for four wonderful football seasons as a person and as a coach.
To all — I'm sorry to anyone I have left out. I thank everyone who has been a part of my six years at Brentwood. I also want to thank Brentwood school and all my teachers I have had. You have all added so much to my six years at school. I'll miss everyone. I wish the class of 1987 the best of success in the future.
Sincerely,

Adam — Thanks for ten years of friendship and for being my first best friend. From the Balboa Rams to Brentwood seniors we have remained so close. I know this is not the end, it is only the beginning of continuing decades of friendship. Ice blocking in Lake Arrowhead, M*A*S*H. The best duo ever in AYSO and pee-wee basketball. Riverway Ranch Camp

Seth — My football buddy. After some rocky times in tenth grade, our friendship is now such a powerful force. Our friendship is so important to me. I know that I can always count on you. We have helped each other in so many ways. We have also talked about everything under the sun. Seth, you are a great friend. I can't say enough about you or our friendship.

Walk tall, or baby, don't walk at all.
— Bruce Springsteen

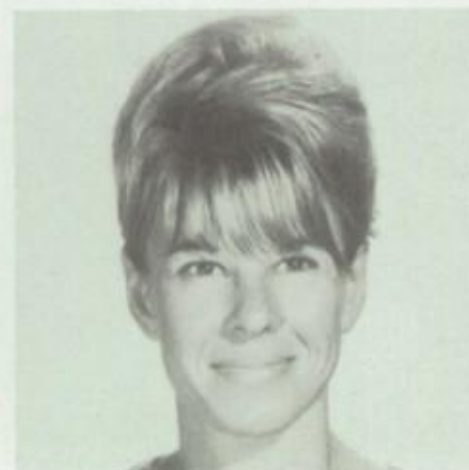

Allison — From listening to your boy problems in ninth grade, from our three day romance on Catalina, from the foursome to being such close friends. What a voyage our friendship has taken. I have enjoyed every minute of it, though. It has been very special to me.

Kevin — I never thought that the only member of my seventh grade carpool I did not know would become my best friend. I am so glad it turned out that way. I cherish our friendship with all my heart. You have been a second brother to me. Endless stories and everlasting memories. Shampoo in Utah. My sunroof. Your lender. New Years at Bob's. Big Boy. Naked cigar smoking. U.S.C. vs. U.C.L.A. and Billy Joel.

MOM: Thank you for your support, encouragement, and help over the years. I appreciate and love you!

DAD: You're great! I don't know about the duck hunting thing, but then again nobody's perfect. Thanks, I love you!

PAT: "Hey man I'm freaking out!" Thanks for helping me through the rough times as well as sharing the good ones. I hope we will stay close!

BUB: (Chris) "Twist and Shout" ... thoughts Montana ... V-ball ... beach ... Aerobics ... yogurt runs ... Pat's room etc ... "Let the good times role!" You are more special to me thank you know. (You allowed me to survive senior year.) Thanks, I love Ya!

POSIE: We've been friends forever ... Hawaii ... guys ... Nebraska (?) etc ... Stay close, I love ya!

STEPH: Yeh! O.K., Well ... The beach ... rented movies ... etc ... I'm glad we became friends, Take Care!

MONIQUE: (Q-T) You have always been there for me ... Long talks ... art ... rainy beach days ... sunrises and future bike-rides. I love ya!

LAINE: "Take it easy" ... Good times ... Prom ... beach ... gas (the lack of) ... 9½ weeks etc ... DM, "It's a Question of ..."

MICHELLE: (Shimelle) Hey Babe, "What's happenin hot's stuff?" memories ... beach ... ski-trips ... concerts ... yogurt etc ... Good Luck!

SHANNON: Where to start?! ... v-ball ... bio ... beach ... just a few ... Your crazy character has been essential to my survival.

DAN: (the man) you have always been there when I needed you. Thanks — you're a good friend.

SUE: You can always bring a smile to my face. Take care, stay in touch.

WENDY & LISA: We survived! chem ... ski-trips ... etc ... It's been great! Good luck! ANGIE, DANA, JEN, TRACIE, GLEN, DAVE, MARNI, etc ... Thanks for the great times. Good Luck!

VALEO'S: My second home. Thanks for your enthusiasm, care and support. I love ya!

MRS. Z Over the past 5 years your art room has become a refuge and you have become a friend. I'll miss you!

DR. T: (The man the myth) Thanks for caring (enough to study with me.)

COACH PORTER: What a season! Thanks for getting me started.

MOM & DAD: I don't know how to begin . . . but I just want to say thanks for being so understanding and putting up with me for all these years. I know that you will always be there for me. You've done so much for me and I really do appreciate it. I hope I can do the same for you some day. I love you.

DARREN: I guess it's finally time that I write to you. I know I've screamed at you a lot . . . but my screaming is out of love. Through it all, you haven't been that bad and I'm happy that I have you as a brother. I know Rady will probably take over at screaming at you. I love you so much and I'll miss you next year.

SHALITA: We've done so much in so little time and have shared so many memories together. Now, how do I sum it all up? Ever since tennis season, we've become close friends. I'll always remember our good times. These things especially will remind me of you: Stand by Me, Smooth Talk, Soul Man, Platoon, Wisdom, Crimes of the Heart (all in one month), Invisible Touch, Stacey Q with the top down in the convertible, our journey to Malibu, our night with Heidi and Julie, chlorine tablets, and many many more. Well, you know I'll always be here for you and I really love ya. K.I.T.

HILARY: Well Hil, you are a kinky woman . . . but besides that we've had so much fun together. Our eating splurges, our jogs, my falling in the rose bush, Bill's shoes, Jumpin Jack Flash, and so many other fun times. Luv ya.

JULIE: In the last five years our friendship has grown stronger every year. You are a true friend and we've shared a lot of fun times. Always remember the TOM CRUISE collage with so many of our memories. I just wanted to say that I'm always here, if you need me. Friends forever . . . I love you. K.I.T.

JENNIFER: Jen, I am so glad that we had a chance to become closer friends this year. Whenever I eat frozen yogurt or Chinese food, I'll think of you. You are a wonderful friend to talk to and I know that I can really trust you. I'll always be your friend and I love ya tons. K.I.T.

ALLISON: We've been going to school together for six years and we've definitely become better friends this year. We've had some good times and I won't forget them. You are a very special friend and I love you. K.I.T.

LORI: You are my favorite tennis partner and a great friend. We have so many things in common. We love and hate some of the same people and you love my hand me downs. I love you and your sense of humor and how you can really understand me and how you are so concerned about what I have to say. You are a very caring person and these qualities which you possess make you the special friend that you are. I'll always be your friend. And don't worry, of course you can have my hand me downs next year. K.I.T.

CHERYL: I've known you for so long and we've done so many things together. You've been a good friend and I hope that we can always be friends.

HILARY: Thanks for going with me to lunch that one day, now I'm totally obsessed, I'll always remember the chlorine tablets. Good luck next year.

MRS. LOCKARD: Thanks for being my advisor for the last three years. You are a great lady and an extremely nice person. Thanx again for everything.

Mom, Dad, Ajee — Without all your support, I would have never made it this far. Thank you for always being there to help me, and most of all to love me. Namaste, I Love You.

Ajay — Through an array of differences, we have grown close. We finally have learned to be patient, understanding, and loving towards each other. Your advice has shown me my values, which I am thankful for. I Love You.

Jon — You taught me to drive, you taught me to love. You taught me more than you can ever imagine. I am glad that you never gave up on us, because the feelings I have for you will never change. I know I can always count on you as a best friend in every way. You are my King Douglas and I Love You Very Much. Memories (Florida, Genesis, CRX, Graveyard, Teddy Bear, Dad's House.)

Hilary — You are the bestest friend I could have ever wanted. I don't know how we became so alike, but I am glad it happened. We had enough fun to last us a life time, but we had a few misfortunes also. Together we have learned not to give up when life is unfair. I know we will continue to stick by each other, but I will still miss you when we are apart. I love you tons! Memories (Gondola Rides, CD's, Friend Named P, UCSB, TGOL, Skid Row, Frenchman, Popcorn, Library, My Riding On A Railroad, Petey Arriving, Big Mac Attack.)

Jessica — Your energetic and loving personality has made me enjoy life to its fullest. Thank you for cheering me up on those dreary days. You were the one who made me survive. Keep up your uniqueness. Our similar study habits is what made our friendship grow into a very special one. I will love you and be your friend forever, just as long as you "Stand by Me." Memories (Socrates, Fluffy, Bowling, Charlie, Sue her for the zit, mailboxes in Malibu, VW-?)

Julie — If I have a twin sister in this world, it must be you. We dress alike, think alike, and act alike. No matter what we do, we always have a good time. I love you, but please hold on to your keys (and mine too.) Memories (Bopsy Twins, The Lake, Never Satisfied, Brownies, Subserviant, Light Weights, BBTR)

Kristin — We lack patience with everyone except each other. It's funny how we did so many things wrong, but the important thing is that we did them together. We have done everything together, too bad we got caught too many times. When we become roommates, we will do everything all over again. The encyclopedias were the start to the wonderful friendship we have developed. I love you always, and don't you forget it. Memories (Westwood, Genesis, Socks In Bushes, Handcuffs, Sarcasm-Not, Sweet Valley, Hitching, Ditching, Museum In SF, Mom-Would I Lie To You?)

Allie — Thirteen years of a very special friendship. We helped each other tie shoes, and now we help each other tie problems together. Never give up, you can do anything your heart desires. I love you Allison Lee. PS. You can thank me for your car later. Memories (BBTR, Red Bippity Bopper, July 4th, Yellow Balloon, Lawler Games, Matching Bikinis.)

Colin — My feelings for you, and our memories together will last a life time. It is still a mystery to me how we knew so much about each other before we even met. I love you.

Henri — Chris's room and baseball will never be forgotten. You made my Friday nights much different than the other nights. Just remember who is better at sarcasm. Lots of Love to you.

Kristen — Even though our times together were few, you have added a lot to my years at Brentwood. Reach out for what you want. I will always be here for you. I love ya.

Cheryl — Our lunches were out of the ordinary, but I guess we are too. Thank you for the fun times.

Karen — What happened to those crazy times? Remember the Moody Blues? They made us what we are. Just remember that, "Things Can Only Get Better."

Bill — I look up to you so much, because you have taught me that honesty, sincerity, and hard work are 3 qualities an admirable person has, which is why I admire you. I am, and always will be, learning from you. Love Shalita

Reade — Too many good times to be forgotten. I will always have a place for you in my heart.

Mrs. R. — You were a great coach, and you are a great friend. Thank for all your help and time.

Mrs. Radomile — You are the best teacher I've ever had. I don't know how you put up with me for 3 years, but I'm glad you did; I learned a great deal.

Thank for the crazy times — Joanne and David, Rima, Ann, Derek, Antonio, Jay, Aaron, Peter T, Greg C. Dan R.

"There is no doubt, this is the way we are."

KIKO — Our one thing in common made us friends. You are crazy, just like me. I Love You Lots.

MR. AND MRS. BALAK — Thank you for your help and your laughs. Am I too loud or what?

MISS HUCHEL — The Indian dinners were lots of fun. I will miss you, and I will also miss sweeping the school.

MARTIN — What can I say, except that I LOVE YOU.

Mom and Dad — You guys are the hardest to write to even though things haven't always been easy. You've always been there and I'll always be here for you, you're the greatest and I Love You.
Justin — Sometimes it's been hard for us to always get along, but you always make me laugh and I'll always love you!

Anders: You've been such a great source of laughter since March '86, it's been great, but wasn't that a long commercial!
Spectors: To my second family, thank you for your love and support for 15 years now! And Joe — thank for being my #1 fan.
Montgomery's — Thank you for your open doors and open arms when I've needed them.

To Mom, Dad, Kitty, Kathy, and Bill — Thank you so much for your love and support. You have helped me through everything and I thank you with love.

Bruce, David, Gregg, Doug, and Dylan — The memories we have: Long Beach — 85, Washington, D.C., Summer Ragers, PGA, San Diego Zoo, Sesame House, Corona, Pop Chubs, Jerry Terrapin, Doug's Computer, Dunks, The Castle, Haleakala Sunrise, Hank Woodley, Mexicali, Marlboro Man, Mess Up My Room, 714, Beach House, Ventura, Tommy's Golf Carts. Mammoth, Lakers. Remember you guys, "Be here now and take it easy." LATE.

Nadine — I couldn't even start writing memories because there are far too many. Remember, always try to keep that smile and hold the lasers to a minimum. Good luck. "Love is real, not fade away."

Hillel — Better late than never. Take it easy buddy.

Ari and Peter — Speech, J.D. and Friday Nights: We covered them all. We've had some great times. Keep on ragin.

Jill — We've shared so much together, as an eighth grade girlfriend, and as a buddy, you've always been there for me. Peace Dude.

Stevie — I know somewhere you're reading this. I never realized how lucky I was to have you. The greatest a guy ever had, and you taught me everything I know. "On a dry and dusty road, the nights we spent all alone. I need to get back home, to cool, cool rain." "Love reign o'er me" — The Who — All my love.

Christian, Malek, Brett, Russell and all the boys — Thanks so much for the great times we had. I'm sure we all give our love to the castle. Buckle down and keep on raging.

David, Adam, Vic, and Eric — Keep on hoopin' it brothers. We had some great times, especially in carpenteria. Good luck to you guys, and thanks for the memories. "Rail"

Kim and Gretty — A buddy, a girlfriend, and a buddy. You probably don't understand that, but do your best. There's far too many things to write about since we've been together so long. Keep in touch you guys, there's too many things we still haven't done.

Maze and Ian — You guys made tenth and eleventh grade fun. Here's to Skull Rock and the valley golf course. Enjoy SB, and say Hi to Morrison!

Jenn — Thanks for all the good times we had. I know there were bad ones too, but it was well worth it. Take care and keep in touch.

Nick — To the funniest guy in our class, take it easy. Whenever I look at Chevy Chase, I'll think of you.

Malek — I know you ain't boxin! Mucky Duck — Peter Gabriel — Foreigner — The Dead — U2 — Wailing my car — Dubbing Dokers — your apt. — late night party — the Fox — Alisal — Zep — Keep on Jammin that guitar bra!

"I wake up to the sound of music

Mother Mary comes to me.

Speaking words of wisdom — Let it be.

And when the night is cloudy

There is still a light that shines on me

Shine until tomorrow — Let it be."

The Beatles

The Road goes on and on Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the road had gone
And I must follow it if I can.
Persuing it was eager feet.
Until it joins some larger way.
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither than? I cannot say.
J.R.R. Tolkien

Chris — Where has the time gone? Five years ago, we were little children thinking about what it would be like in the upper school. The next thing we know, we were swept into everything from sports to college meetings. I'm glad that we didn't drift away from each other.

from each other. I respect you in many, many ways and I wish that we had spent more time together in these past few months. You've always been there to help when there's been a need and I thank you for that. Whatever you do Chris, have fun and remember that everything will be alright.

Cay — We've had lots of fun together, haven't we? You know what event sticks out in my mind the most? Yosemite. I will never forgive myself for not going out with you during that time. Anyway, now that the hour of freedom is near, I must give thanks for all the good times we've had as friends. It's scary to think how much fun we had. But what's cheese is that we're going to have so much more fun in the future. Cheese unto you and Dave. May you be fruitful and multiply.

Cindy — Just to be confusing: erehW era ew gnidaeh? sA we etaudarg dna hcaer a suioirg wen uaetalp fo tremeveihca, ew elbmuts no eht sgninnigeb fo a wen dna erom xelpmoc eno. ev'uoY deh a yrev laiceps ecalp ni ym fraeh. ev oW enog morf sdneirf ot dneirf yob dna lnerflng dna kcab niaga tuohtiw yltrenamrep gnigamad rou pihsnaitaler, s'ereht gnihtemos yrev laiceps tuoba uoy hcihw I lirts t'nac eman: revetahW ti si, t'nod esool ti esuaceb s'ti euqinu. I kool drawerof ot gniees erehw ll'uoy dne up esuaceb reverehw ti liiw eb, uoy liiw eb, yppah. peeK ni hcuot esuaceb I t'nod tnaw of esool uoy sa a dneirf.

Danny — We've done so much it's difficult to think of it all. From Yosemite to Zuma we've traveled seeking for the outer boundary of fun. There's been so much we've experienced that brings us together. I wonder where we'll go from here. What adventures lurk in the future? I'm looking forward to experiencing life with you. Wait until we are deep in the things of life and are able to compare now to then. I think we'll look back at our B-Wood days and, in my opinion, there won't be much of a difference. The happiness, the feeling, the honesty, and the fun will all be there. Stay cheese and word it!

Oscar — We've been friends for a couple of years and I wonder how much closer we would be if we became friends earlier. You've got so much going for you Zola. Learn to use your talents to the best of your capabilities because with the amount of talent you have, you won't have any problem in life. You're one of my best friends Maze, keep in touch with me at U.C.L.A. If you're lucky, I'll introduce you to some of the females.

Stephanie — Of all my friends, you and I are the most similar. We like the same style in clothes, we see like from the same perspective, listen to the same music, and most importantly, respect the same qualities in people. Very few people have become as close to me as you have and I trust you as much as I trust myself. But if there's one quality I admire about you is your honesty. I've never had to second guess your thoughts about anything. In addition, you've provided me with many candlelight dinners and many discussions of the intricacies and fold of life. I respect you more than I do any other friend of mine. Wherever you go and no matter how far, I will be there if you need me. Remember, life is wonderful if you're open to it. It's good to ask questions and to comprehend, but there are many aspects of life which logic is not a part of. You will be my friend always.

Dad, Anne, Malaika, Lisa — There's so much to say and so little space to say it. For one, collectively and individually you have influenced me to strive for excellence and provided me with a solid example of what excellence is. In addition, the love you have shown me has given me an indestructible base from which my life will stem. Since my moving in with the family, there have been many conflicts over very simple issues of household existence. Now that I've matured and grown up, I understand the invaluable service you've done me. Remember that no matter what, I love you.

Jonah — You are the best brother a person ever had. As we grow older, I look you as you grow. Sure, you're going to be a giant with "grande paises," but mentally, you have matured beyond your classmates and even beyond those who are several years older than you. You've helped me when I've needed help and for that I thank you. A word of advice from older brother: Concentrate in all that you do and you will go far. I'll love you always regardless of your big head.

Mom — Your little boy is almost grown up now. You've shown me what the fruits of life are and I can never thank you enough. We've spent so much time together in the past that even though we haven't seen enough of each other these past couple of years, I know that you are close by. Your happiness has permeated my life eternally and I wish you could know how much you've given me. Let me know whenever you need any type of help and I will be there. I love you. P.S. — Thanks for putting up with my chaos in my early years and trying so hard to raise me the best way you knew.

Rachel — When I think of what we had and what we could of had it scares me. It's amazing how we could so eagerly start a relationship from nothing and throw it away without understanding what we felt. With the benefit of hind sight, I see our mistakes, assumptions, and our idiosyncrasies and how they gradually wore at the little bit of love, if it was love, we had until there wasn't anything left but emotions. Understand this, even though we broke up and never came back to each other, even as friends, I still cared for you for a considerably long amount of time. You showed me something I've never seen before and it has changed my perspective of life. Before, I could say that our breaking up was for the better. But now, I'm not so sure.

Carrie, Christa, Rob — You guys are too cheese for me. I can't wait to come back to B-Wood in a few years to see where you've gone and what you've accomplished. I expect to see you leading the school in some way or another. I'm a good judge of character and all of you will achieve your goals in life. A word of advice: Sometimes the pressure will make you feel like climbing in a hole somewhere and not coming out until summertime. Whatever you do, don't give up! Things aren't as tough as they seem.

To the Class of 1987 — CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Dad & Gail — You both made the hardest years of my life much easier. I learned from you that I can be happy anywhere. You are special parents and I love you very much. Gail, don't worry, I promise to come back to CA!

Jess — We have been through so much. But, together we made it. I want you to know that I will always be there for you. I know that sometimes I may be a pain, but I do love you. Even though it is usually your fault!

Sara & Zach — You two are great. It is always fun to be around your happy faces! I love you guys.

Rho & Sam — You have been like parents to me I love you both. P.S. Sam, thanks for the help on my Tufts application.

Allen — You are the most caring person I know. You have been so special to me since I was six. You are brave and I know that you will make it through this.

Nanny — You are wonderful and I love you. Papa, I miss you.

Grandma & Grandpa — Come on, move to CA. Soon Grandpa, I promise!

Wendy — Your friendship has helped me very much. You are a kind, caring and compassionate friend. Thank you for helping me through all of the hard times. I am lucky to have a friend like you. Remember: prom dress shopping, the prom, the horn, senior pages, Tommy Tangs, racing David, Reg. Johns, Hawaii, Berkeley, the ballet and dumb ?'s, Testakers, Ski Trip, Bridges, Owen, "The Glue Girls", studying chem., Boulder, Doug and Jason, pink and teal, lunch with Mr. McCatty, twinkies, apple juice, classic coke . . .

Monique — My very first friend at B-wood. Thank you for all of your help. I really admire your kindness. Remember, Tectonics. The House, yogurt, "You Drive", Halloween, "No bad thoughts", the prom . . .

Dana — I am glad that we have become better friends this year. Can you believe that we are seniors? It's almost over, no more Spanish! P.S. "Let's get yogurt."

Danny — I am so glad that we had Algebra II together even if it was a horrible class. You are a great friend. Thank you for a wonderful time at the prom.

Tracie — Remember when I lost my car at the S.M. Mall? That was the first day of dance rehearsal. Thank you for introducing me to Tiger Milk Bars, aerobics, yogurt, and Sushi (well not really. Next time, I promise.)

Jim — Thanks for putting up with me all of the time. You are a good friend.

Angie — Your happy smile could make the saddest person happy. I still remember orientation. That was a long time ago. I am glad that we are friends.

Cindy — You are one of my first friends here. I am glad that we remained close.

David & Glen — Visiting you both at work has been fun. I still remember driving into Miami Grand Prix with Wendy and being sprayed with confetti.

Jen — I am glad that we had a class together this year. You're great.

Chris — To the only all-around neat person I know . . . Brown is so lucky to have you!

Cay — Your smiling face always cheers me up. Thanks.

Shannon — Driving you to school last year gave me time to talk to you and see what a nice person you are.

Jen & Deborah — You two have been so supportive. I am glad that we kept in touch over the past years.

Mr. McCatty — Thank you for being a fantastic teacher. The lunches were great.

Ms. Huchel — I did a smart thing by picking you as my advisor this year.

Ms. Sadono — I loved your class. Tectonics is a great dance Thank You.

Mommy — You were the most wonderful mother. The fourteen years that I had with you were the most important years of my life. I hope that wherever you are now, you are happy. I miss you . . .

Gretchen — What can I say that you don't already know. Over the past four years we have grown up laughing, crying, experimenting, and most importantly scheming together. You are a major part of the person that I have become. Our past is filled with so many memories: Chicago, the beach, 4 leaf clovers, bedtime stories, the dep bottle, steamy windows, dean, Michigan Ave., Hamburger Hamlet nights, the castle, happy as a clam, running at 5, gift through the sunroof, the pier, have you ever had nachos in Long Island?, driving the boat, bathtub jacuzzis, sock-hops, secret affairs, fixing the stereo, the tape we made, the english stud, breaking the blender, the improv, lunches at the mart, the mardi gras, and the scheme princess and queen. There is so much that we have done and so much that lies ahead. No one will ever know me the way you do. You have "made life be life to me" "so when you're lonely and feel let down, you can call me I'll come around and treat you nice, don't have a wasted life I love you too much." I'll see you on Sundays for the bar-b-ques with JJ! I love you Linus.

Hilary — I don't think I'll ever have a friend like you. You have been there for me through everything, helping me through every crisis. You and I have never managed to spend a boring moment together. You are a unique person Hil, and one of the best friends I'll ever have. The lunches, aerobics, nights on the town, soccer games, the lipstick being rolled down the window, the big chill, David at my doorstep at 1, Igby's, jeeps, the penthouse, driving Zig's car, summer of '86, superbowl sunday, and Hard Rock-the table in the back. Thank you for adding so much to the past six years of my life, and don't worry everything will work out all right.

Kiko — I'm so glad that you came back into my life this year. Our friendship is something very special and very rare. The conversations that we have had, advice that you have given me, and times that we have shared will be a part of me always. There is so much that we have shared: roses, all-nighters, the drooling man at Flakey Jake's, the castle, blue ice, poems, Billy Joel, Genesis, Paul Simon, infatuation, stories, the far side, Hamburger Hamlet, Gino's, and semester break. Always remember that "youth's like diamonds in the sun, and diamonds are forever." You are a large part of my life and nothing would be the same without you, but remember that the journey has just begun . . .

Jill — We have become so close so fast that sometimes I think you know me better than I know myself. You have become a very large part of my life. "I hope you'll always be right here by my side" and I'll always be here for you. Luv you, scrapple.

Lauren — Mexico would never have been the same without you! I'm so glad that we are still so close. I never know what to expect when you're around, especially what is hidden in the hairspray. Te amo.

Mom and Dad — The words "thank you" sound too simple for all that you have done for me. Although I have not exactly been a perfect child, you have put up with me through everything. Thank you for never giving up on me, I love you.

Lauren — I don't think that people can be more different than you and I are. Maybe someday you and I will live in the same world, see things the same way, but until then — Season's Greetings! Take care.

Erin — You have provided me with a friendship over the past few years, one that is not effected by the time that we spend apart. "Friends are forever and forever is a lifetime." Thank you for always being there for me with an open heart and an open mind. Never forget the pleasure of the journey . . .

Kathy — You are probably the happiest person that I know, thank for always being there with advice, love, and care.

Andrew — Our friendship has suffered many ups and downs but I'm glad that we survived the rocky road. You have been honest with me even when I didn't want to hear the truth. Thank you for caring so much. I'll miss you and I love you.

David — It seems that we grow closer everyday. You mean a lot to me and I want to thank you for always being there. I love you Davey.

Malek — "There's a light in your eye that keeps shining, like a star that can't wait for its night . . ."

Bobby — You have been a very special person in my life for the past six years. I'm glad that we have stayed so close. Just do me a favor and watch those parking spaces in the middle of the street.

Greg — although I'm just getting to know you again you have cheered up many a dull evening. Thanks, spunkmaster.

Matt, Kev, Mike, and Josh — Each one of you has become a very special part of my life in a different way. The memories that we have shared will last forever . . .

Stefani and Kelly — I'm glad that we've stayed friends throughout the years. The memories are only ours to share.

Rima — Thank for making this year something to remember. It is people like you that make leaving so hard, "When I leave I don't know what I'm hoping to find when I leave I don't know what I'm leaving behind."

Ian — There is something about you that I haven't seen in another person before, hold on to it and feed it on your dreams.

Christian — Hey sneighbor! Thank for listening to me babble. Luv u.

Mr. and Mrs. B — Thank for being my home so far away from home. I'll miss you next year. Red up! Loves yous . . .

Dr. Belt — The lessons that you have taught me both inside and outside the classroom helped me grow up and will no doubt help me in the future. I hope we will always maintain the friendship that we have now. I love you! "The Diamond Girl"

Ms. Huchel, Dr. Temple — Thank you so much for all that you have done for me over the years. You've taught me some of the most valuable lessons I'll ever learn.

Mr. Magier — Thanks for everything, especially your patience.

Mr. McCatty — You opened my eyes to a new world. Your guidance, knowledge, and friendship have been inspiring.

Mr. McCune — Thank you for the advice, no matter what my horoscope said. You have helped me more than you'll know.

Ms. Cressy — I will never be able to thank you enough for all that you've done for me this year.

MOM & DAD: Thank you so much for everything. I am very very lucky to have parents as loving and as generous as you. I love you both very much.

PEG: We may fight sometimes but you know I love you. You have helped me to grow and mature so much I can never repay you. You have been a great sister but more importantly a great friend. Let's always stay this close. And please don't stress... it's not worth it. SCOTT: Remember when we were at each other's throats in 8th grade? How many times since then? You are too patient with water skiing, Catalina — Cindy & Susie, Pool games in the G.H. first time you got... Jill's office speaking! — make-up application as a spectator sport — you mean the guys at your school don't wear make-up?! — laser sailing — Nena & Nancy — I am soooooo busy! — Bush & Amnesty, I smell clutch, Where's Scott? — Kim & Whatshere name — I still can't believe you actually did it! When are you going to finish the car? Probably in August. You were right about my girlfriends. South Pass is better than Wyoming, though. I know you'll do well wherever you go, but don't be afraid to have some fun along the way.

WALTER & EDITH: I really am sorry about the lily pads. WOLF: You really helped me to survive. Remember — "I'm putting you in my conclusion" — the Puckett/Wolfberg factor. Pyrotechnics in the backyard, sailing — "I told you not to fall in!" — concerts, private parties, all the arguments — "You know I'm always right!" New Years Eve: You are a great person, stay mellow my friend.

PAUL: Chairman of the Brentwood chapter of the SGCA. Don't worry, your car will always look the best. Double E ticket rides, right lane snakes, walkie talkies & road trips. Haven't you popped your E-brake yet?

DAN: Your car is slow and ugly and I got a ticket because of you. That's OK, though, I don't mind. Remember, we are the Eternally Contented. Some words of advice — don't get a Holco alarm for your car.

TRACIE: Fourteen years of friendship. Will we stay close? I hope so, you are a good friend and I love you. Remember me when you are a famous actress. Did you have a good time on New Year's day? And when are you going to take me water skiing?

WENDY: I don't think I will ever understand you but I had lots of fun trying. Probably the whole world is crazy and you are the only sane one. Your vitality is unmatched by anyone I have ever met. Mean schemes, "I'm friendly!", the moussé fight, long talks on the phone. I am going to miss you. Take care of yourself!

CAY: If anyone ever figures out how to package your smile in an aerosol can he will make a fortune. I'll never forget your pinches. You owe me a favor!

GLEN: Sorry about the picture!

ANDREW W: I finally found someone who is mellow than I am. Don't work yourself too hard, it's not healthy. Good luck even though you don't need it.

GREGORY: JD, Bwood and then where? When does it end? Remember Futaba, the bear, rad, & Herbie Dork? I've got Topanga down to 30 minutes! Don't go south of Century, OK?

RANDY: You and Betsy were a good carpool, but please don't try to become a professional singer. By the way, how's your arm?

VAN: I am sorry.

TIM: My big brother, you have been a great help to me. Thank you.

SHORTY: You be good now.

RED BARCHETTA

Lyrics by Neil Peart

*My uncle has a country place, that no-one knows about
He says it used to be a farm, before the Motor Law
Sundays I elude the 'Eyes', and hop the Turbine freight
To far outside the Wire, where my white-haired uncle waits*

*Jump to the ground
As the turbo slows to cross the borderline
Run like the wind,
As excitement shivers up and down my spine
Down in his barn
My uncle preserved for me, an old machine—
For fifty-odd years
To keep it as new has been his dearest dream*

*I strip away the old debris, that hides the shining car
A brilliant red Barchetta, from a better, vanished time
Fire up the willing engine, responding with a roar!
Tires spitting gravel, I commit my weekly crime...*

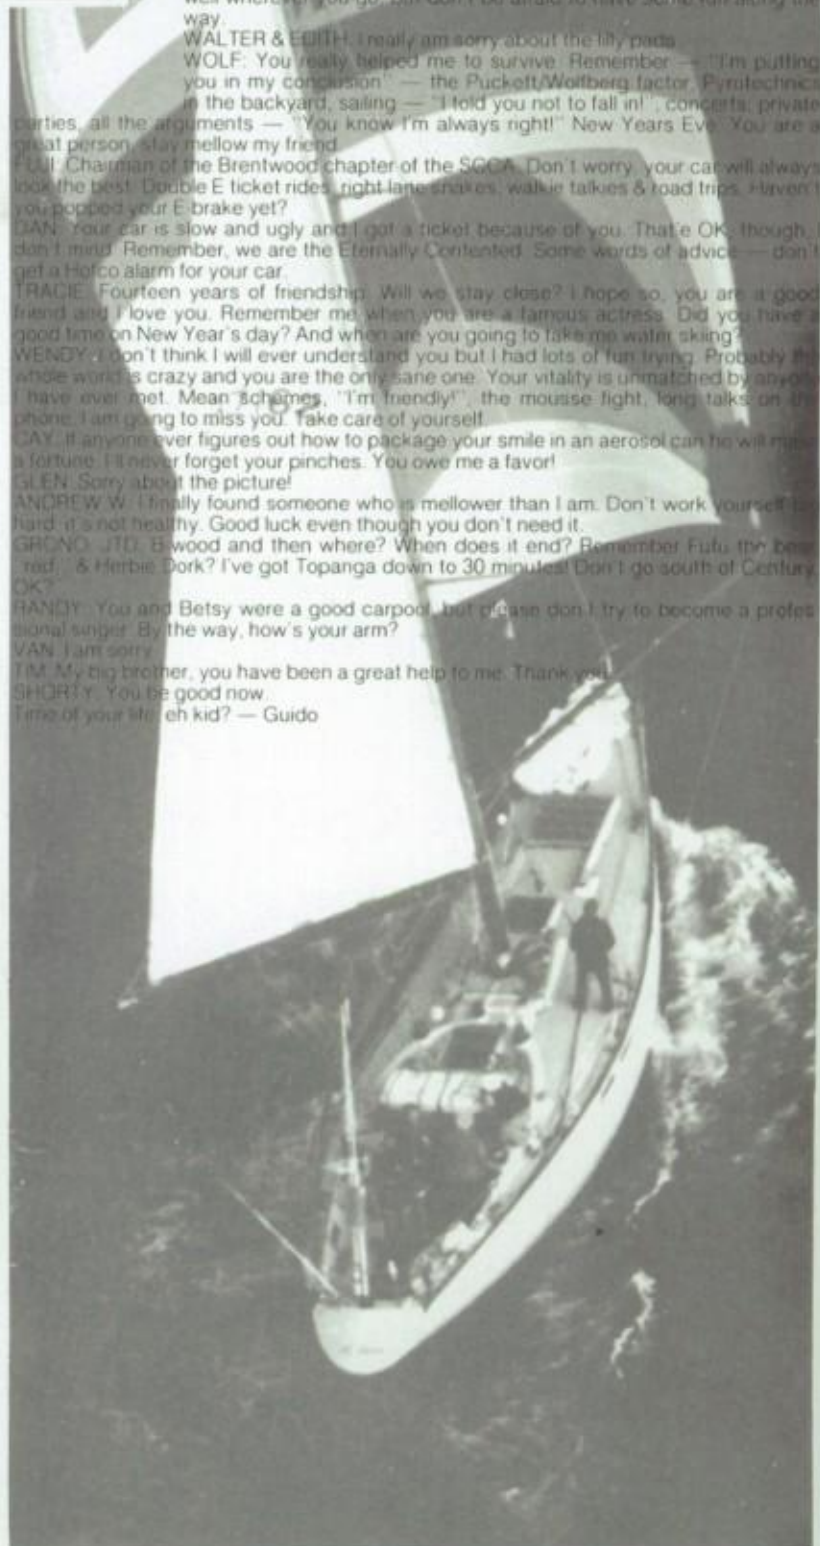

*Wind in my hair—
Shifting and drifting—
Mechanical music—
Adrenalin surge—*

*Well-weathered leather
Hot metal and oil
The scented country air
Sunlight on chrome
The blur of the landscape
Every nerve aware*

*Suddenly ahead of me, across the mountainside
A gleaming alloy air-car shoots towards me, two lanes wide
I spin around with shrieking tires, to run the deadly race
Go streaking through the valley as another joins the chase*

*Drive like the wind
Straining the limits of machine and man
Laughing out loud
With fear and hope, I've got a desperate plan*

*At the one-lane bridge
I leave the giants stranded
At the riverside
Race back to the farm
To dream with my uncle
At the fireside...*

Dear God, Thank you for 17 yrs. of joy, sadness, good times, bad times, laughter, and sorrow. For it is through all of this that I am who I am today. I pray that you will continue to lead and guide my life and help me to always show love to others.

Thank You:

Mrs. Dunn for your guidance and encouragement in the 10th and 11th grade.

Mrs. Wallace for your help and understanding. I also thank you for your cards of thoughtfulness after each performance.

Mr. McCatty for your words of wisdom in my times of need. Thanks also for being a concerned friend.

Mr. V for all your advice.

Dr. Temple for being a distant but close friend and advisor.

Mr. Balak for M&M's and your amiable nature.

The Greatest Love of All is:

Mom Thank you for all your support and love. Thank you for sacrificing just for me. I love you and I thank God for you.

Stanley and Nadine — Thanks for the love you have shown me. Thanks for being second set of parents. God knew what he was doing when he put you all into my life.

Often times it is the support of my family that keeps me going.

LC Thanks for being there and treating me like your real daughter.

Broderick, my sweetheart. We have been through so much together and for the most part it has all been great. Although we will both be leaving next year, I know I have found a true friend in you. I love you dearly.

Keep Smiling Keep Shining Knowing You Can Always Count on Me;

Tracie Remember the plays, lunch, diets, frozen yogurt. Gosh! We have only been waiting here for 30 seconds.

Dana We have had some hilarious times. Parking at UCLA is the ultimate. I can't wait until we open up our hotel with the frozen yogurt stand.

Wendy I know you are really black because you like Anita Baker and you have a Jheri Curl.

Cay You were born a poor black child. This is for blacks only. Monique thanks for being a strong sister in Christ.

Chris The college trip is what brought us together as friends. Remember meeting David.

Lisa In 10th grade you were a shy girl from N.J. Now look at you, you're beautiful.

Rachel I so glad ya came ta B-Wood. We have hecka fun times. We gon be freunds always.

Cindy Thanks for being a friend.

Adrienne and Heather you guys are great 11th grade friends.

Taunya Whatever you do, wherever you go, always know that you have a friend in me.

Farah we have been through so much together. It all has matured our relationship and brought us closer together.

Callisha Continue to seek the Lord in all that you do.

"There can be no rainbow without a cloud and a storm."

MOM AND DAD: You have always been the one constant in my life. I know that no matter what happens, I can always come home. Thank you for all the love, support, and even nagging — I love you!
JESSICA: Although sometimes sibling rivalry gets in the way, I really do love you. You are not only a best sister, but also a best friend. P.S. I'm still winning sneak-up's!

"But this bridge will only take you halfway there — The last few steps you'll have to take alone."

"The purpose of life, after all, is to live it, to test experience to the utmost, to reach out eagerly and without fear for newer and richer experience."

MIKE AND HOWARD: You both are the brothers I never had. Thirteen %@/&#-ing years is a long time!
MIKE, BRO' POORO, CUZ: Thank God for Webster, Raquette Lake, water and snow-skiing, car-pooling, the birm, Physics, extended family, forgetting books, 'All-you-can-eat' sushi, and winter semi-formals, because without them we wouldn't be such great friends. You will always have a special place in my heart. I love you!
HOWARD, CUZ RICHIO, PEG: Since kindergarten I don't think we've had a dull moment. You have taught me so much about myself and life in general. Thank you for being you, and letting me be me. I love you, ego and all!
general. Thank you for being you, and letting me be me. I love you, ego and all!
ANDREA: "If you have one true friend you have more than your share." How come I'm so lucky? Growing up with you has been the best, DO! I love you and know that neither time nor distance will ever separate us.
KELLY: From the slopes of Mammoth, to the streets of San Francisco, to the beaches of Maui, we've done it all! It seems that the good and bad times only make us stronger. I love you!
friendship means so much to me, and I know we will always stay close: after all, who else would I C.G. with? I love you!
KIKO: All the talks, the laughter, and the understanding make our friendship truly special. Remember — take a walk on the wild side, I'll come with you.
KEVIN: Wherever we are, whether the Wailer, Sawtelle field, my bar, Kent's living room, Kiko's pool, or classroom #9, there is something to smile about.
MATT: The great conversations and good times have only just begun. And even though you're a degree behind me, I still love you!
FRED: Thank you for just being yourself. You make getting through each day a little easier. I love you!
READE: Whenever I need someone to talk to or laugh with I know you're there. P.S. Do you wanna take a walk. When I look back on my high school years, all of our great times are what I'll remember. You guys are what true friends really are!

A special good-bye and good luck to Steph, Emily, Ellen, Karen, Shannon, Kim, Laurie, and Stacey.

Mom n' Dad — I love you two so much!!! Thanks for all the love and support you've given me these past eighteen years. You've always been so open and easy to talk to. And I'll miss you next year!

Grandma — You're great! I love you and will miss you more than you think. Please send pasta!!!

Cindy — Bud — Hey bayba! (you knew I'd write that) Ski trips, "It's over now," concerts (Genesis, Dep. Mode etc.), "Peanuts," and our summers at the beach. We're notorious fun-hunters that will stop at nothing! Our friendship (since 8th grade?!) proves that. I love ya, Cin!

Cheers to THE CLASS OF '87: Good luck to everyone! There is really something special about you guys and I'm gonna miss it. It's been fun, demanding, wonderful, and short six years. CONGRATULATIONS, and here's looking at you, kids!

Matt — Whoah! We've been through so much and have remained the best of friends. Our friendship is precious to me and I treasure all the years, laughs, trust, and tears we've shared. "Right right right right dat's right!" I love you Matteito!

Claudia — Gladstones, "the worm," aerobics, pasta n' pesto parties, long phone convos. No matter what we do, we always have amazing fun together. The laughter, advice, and craziness we've shared makes our friendship very special. I love ya hun!

Steeve — What great times we've had: Prom, ski trip, and remember that coke machine bit from 9th grade? You're a great guy and thanks for always calling even if you were leaving in three hours.

Kiko — aka Penguin Pall! You're so funny and a great friend as well. "What? ... What?" Let's go eat a "Shlemiko."

Kirsty — I say chap! Our friendship must've been fate. Our summers in France and LA were totally Hysterical! — We really showed those Deauvillians. Remember: Smiths "concert" Top Gun, muscle contest, lost on the freeway, an "Be uglier tomorrow!" I love ya, you "Backstreet Girl" you!

Greg — You're sweet, honest disposition has brightened many a grey day. You and your hats always make me smile! I love ya, Gregipus! Adam — That face! Ha ha ha ha. You've made me laugh (at some inconvenient times) until my sides ache. Thanx, Ad. Jen — Soccer and play buddies. Remember "the Green Goalie?" and "Oh, like Turk 182?!" You're great! Special thanks to: Mr. V., S. Wallace, the Temples, Mrs. Warren, Dr. Edwards, Mrs. Radomile, Ms. Graffin, and Mr. C. — You've helped me in ways beyond academic learning. Thank you.

Hayley — We're like weebles. Our friendship wobbled but it didn't fall down. Our memories are infinite, but here are my faves: "Expert skiers," Paul Pogo, "get me peach," the Brians, kicking in the wall, wambamba, and the fish poem. I'm gonna miss you and our ridiculous antics!

Laine — "My God, Sticks!" You are such a God! We've had such fun over the years and I hope we continue. How about caroling next year?

Andrea — I'm glad we've become more than acquaintances, because frankly, you crack me up!

Grant — Thanks for the beautiful memories.

MOM & DAD: Thank you so much for all the support you have given me the last 6 years at Brentwood. We know that behind the bitching, there is so much love. Thank for not only being my parents, but also being my best friends.

SUSAN & JILL: You girls have sure typified what I would consider older sisters (wild and crazy ... our party, Mexican Fiesta night — why does mom and dad have to be sooo boring???) May our relationship continue to grow as we grow. I love you both more than words can say.

ALLISON: (my best friend) We did it! Can you believe it? I could not have survived these last six years without you. You have been so supportive of me, always giving me a shoulder to lean on, cry on, and laugh on. I love now and always will. Best Friends forever and ever!!!

JULIE: (best friend #2) God Jade — I have never seen a relationship grow so quickly. From 8-10 we were enemies and now look at us ... BEST FRIENDS. I love you "2 times". Jade & Alli — memories: BonAdventure ... If they only knew about ??? ... Tufts & S.B. ... what's happenin' to our dudes? ... stogs ... doing "the deed," Polo Lounge ... J.D.R. ... Tell me now, Tell me now or forever hold your peace."

LOREN: I know that we've had our ups and downs over the past 6 years but the time we spent together was extremely memorable. I hope we still keep in touch after we graduate because you will always be a great friend and the sister I never had. Friends Forever.

ADAM: Well cutie — we made it! Would you have thought in the 9th grade we'd graduate as friends? Look at us — Best buddies! I promise I will accept your marriage proposal as soon as we graduate college (That is, if we don't fail out!!!) Thank Adam for being such a great friend and the brother I never had. Friends Forever.

RUSSELL: How do I begin? ... I keep asking myself that question. What do you say to someone who knows your deepest, darkest thoughts and feelings? You have definitely proved to me that "love is blind." It leads us into dark alleys. You showed me how to love someone and how to care. Believe me Russell — no matter what — I always will want to be your Best Friend.

JENNIFER: "When you're down and troubled and you need a helping hand and nothing, oh nothing is going right, close your eyes and think of me, and soon I will be there to brighten up even your darkest nights ..." — JT Remember Jen — I love you and will always be here for you. Good luck and keep in touch.

BOBBY M.: 6 years buddy! God have we matured since 7th grade. Remember Tim's party? What a joke! I am so glad that you and I worked out our problems and are now great friends again. No matter where we go, please don't drift away!

JESSICA: I gotta commend you — you have put up with my crap for 6 years now. I am so happy that you have been my tennis partner — we are an awesome team!!! (we gotta get those from Cambell Hall one day) Let's always stay as close as we are. I love you tons!

BOBBY B.: My college stud! Sorry that we haven't kept in touch better this year. I really miss some of our fun times. Thank for all the wonderful memories ... semi-formal '85 ... Chez-Jays ... Andre ... I never — Pretty dangerous game ...

XAN: Your individualistic beliefs and ways makes you such a fascinating person. After being great friends for 2 years, I have learned that behind that "crazy character," there is a very thoughtful and caring person. Thank for being such a special friend. I love you.

To the class of 1987: Congratulations and Good Luck!

Words are hard to find
They're only cheques I've left unsigned
From the banks of chaos in my mind
And when their eloquence escapes me
Their logic ties me up and rapes me

Poets priests and politicians
Have words to thank for their positions
Words that scream for your submission
And no one's jamming their transmission
Cos when their eloquence escapes you
Their logic ties you up and rapes you
— STING

Baby, sometimes I'm as careless
With love that's hard to hide
Other times it seems that all I have to do is worry
You better know you better see my other side

Don't you know I'm human
I've got my faults just like anyone
Sometimes I'm awake long regretting
Some foolish thing, some sinful thing I've done

I'm just a soul whose intentions are good
On Lord, please don't let me be misunderstood

When I'm a good dog they sometimes throw me a bone
I've got electric light
And I've got electric light
I've got amazing powers of observation
And that is how I know
When I try to get through
On the telephone to you
There'll be nobody home
I've got wild, straight eyes
And I've got a strong urge to fly
But I've got nowhere to fly to

To my parents and family: I love you all (mom, dad, roly, peewee, and squamos). Mom and Dad — Although it appeared as if it went unnoticed, I did and do appreciate all you've done for me. To all my friends, especially those who do not mind that their name is not on my page in type-written letters: I'm sorry so irresponsible, otherwise you would have the best type-written letters money could buy. However, you've put up with me this long, so you've probably anticipated such a page. I'd love to explain our friendships one by one right now, but I think I'd rather do it tomorrow at school... if I go. P.S. Congratulations to the CIF Champions — Boys' Varsity Tennis.

God, my life is confusing. First New York, then London and now L.A. Sometimes when I think about all the people and places that I have known none of it makes any sense. I think Woody Allen described life best when he said "There goes Edna with the saxophone." I have no idea what I meant by that, but then again neither did he.

To Bo and Noah: Although I barely ever see you and the city of New York anymore, whenever we reunite it seems as though we never parted. Without your friendship all the moves and adjustments that I have made would have been unbearable. I will never forget all the things we have done together, especially Lux and the S.L. Club.

To Tim, Tom, Karl and Dave: I do not know what I would have done without you guys. Through all of you I found out what it is like to be happy. Although I will probably never see any of you again, I will always remember my year in London, especially on escalators.

Matt, How, Fred, Josh and Stefani: It is very hard for me to write this. I am finding it difficult to put into words the way I feel about each of you. So I hope all of you know how much I care about you even if I do not express it well in this page. I have only known the five of you for a year of my life and yet you are the most important people to me. I have told you my deepest secrets and I have become closer to you than anyone in my life. I have learned so much from all of you. It will be hard to leave you and all the wonderful times we have had. I am going to miss you.

To Woody: You are the only man I would ever have sex with.

Nara Shalita and Kiko, You will live in my heart forever or at least in an apartment somewhere near my heart like the liver.

Brentwood Volleyball: The school support has been incredible. Thanks for a great four seasons.
A special thanks to the '86 team — TM, LK, CV, CM, LM, GC, CE, RH, KJ, KT, LM, and CP for a great last season.
Coach Porter: It's been a terrific three years. Thanx for the support and encouragement.
Special thanks to Mr. McCatty, Mr. Saeta, Ms. Huchel, Mrs. Balik, Dr. Cook, and Mrs. Shibuya.

Stef: So we're a little different in size — opposites attract. You are my favorite ski buddy and best friend. The Big Fig Newton ... fish soup ... pee on the beamer ... beamerize ... OCG ... I go away for a week and look what happens! Through anything and everything I know you are there for me and I'm here for you. I love you Stef!

Kiko: I'm so glad we have become close friends. You make me laugh so hard between Bio and those relatives who had the red scarf dog. You have helped me so much with school and everything else. Remember the Bad/Good theory always holds true. Love ya Kik.

Kristen: We have shared so many good times together from your slumber party when the lady fell in the pool to weekends in PS to our now mature talks. You're a great friend. I'm so glad we've stayed close.

Loren: Volleyball would never be the same without you. Our talks and laughs have been the best.

Lynz: My cross the street consultant. You have always been a great listener.

Matt, Mike, Kim, and Gretchen: Thanx for the laughs and special times.

Seth: (The volleyball god) I will always remember our talks about everything.

Memories: "I Got You Babe" ... the Bweepman ... Top Gun ... "Bring Me a Higher Love" ... Francis Parker ... Hawaii '86 — Slick ... Mahalo ... chaysees ... Squeeze ... Haute Cinq ... red socks ... CM.

Mom & Dad: You have opened my eyes to the world. Your guidance and support have helped me more than you realize. I love you both very much.

Peter: (You know Bill, Bill from ... umm) You make me laugh harder than anyone and I'm not talking tickle fights. It used to be that we were brother and sister. Now you are a best friend. Don't let anyone get you down. You are the best brother ever. I love you Pete!

PST Summer of '86

"The smile you give to me"

Kev: I have learned so much about myself from you. I share thoughts and feelings with you that I used to keep inside. You are my best friend. No matter what we understand and support each other. I'll never eat my cookies and get upset with you around. I love you. Somebody who you always want to be there for you, someone you always want to talk to if you need to, someone you always want to get to know better and be closer with, someone who always wants to get to know you better and be closer with you."

Mom and Dad — You both have helped keep my life in balance, bringing reality back to me when it temporarily gets forgotten. You have helped me through the hardest part of my life, always willing to bail me out when I let things pile up. I love you!

Cathy — We've had our differences, but we both know about those already. I want you to know that I really do love you now, and always will.

Peter — What can I say to a person who is just like a member of my family, except that I love you like a brother. It's hard to believe that we've been friends for 17 years, but when I think of your personality, it's no real surprise. Take care of my C.D.'s when I'm away!

Matt — We've both grown a lot since the early 7th grade carpool days (cut the latter). You are one of the few people that I can spend an infinite amount of time with, and never stop laughing. You always understood when things were wrong, and you always could cheer me up. Thanks for all your support, donne.

Howard — You have done more to open up my mind than anyone else, and that was definitely not easy. We have had too many memories to talk about here, so let's just think of the ones to come.

Reade — At this time last year, I don't think I had ever said a word to you. Who would have ever thought that we would be this good friends in such a short time. We're so much alike (not just blond hair and blue eyes!) that we'll always be close.

Josh — In 8th grade I used to be scared that you would tease me. Now I don't worry about that too much, because I've joined you. I'm so relieved. Take care of Jack.

Tom, Ben, Will — So many memories with K.M. in T.2. COTC, chili-dogs, pizza party, 96 rolls on my house in the rain, vet Pheeeeel, etc. You all helped make my life fun, I can't thank you enough. — can do!

Kristin — My little woman, I don't know what life would be like without someone like you to bug.

Jenny L. — Remember orchestra, tennis match, parent problems, annual grounding? You've been a special friend for a long time. I'll miss you.

Hilary — You're a good tennis player — just kidding. Keep in touch, O.K.?

Jessica — You're one of the few true Peter Gabriel fans, next to me. Thanks for being yourself, I'll miss you.

Stephanie — We're the last survivors of the old orchestra. It's been a long and winding road, thanks for being there with me.

Ricky, Greg, Link, Jeff, Shalita, etc. — When everything in class went horribly, you made it worth coming to school. I can't thank you enough.

Brentwood — You had a strong hand in making me grow. esp. Dr. Belt, Mr. Reed, Mr. Krause. Mr. McCatty.

Mom and Dad — You have been so much more than parents to me. For the last seventeen years you have been my best friends. Thank you so much for your love, guidance, and support. I will never forget all the great times we have had. Remember, no matter where I am next year, my home will still be with you. I love you.

Mara — It is hard to believe that we only went to school together for one year. We managed to fill that one year with so many memories — missions, picnics, stage crew should be fun, party animal, no notes, etc. I am so glad we have stayed in touch. As you would say, MS + DS = FF. I love you.

Jackie — Although we have drifted apart, I will always treasure our friendship. The end of eighth grade was the best, with Nick, our science project, the park, your Bat Mitzvah, and on and on. For a few months I practically lived at your house. After that there was Tahoe, the guy at Swensen's, boring each other to death with our endless guy talks, summer school and Shawn, Does Patti live here?, my visits to Pali. I will miss you next year, but please stay in touch. I love you.

Joanne — How many people can say that they are still in touch with their first best friend? I will never forget playing rabbits at Marquez. We have managed to keep in touch for twelve years, so let's not stop now!

Monique — I would need a separate page to write everything we have shared over the last four years. From cookie puss, the volleyball court, carrot sticks, agent .001%, and fishes to double features, our hotel in Australia, the Glendale Galleria, Loyola, and the prom, we've had some incredible adventures. Thank you so much for helping me through some hard times. I truly hope that those 'ties' we've talked about so many times will always remain strong. I love you.

Angie — My future business associate — we'll be rich some day when we open our hotel, college, and frozen yogurt chain. We have had some great times going to aerobics, eating, posing with Santa Claus, eating some more, (and also some bad ones, which usually included UCLA library). You are such a special person and a terrific friend. Keep smiling and keep singing. I luv ya!

Wendy — I have learned one thing from you, never trust first impressions. I would have missed so many adventures if I had — dinner at the bank, near arrests at Gelson's and Magic Mountain, Mulholland with one eye, basketball games, sharing books in English, Newport Beach, Testakers, Halloween on Melrose, the jolly pink giant, and of course the prom! You are a truly incredible person, and I will miss you.

Lisa — New Jersey lost a terrific person when you came here, and I am so glad it did. You have been such a good friend, and with the exceptions of Spanish and Chemistry, we have had some great times — dance classes, Robby, frozen yogurt, our mishaps on the ski trip, prom dress shopping, UCLA, basketball games, your turn to drive, California Rolls, Etc. I luv ya Lis.

Hayley — I think we managed to ruin many perfectly good days with our constant complaining, but we had fun doing it! Soccer, chem chats, our A.P. classes, our cars, senior pages, college, etc. Not everything was so terrible though, cuz when we weren't complaining we were usually laughing — Brian and Scott (I still think you planned it), sexy George, That B flat minor is a little sharp, huge, do you watch Dallas?, off campus as juniors? (never), Monkees and Genesis, Monday lunches, frozen yogurt, and on and on. I love ya, and keep laughing!

Tracie — My diet buddy, some of the time anyway! On the day of your first Broadway show we'll go to Sizzler for lunch. I have three last things to say to you — Happy New Year, go Arizona, and most of all you're cool! Luv ya.

Heather — I'm so glad I talked you into playing soccer, since that is where we became friends. We've had fun eating hot fudge sundaes (among other things), complaining about you know who, and of course Tigger and those endless goodbyes. Just think, he should be coming back soon! Have a great senior year, and I'll miss you.

To my teachers — Although I may not have been thinking this at 2 a.m. when I was studying for your tests, thank you for all you have taught me. Special thanx to Dr. Belt, Mr. McCatty, Mrs. Lockard, Mrs. Dunn, and Mrs. Wallace.

To the group — Thanx for the memories! Good luck, and I'll miss you all.

Mom, Dad, Brian, and Hugh — I could never ask for a better family. Thank you for all your love and support. I love you.

If I can hear their laughter, why can't I hear mine? Guess it's time to own up finally, this ingenue has grown up finally, and now it's time to go.

— Fred Silver

Cay — Hey buddy, God this is wierd. Ballet Volleyball Softball basketball. Forever New Year's Eve. Right? Why'd you do that woofers? I love you bud.

Chris — I have absolutely no idea what to say to you. We've been through so much. You've always been the one ready to put me on that Broadway stage and say "Go for it, you can do it." Even when I doubted myself the most. Thank you. Tramps like us, baby we were born to run. No retreat no surrender.

Jen — Small ridiculous, small freak, you're cool, and every other sarcastic phrase ever invented. Falling-over curbs, cracks, stairs, stereo covers, and nothing in particular. Plays-Grease, Harrison Texas (S.R.), Oklahoma, South Pacific, and oh yeah, there wasn't a play this year, was there? (S.R.). I love you babe.

Wendy — Of all people to have to write just a few words to, you are definitely the hardest I've never met anyone so like me, and so nothing like me until I became friends with you. Try to put a couple of pounds on your butt while you're away.

Lisa — Never go to U.C.L.A. in the rain. You'll learn to like sushi if it kills me.

Monique — Hey aerobic buddy. Thanks for caring about my life so much. You're a great friend.

Dana — Done any drinking lately? Keep routing for the team with the prettiest uniforms.

Angie — Why don't you and B. just get married already? You two make me sick. I love you Ange.

Steph — You're the only person I know who has enough words to say what she really means. You're one of the most interesting people I have ever known.

Cindy — You've always been so supportive of me. Thank you for being there.

Shanon, Danny, and Glen — What great guys you are. P.S. — Danny, I know you're going to transfer to U.S.C.

Jim — God it's been a long time. 14 years. I must be moronic 'cause I can't think of a thing to say, except I love you.

Joe — You should have gotten a ticket. I still have the notes.

Mike — I can hardly believe that you were once just Chris' little brother. Now you're one of my closest friends. I love you Mike.

Ms. Huchel and Mr. McCatty — Thank you both for all your help. I will never forget it.

Mami — I can't imagine ever making it through the plays without you. Thank you for keeping me sane.

Melissa — My oldest and dearest friend. I love you.

Sharon — My newest friend. Stay "punchy" and don't try to steal anymore Broadway signs.

Jeff — I love you. I've never enjoyed being so confused in my life. You're the best friend I could ever have or ever will have. I don't think I could possibly say how I feel about you. I think you know.

Heather, Megan, Tony, Brian, and Debbie — I wish there was enough room to say something to each of you. I love you guys.

David — Sushi and aerobics. What a date. I'm so glad that our friendship has grown over the past few years. You're a great friend.

Mom and Dad: Good times, bad times, you know we've had our share. Thank you for putting up with all of my hell. Thank you for all your help and support. I will always be there for you, as you have always been there for me. I love you very much.

Kelley:

Work, and play, hard during your four years of high school. I know that I have not been the greatest brother, but I love you a lot.

All the Boys: Never had I had such an incredible group of friends. Life would be so boring without you.

Ricky: You are someone that I know I can always count on. Snow!, Genesis concert, porno, small rager, I tag red car, P.T., semi-formal, taco hell, adios, sianorah, au revoir, and later.

Christian: Mulholland party — Carmine and Fat Burger, San Vicente Foods, Westlake dance recital, Dreher, getting sideways at Sunset and Capri, golfing in your back yard, NY-Pizza.

Marc: Duuuuuuude! Gladstones 4 Fish, Betties?, dancing at your hotel room in Vail, Un-touchables concert, backside turbo diesel aggro grommet.

Russell: Mugambo, eight-ball at the Worm's, box of reds, full gainers, back flip, bike lane on San Vicente, 3 pretzels to 1 Coke, sorry about the garage wall.

Jeff: Next time we rally in Westwood you get the ticket, paint pellet wars without a gun.

Gary: Sorry about the incident at Allenford and Sunset, shave-ice, out of line, dude.

Xan: Skate or die, I hope that someday you own Coca Cola.

Malek: Remember my ticket on Sunset, pretty hairy, doesn't it look like Santa Monica is a pool of lava.

David: Andrus Gerontology center, Pascal?

Bobby: trips to the woods on senior retreat, what would we do without them.

Mr. McCatty, Mr. Krause, and Mrs. Z: You are the three most wonderful teachers I have ever had, and to me, you are more than just teachers.

Peter Gabriel

Mr. B, Coach Jesson, and Mr. Ingram: This is where I spend Thanksgiving.

Grandma and Grandpa: You are two wonderful grandparents.

Grandma Vaccaro: I will always remember you.

To the above and those not pictured (Mike, Jim, Doug, C. O. and all the others) You are all the best. I would not be much without you. Keep in touch.

Andover 85. Akemi: Don't worry so much! You always make it through with flying colors! To all the rest of the group: We did have a lot of fun. Didn't we! Class on the 4th of July? Louis and all the hoopsters: Thanks for the games.

Steve: Too much fun. Too much to say. Dessert? I don't have time I've got a game tomorrow. Touchdown. B-Wood parties. Beer stories. S.B. is a nice place plus it has nice scenery. Our friendship is very important to me so let's keep in touch.

Pat: Roosevelt. 18 in a row! Seniors always win. Mustard. Volleyball. Basketball. Carpinteria! Well Goof, I'll see you on the East Coast.

Xan: Small freak! You're cool! Dodger and Laker (Worthy) games Red Hot Chili Peppers! Peter Gabriel. My small debt. Our friendship is unique and you're the best.

Mike R: Expelled! If I eat I'll get hungry. Let's spend some time in the universal mind. USC? See you down at Lowell's house.

Jim A: I like your house but it doesn't like me. Ski pole? I didn't do that! Did I? Villanova. The picture off of my wall. See you in beantown.

Vic: Our night with J. She wouldn't stop talking. "I shoot anything" Bad shot? Try to keep away from dogs in dark alleys.

Eric B: You are my kind of coach! Carpinteria. Bob's Big Boy. Did you see that! New Years I wish you the best. Keep in touch.

Lindsey: Thanks for all the fun evenings. School would be boring without you. Did I really convince you to stay at B-Wood, well I'm sorry! You had better keep in touch!

Cathy: You are a wonderful person! I don't drive as far as I do for the money. Keep on being excited by life that quality is hard to find. I don't know about your morals though. "Dave I'm going to stop this week" Sure.

Meighan: I hope college is easier for you than high school. Some times I almost think you care too much. Don't dwell on the past. I hope you prosper in college. You deserve it.

To my teachers: Thanks for putting up with me. I know it was tough. Coach Brown, Mr. Ingram, Mr. Hutson, Coaches Miller and Jesson, Mr. McCatty, and Mr. Krause: You are what makes Brentwood a good school. I thank you all for your contributions to make me into what I am today.

To the many others not mentioned: You are not forgotten. As you know the space is limited. I will make it up to you in a more personal manner. "Thanks a lot thanks a whole lot!"
Wall of Voodoo

Don't go changing to try and please me
 You never let me down before
 Don't imagine you're too familiar
 And I don't see you anymore
 I would not leave you in times of trouble
 We never could have come this far
 I took the good times — I'll take the bad times
 I'll take you just the way you are.

— Billy Joel

MOM: I don't now where I'd be without you. Thank you for all the love and listening of all these years. I love you.
 DAD: Although sometimes I know I let you down, I want you to know that I love you very, very much. The best parts of me are a result of trying to be like you.
 MIKE: You are a better brother and friend than I've ever given you credit for ... thanks for standing by me ... I love you.
 GRANDMA & BABA: Thank you for 18 years of love and guidance. I love you both very much.
 GORDY: Thanks for all the back rubs, hugs and talks ... much appreciated ... see you in Greece.
 KATHRYN: Thanks for all the advice and support ... I love you, PB.

 TRACIE: "Tramps like us, baby, we were born to run." ... TT+DM,JK,BG,RS ... "no retreat, baby, no surrender." ... Love you, Gidget.
 LISA: I wondered if we'd make it ... thanks for being an unceasing source of smiles and friendship on Valley runs and Regular Jons stops. You are the most beautiful person I know.

 ANGIE: Chemistry ... college trip roomies ... Spanish ... keep singing and keep smiling ... love ya Ang ... you're the best.
 SHANNON: 8th grade history ... Yosemite ... volleyball 2 on 2 ... Prom ... getting married ... "our kids." ... your patience, understanding, and perseverance have taught me much ... love you.
 JAKE: What would I do without you ... I don't know if you realize how special you are — if you do, never forget it. If you don't, call me I'll tell you. I admire you as much as I love you, and that's a lot ... Be happy, Seth ... thanks for everything — Christina.
 DANNY: "Take it easy." ... football games ... retreat morning ... music in common ... UCLA ... stopping by ... keep smiling ... luv ya Dan.
 MATT: "The music did the talkin' ... I would have been bored without you the last two years ... I know I drove you crazy but you know how History and Spanish are ... I still love your car and I am gonna steal all your music someday ... "I miss you, babe, good luck, goodbye ..."
 MIKE: aka Max Frumo, I especially when class was boring ... remember the snake Mr. Cudlip gave us? ... we thought we were so neat ... thanks for helping me decorate my Christmas tree ... and for those "cheer me up" calls after 9:30 ... you have a gift for making people smile — I'll miss you next year ... hasta luego — Christina.
 DANA, MO, MEIGHAN, JIM, GLEN, AND DIINO: Thanks for being a special part of my life ... best of luck and love always.
 MARK H: "Take me with you" ... basketball ... jump shots ... rides home ... baseball games ... Candlelighting ... I love you.
 NORA: Quack, quack ... brothers (D & C, T & H) ... romance novels ... renting movies ... "Are you two related?" ... I couldn't have asked for a better older sister ... thanks for being there.
 IAN: "We must be a sight to see, salon and saloon." ... which will be which remains to be seen ... I miss you, but somehow you never seem to be all that far away ... thanks for caring so much ... love, Buzz.
 CP: Four years, huh? ... Bio ... volleyball ... advisorness ... sr. sem ... basketball. You are a good teacher, a better coach, and a great friend. Thanks for everything Luv, CV.
 MRS. WALLACE: There are no words to describe what a source of inspiration and support you have been over the last four years ... basketball, Humanites, English, life ... thank you so much ... I'll never forget you.
 MR. MCCATTY: First day, first class of 7th grade ... and you're still one of my favorite teachers ... I'm so glad you came back ... thanks for always being there when I need someone to talk to ... I will miss you.
 ESTEBAN: Thanks for Spanish I and the trip to Cancun ... you have taught me so much in such a short time ... thanks for listening and caring ... you are missed and loved.
 MR. B: You have been more of a help to me than you could ever know ... thank you for believing and caring so much ... take care.
 MR. V: Well, after 6 years it is finally time to say goodbye ... don't worry though, I'll continue to drop by your office to chat! Thanks for everything.
 MRS. SCHNIEDER: Dittol!
 DR. & MRS. TEMPLE: You are both amazing. Thanks for caring so much.
 THE FAMILY BALAK: Thank you. I'll miss you all (especially you, Kev)
 JON D: I'll miss you — take care. I love you, JD.
 CARRIE: I'm so glad I got to know you. Take care. I'll miss you.
 CATHRYN & CHRISTA: My two cuties — have fun — take care of Mike for me.
 ROB: I'll miss you next year. I love you, Robby ... stay gold.

THROUGH THE YEARS...

A collage of 30 black and white photographs of students from various years, arranged in a grid-like fashion. The photos show students in different settings: some in sports uniforms, some in casual attire, some in groups, and some in individual portraits. The students are of various ethnicities and are captured in candid, joyful moments. The collage is titled "THROUGH THE YEARS..." at the top. The photos are arranged in a roughly rectangular grid, with some photos being larger than others. The students are shown in various poses and settings, including sports uniforms, casual clothing, and group shots. The overall tone is nostalgic and celebratory, capturing the essence of student life over time.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Four Points From Championship

Four points separated this year's varsity football team from winning their first Delphic League championship. In the 12-14 loss to Masada, the Eagles twice had the ball inside the opponent's ten yard line in the final four minutes, but each time was denied points. A field goal by Faith Baptist with fifteen seconds remaining in the game defeated the Eagles 21-23. It was a season full of big plays, hard hits and exciting finishes.

Matt Lublin rushed for over 1200 yards and was named the team's MVP. Nick Karno and Andy Barash won Defensive and Offensive Awards. Seth Jacobson and David Vaccaro won the Coaches' Award. A special thanks to the Senior players: John Irwin, Matt Lublin, Andrew Breitbart, David Vaccaro, Michael Frumovitz, Kevin Dicker, Shannon Naulls, Nick Karno, Seth Jacobson, Bobby Howell, Marc Rubinroit, and Danny King for their outstanding leadership throughout the season.

BOYS' VARSITY CROSS-COUNTRY

Youngest Team Finishes Strong

This year's boys' cross-country team was the youngest team in a now very strong Prep League. Though plagued by injuries all season, the 1986 season proved to be a successful, with many long miles seen and new friendships made. The team posted a 4-3 dual meet record and third place finish in league, thus qualifying for the IA-CIF Southern Section preliminaries which were held in mid-November at Mt. San Antonio College. The team was led by seniors Link Hirst, Fred Starr and Jeff Zook. Other members of the squad included junior Jordan Karubian, sophomores Todd Gilligan and Joel Trachtenberg and freshmen Gus Harper and Brennan Spiegel. The end of the season saw the following runners receive awards: Team Captain — Link Hirst, Most Competitive — Joel Trachtenberg, Coach's Award — Gus Harper. The three seniors will be sorely missed, but our younger runners gained some valuable experience this season, which will insure a continued strong tradition of cross-country at Brentwood.

GIRLS' VARSITY CROSS-COUNTRY

Strong Runners Show Promise for Future

This year the girl's cross-country team had a record of 2-3. The hardworking team placed third in their invitational and fourth in their league. Excellent runners who will show great promise in the future are the two freshmen, Rebecca Ryan and Brooke Sawyer. Leading the six juniors was Emily Wolk. The diligent senior, Hilary Hatch, always showed team spirit and dedication.

GIRLS' VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Incredible Fourth CIF Championship

Many accolades can be showered upon this year's girls varsity volleyball team: the best volleyball team ever, three CIF championships in a row, a record six Delphic League championships, a three year record of 56 and 7, a total of 15 All-League and 8 All-CIF awards, etc. All of these are very deserved and worth mentioning.

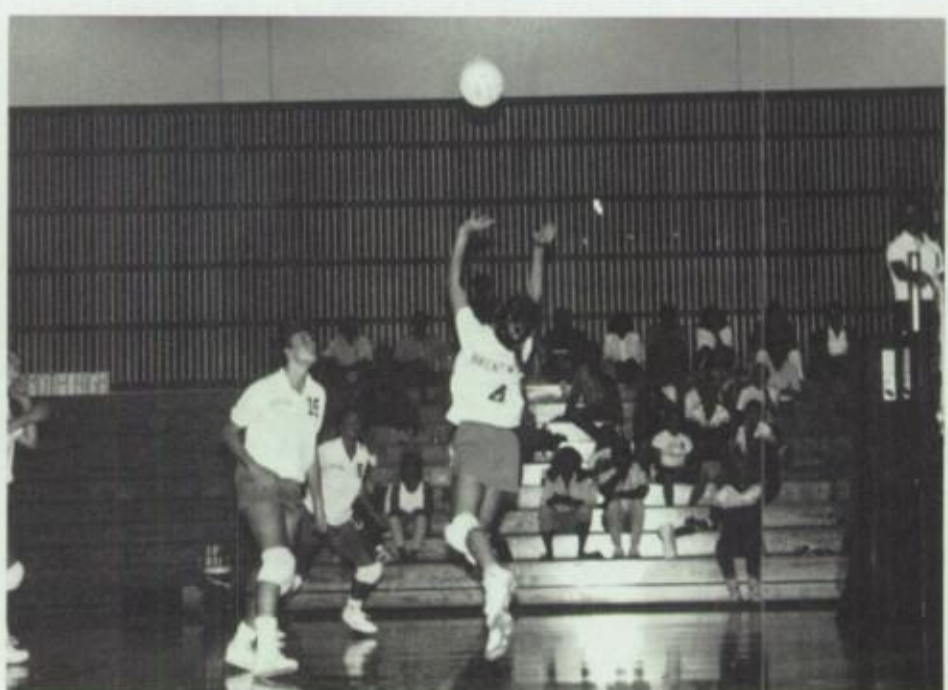

Yet, the real story lies in the dedication and intense desire of the players to be the best they can be and to raise the level of Brentwood volleyball to a new height. The move of the program to Division 1A status and a CIF championship in that division in our first year speaks to those accomplishments. According to Coach Jeff Porter, "This was the best team, overall, that I have ever coached. The experience and athletic skill level was superb. Their ability to 'find the key to victory' was so key to this season and the past two. The program has reached a new level and this year's seniors leave a sincere charge to the returning and new varsity players to continue on in the tradition. What is best is that these seniors: Cay, Kelly, Chris, Cindy, Lyndsey, Gretchen, Kristen, and Loren, would be the first ones to do everything they could to help future teams to carry on. They are a great group that the program will miss and that will take a big part of my heart away with them as they leave us."

Winning is not everything and this year's team, amongst the many match victories, maintained an attitude and ethic that proves that there is more to athletics than just striving to defeat opponents.

GIRLS' VARSITY TENNIS

Reach Quarterfinals in CIF Playoffs

The girls' varsity tennis team had an outstanding season in 1986. The girls were league champions in the Delphic League and got to the quarterfinals in CIF. The most valuable doubles team in the league was the team of Jennifer Lebe and Hilary Howard, who had a league record of 24-0. The most valuable singles player in the league was Shalita Masih, who had a league record of 23-1. First Team All-League honors went to Anne Thompson (22-2) and the team of Jessica Manns and Lori Rosenthal (20-4). Anne Thompson was also chosen as the Delphic League Rookie of the Year. Overall, the team had an extremely successful season.

JV FOOTBALL

Undefeated Season

For the second year in a row the junior varsity football team won the Delphic League championship. Their 7-0-1 record marked the best in school's history. The most exciting game of the year took place on homecoming against Campbell Hall. Trailing 24-35 midway through the fourth quarter, the Eagles rallied for two scores to defeat the Vikings 38-35. Newcomer Jay Langan was named the team's MVP, while Clegg Hubbell and Matt Hatten won Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year honors, respectively. The Coaches' Award went to the two "Hogs" — Josh Holo and Mark Brubaker. Congratulations on an exciting and successful season.

JV CROSS- COUNTRY

Running Hard

The Junior Varsity Cross-Country Team enjoyed a winning season this year. Posting a strong 8-2 overall record, the J.V. runners improved throughout the season. Characterized by enthusiasm, dedication, and desire, the runners under Coach Stephen Balak showed bright promise for the future of Brentwood's highly successful Cross-Country program. Led by the tenacity of Giacomo Lardi and the desire of Seth Gerber, the J.V.'s often ran uncontested throughout the year. Nagging injuries slowed the team somewhat and were the only setbacks in an otherwise fine season.

JV GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

Delphic League Champs

The Junior Varsity Volleyball Team ended their season with a league record of 10-2, an overall record of 15-4, and a Delphic League Championship. Having only three starters returning from last year, Nancy Benfield, Laura Kravitz, and Laura Booker, the team was basically made up of freshmen. This left the team with a great deal of enthusiasm, but not much experience. After a slow start, the team pulled together to complete a very successful season. Some outstanding players for the Eagles were Denise Ross, who was named the team's Most Valuable Player, Teresa Cooper who received the Coaches' Award for her hard work and determination, and Jackie Hatten, who received the Most Improved Player's Award. Special thanks to Ethan Weitz for all of his work with the team. Congratulations to all of the team on a very fine season.

L.S. CROSS-COUNTRY

The lower school cross-country team, coached by a very enthusiastic Mrs. Creasy, and comprised of 16 spirited runners, had a very interesting season this year. Our team competed against Harvard and Crossroads and finished with a split record. The front-runners for the Eagles were: 8th grade — Tim Leanse, Tory Favorote, Josh Blatt, Lance Reiss, and Josh Dusick.

The team also competed in the prestigious Mt. SAC Invitational. The season culminated with a 3-team invitational on our home course. Brentwood received 3 of the top 10 medals, as most runners posted their best personal time of the season. All in all, it was a most enjoyable and successful season.

EIGHTH GRADE FOOTBALL

Earn Playoff Berth

The eighth grade football team had an outstanding season. Led by great plays from Derrick Amey, Scott Clarey, and Alan Wintraub, and a stingy defense, they won their first four games. In spite of some late losses (one in the second round of the playoffs), the team had a fine season.

7TH GRADE FOOTBALL

L.S. SWIM TEAM

Approximately eighteen swimmers constituted this year's Lower School Swim Team. They posted a 3-2 record in a league made up of Marlborough, Buckley, Stephen S. Wise and Immaculate Heart. At the League Championships, the girls finished third, with strong performances by Sara Simmons, Kim Montanaro, and Lisa Catterall. The boys finished in first place, led by Craig Polin, Andrew Robins, John Folinsky, Won Kim, Richard Salkow, Tim Leanse and Miguel Mir. Mrs. Catterall and Mr. Pillsbury look forward to next year's team.

Most Successful Year

The Lil' Eagles volleyball team enjoyed its most successful year ever. Led by captains Holly Agajanian and Vanessa Karubian, they finished with a 9-1 Independence League record, and a 10-2 overall record. This amazing team won the league championship, beating out Westlake who came in second and Marlborough who finished third. Contributing to this success were fifteen enthusiastic team members, led by setters, Julie Trachtenburg and Joanna Measer and hitters, Amy Uhrman, Julie Uhrman, Carrie Dowd and Vanessa Karubian, one of the captains. The M.V.P. for the season was the other captain, Holly Agajanian, who was also named to the Independence League All-Star team.

BOYS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

Brentwood Tournament Champs

On the first day of the season, the varsity basketball team hoped to achieve just one goal: to reach the CIF playoffs for the first time in four years. Brentwood lost just one of its first six games, as they won the championship of the second annual Brentwood Tournament. Junior Jeremy Lappen won M.V.P. of the tournament, as he scored eighteen points in the championship game. Brentwood's success continued on into league play. Throughout the year junior guard Mike Victor led the team and gained first-team all-league honors. Lappen received second team all-league, while Adam Dishell was given honorable mention. After a long season, the team's fate rested on the last game of the year against Campbell Hall. After a slim 53-52 victory, Brentwood lost to Chaminade in the first round; but the team had achieved their goal of making the playoffs. After a successful season, Brentwood will miss seniors David Vaccaro, Bobby Moses, and Adam Dishell, but Coach Bob Ingram knows that with the talent he'll have next year, Brentwood Basketball is beginning a tradition of success.

Makes Playoffs Again

The windchannel, a round ebony irritant of air, sang the sun in flight and rifled the back of the net. Or it sailed over the fence without clinical accuracy and down into the gully and you had to wedge yourself through a hole in the fence above a little muddy patch of ground and descend into the dry brambles and nettles of the sharp declivity only not to find the errant orb for at least ten minutes. And some, lost, lie there still. So much for warm ups.

But to the game and this championship season: Captains Lublin and Gudegast controlled a midfield which controlled a league. With our 9-0 -1 record, we gained first possession of the Delphic League trophy. Lublin was our ice man, twelve for twelve on penalties.

Mike Roach and Josh Berman provided more offensive firepower. And the defense held. Brothers Hewson, Linde and Karno daunted and subdued. And Mike "Glue Fingers" Frumovitz held a zip lock-grip on the goal.

And to the games themselves: "Everything flows; nothing remains," writes aging Herakleitos, "One cannot step twice into the same river." And so it was. We drank green waters. We coursed on. We played by the concrete banks of the L.A. River on a day so cold that a headball felt permanently etched pentagonally to the forehead (but the back stayed arched, ready to snap through). We coursed on. Our keeper tallied on an heroic diving effort against a Samurai-style foe. We coursed still on. And in our final league match, we bathed in mud and muck and arose from the mire victorious, unbeaten and, frankly, uglier even than we had been before.

The season is over now. Our name is on a trophy. You cannot pour any more green water on my head. And there are no wind sprints in the red gloaming under the low, long clouds of Sawtelle Field.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

First Playoff Birth Since '84

This year in girls' basketball was a season of many new additions. Most of the team were out for basketball for the first time, either in general or for the first time in the upper school. The coach was new to the team and new to the sport. And, most exciting, the team's finish in league was at a new level; playoffs were achieved for the first time since 1984.

"What this team needed was a real 'push.' If I did anything in particular to contribute to the program, it was to make them work and play as a team. We have lots of talent; all we needed to do was merge the players into a unit," said Coach Porter. It was evident that the team did achieve this goal, as they finished third in the Delphic league and earned a playoff birth.

The highpoint of the season had to be the game against powerful league champion Crossroads, losing only by seven points after having been within 1 point with three minutes to go. Coach Porter added, "The girls played out of their minds that day. They really learned a lot about desire and playing to win. I was very proud of them."

The team was led by 1st team All League Cay Enns and 2nd "teamers" Alison Heller, captain Chris Valeo, and freshman phenom Jamila Banks. Jamila was furthered honored being selected as the league Rookie of the Year.

GIRLS' VARSITY SOCCER

Best Season Ever . . .

Carrying on the spirit of "flower power," this year's Girls' Varsity soccer team showed marked improvement. As the coach said, "The quality of athlete and commitment of the players both improved this season. Consequently, we raised the level of our performance." Indeed so! The girls had never before achieved a league victory; this year, the team registered three victories and three ties. Besides the first and second place teams in the league, Brentwood earned a win or tie with all the other five league opponents. All players contributed to this improvement, with Gretchen Cummings making the Sunshine League all-league team, with all-league nominations for Tavin Marin, Rachel Hartshorn, and Rima Akkad. Goal scorers include Christa Robertson, Sheri Lippman, Stacey Reiss, and Holly Irwin. Senior goalie Abbey Levine had some excellent moments, and Julie Adler's leadership will be missed. With new lower schoolers, Brentwood will look to make playoffs next year. But, it is the determination, talent, and heart of this year's squad that has established Brentwood as a solid and competitive girls' soccer program.

JV BOYS' BASKETBALL

This year, as all previous years, has been the best ever. Led by returnee David Bartman, the team won the L.A. Baptist Christmas Tournament and finished the season with a 14-7 record.

JV SOCCER

The JV Soccer team experienced a fine season this year. Coach Doug Swanson, a UCLA student, led the boys to an undefeated league title. The strong point of the team was the defense. Led by Will Clossey the team MVP, Kevin Stricke, Clegg Hubbell, David Tellefson and goalies Ken Rosen and Peter Stringfellow, the defense kept opponents from scoring all year. Leading scorer Todd Gilligan, who scored 5 goals in one game, led the offense of Jaimie Trueblood, Justin Davanzo and Greg Colvin. Also contributing to the team's success, were the great half-backs. Although plagued by injuries, center-half-back Jason Lublin, who scored twice against the team's toughest opponent Lycee, played tough in the middle, and he was aided strongly by sophomores Ilan Biederman and David Doostan. Great season, guys!!!

8TH GRADE BASKETBALL

After winning the league championship in seventh grade, the eighth grade basketball team has come back strong. The eighth grade team is a very talented group, and they are showing it on the court. Led by Michael Belasco, Jonah Naulls, and Derrick Amey the eighth grade team has had another exciting and productive season.

7TH GRADE BASKETBALL

The Seventh Grade Basketball Team had an outstanding season this year. In past years they have been known as the "other" lower school basketball team, but that name has been fleeting in the two previous years and this year is no exception. Led by a starting five of Daniel Kato, David Manpearl, Kevin Rille, David Bronson, and forward and team leader Ricky David the seventh grade team is one of the strongest in league again this year.

L.S. BOYS' SOCCER

The Lower School Soccer team had a good year. They made vast improvements in their game with the help of some key players: Tom Clossey, Matt Solomon, and Danny Keston. But, everyone helped the team. Our overall record for the season was 4-2.

L.S. GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The lower school girls' basketball team finished its season with a 10-0 league record and a 15-0 record overall. They were Independence League champions and they won the Independence League Tournament. The team was led by Holly Agajanian, Kelly Underhill, Stephanie Collins, Jana Baumgarten, Amy Uhrman and Julie Uhrman. Kelly Underhill was named M.V.P. All nineteen players contributed to the winning season.

BOYS' VARSITY BASEBALL

Move Up in Standings

Brentwood Baseball — there's nothing like it.

1987 saw all the expectations of a successful year come true. With few returning players, the team managed to move up two spots in a very tough Delphic League. The team played well with some of the best teams in Small School's baseball. The flashy glove of Xan Converse and fine pitching from Arturo Alvarez made for a very entertaining season. Senior Kevin Dicker's steady play served as an example for the team to follow. This year's players are all good boys and will go on to achieve great things.

BOYS' VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Winning Tradition Continues

The 1987 Brentwood Volleyball Team follows on the heels of the most successful men's volleyball campaign in Brentwood history. The 1986 Volleyball Team finished second in C.I.F., an accomplishment consistent with the continuing improvement and development of Brentwood's volleyball program at all levels.

The 1987 Brentwood Team expects to continue the winning ways of predecessors. Leading this year's varsity team is Varsity Captain Shannon Naulls, a two year varsity letterman who is arguably the best middle blocker in C.I.F. 3A. Also returning from last year's team are setters K.C. Burns and Trey Gardner, and outside hitter Jeff Zook. Because of their experience these four players will form the nucleus of this year's team and carry much of the load.

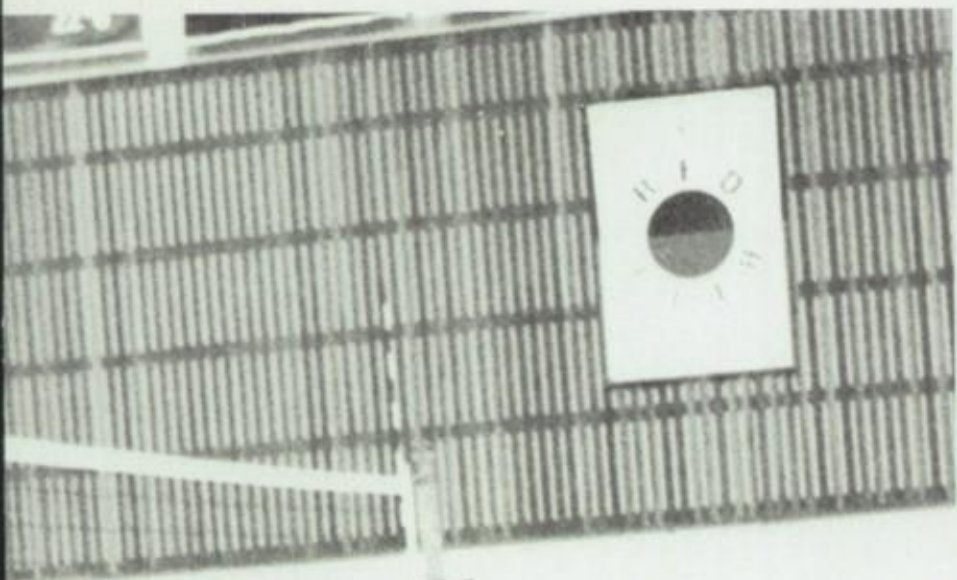

Moving up from last year's junior varsity team are Michael Victor, Ian Dalsemer, and Raymond Watt. A successful transition from the J.V. level to the varsity level for these players will be crucial for Brentwood to reach the top. Two newcomers, Gary Hewson and Seth Jacobsen, round off this year's varsity squad.

Early season efforts have been promising as intensity levels have run high. Continued hard work, along with the development of team unity, will ensure another winning year for Brentwood Volleyball.

BOYS' VARSITY TENNIS

Looking for CIF Title

Coach Jane Willens opened the first practice with the words — "This is the year. This is it!" The boys' varsity tennis team has high hopes of winning the CIF championship. Led by seniors Joshua Berman, Glen Ingalls, and Reade Ryan, the team is striving for the top. Paced by freshman phenom Ari Nathan, juniors Greg Chiate and Steve Riefman, and senior Howard Roth, the team, despite a slow start, is now going strong. With the help of returning doubles player Dylan Leiner, Russel Grossman, and Evan Strauss, and new players Jeremy Lurey, Michael Oshman, and Adam Hirst, the team is on its way. Good Luck!

Most CIF Qualifiers Ever

This season's track and field team was comprised mainly of freshmen and sophomore athletes. The remaining members included one junior girl, one junior boy and one senior girl. It was a young team but gave a good account of itself in practice and in meets.

Our first meet of the season was at Cal State Northridge against Faith Baptist had a great performance from Jay Langan in the 200 meters with a time of 24.41 sec. Derek Woodard won the long jump with a fine leap of 20 feet 6 inches. Jordan Karubian won the 800 meters in 2:29.42. In the girls' events Adrienne Stevens won the 100 meters in 13:47 and placed 2nd in the 200 meters in 28.80. Jamila Banks won the 200 meters in 28:64.

Our next meet against Oakwood and Buckley at Buckley. Tony Crane placed second in the 330 hurdles with a time of 49:48 sec. Brentwood won the 4x100 relay in a fine time of 48:19. Joey Sorrentino placed second in the mile with a time of 5:37.

On April 11, 1987, we travelled up North for the Russell Cup Track and Field meet. We were not disappointed in the results. Tony Crane ran a personal best in the 110 hurdles in a time of 18:96 sec. Derek Woodard placed second in long jump. The 4x100 relay ran a time of 46 sec. The team finished on an up note doing well at Small School Invitational and at league finals. Four team members went on to CIF: Adrienne Stevens in the 100, 220; Derek Woodard, in long jump; 4x100 relay (Aaron Schwartz, Jay Langan, Tony Wong, and Derek Woodard.)

It was a great year. I am looking forward to the next two years. The potential is there to be a formidable team.

GIRLS' VARSITY SOFTBALL

Late Season Upsurge

The 1987 Girls' Softball Team, coached by Mike Feldman, is looking forward to a fine season. With eight starters returning, the team has bundles of experience. Made up of two seniors, seven juniors, one sophomore and three freshmen, this competitive group of girls hopes to finish strongly in league standings, even after having a slow-start in pre-season play. Co-captains Kay Enns and Stefani Relles provide team leadership, especially against tough opponents Beverly Hills and Crossroads. Enns, a centerfielder, leads the outfield of Joanne Bronson and Rima Akkad. Shortstop Emily Wolk, who leads the team in homeruns, and pitcher Tanika Ray are the foundation for the team's often errorless defense. Coach Feldman proudly said, "Tanika is the pitcher of the future." Other strong starters, Heather Combigue, Karen West and Laura Booker also help to support the unpassable in field defense. Good luck to the Girls' Softball Team of 1987.

JV BASEBALL

The JV Baseball team enjoyed a successful year in 1987. With some of the best talent in recent history, Coach Lance Bell kept the team at the top of the Delphic League Standings. Extremely proficient in the batter's box, the team was led by the consistent clutch hitting of Danny Brown, Josh Chetwynd, Mark "The Natural" Harris, Malcolm Heinicke, and Matt Hatten. Equally apt in the field, Ross Gerber, Michael Caravelli, and Brett Bartman were defensive institutions. The pitching staff consisted of Hatten, Heinicke, and South-paw freshman prospect Jeff Suddleson. Next year's team should do just as well if not better due to the abundance of stars in this year's freshman class.

JV VOLLEYBALL

The 1987 Boys' JV Volleyball Team was young but strong. Comprised of two 10th graders and ten 9th graders, the team was very experienced for their age.

At the pre-season La Serna Tournament, the team finished in 2nd place, losing to Mira Costa, 18-16. Strong play by Randy Brown-ing and Hamilton Von Watt led the team through the playoffs of that tournament.

Made up of 12 dedicated players, this team has the potential to be outstanding.

L.S. BOYS' BASEBALL

L.S. TENNIS TEAM

Success! The Lower School Tennis team had a super year. Undeclared in match play, the team finished a perfect 10-0. Domination of the league can be seen in the fact that the all-league doubles final featured only Brentwood (Chris Lee and Marc Kuebeck vs. Casey Myers and Jeff ), while Michael Bartman participated in the singles' final. David Manpearl won every match he played; who knows how he'd have fared in league finals had he not injured a leg. A nice mix of boys and girls, 7th and 8th graders, the L.S. Tennis team is a great bunch.

The Lower School Softball team completed its season with a league record of 5 wins and 1 loss. The one loss was to Westlake, and the two teams elected to finish as co-champions. A successful friendship tournament for all the teams in the league was held at Sawtelle Field and again Brentwood finished as co-champions. Holly Agajanian was chosen as M.V.P. of the team. Coach Nancy Hooker says this is one of the best softball teams she has coached at Brentwood.

LACROSSE CLUB

It's nothing but a sport for preppies, say some. Maybe so, but it's not for the yacht-type prepster or the tennis-and-bridge set. No, it's sport for scar-faced preppies. Preppies from Hell.

Actually, Lacrosse is an indigenous American experience. It's like jazz. Like R.C. Colas and Moonpies. In the beginning the game was played for high stakes. Native Americans invented the game and played until the opposing squad's village was ash.

Now, on Tuesday afternoons, a select band of craftsmen and technicians hone the war-like sport to something closer to an art. They whittle away at the rough edges of the game. And the result is a razor-sharp excellence. Consider the underhand shot from the wrist of Mike Frumovitz; some say it cooks like a lazar beam. And the dazzling stickwork of Roach and Clossey give us a firsthand sense of the sleight-of-hand man.

In closing the Lacrosse Club would like to thank the various carpools which have consented at pick-up time to let their sleek, foreign cars be used as backstops against the hurtling ball. All savages agree that the compressed rubber lacrosse ball makes a satisfying dull thud on the broadside.

SUPERSTARS DAY

Superstars Day is a day when each grade, as a team, competes against each other. The grades rotate from area to area competing in activities. A class wins by compiling participation points. Each grade also opens a food booth to raise money. This year, the seventh grade won both the tug-of-war and the overall competition. A special "thank you" to Marni Hecht and Chris Valeo, who organized the day. Superstars '87 — another fun day in the sun!

HOME COMING

The AFS activity consists of a group of students whose goal is to raise the money needed to keep the AFS program at Brentwood. In order to do this, the students must plan bake sales and gather donations from parents. In addition to fund raising, this group also views international films, eats at foreign restaurants, and discusses foreign cultures. The group is led by president Kelly Maney, vice-president Josh Abel, and treasurer Tracy Gordon.

VA; PEER COUNSELING

The Peer counseling activity, led by Mrs. Krenzien, is working on the use of basic counseling skills. Their meetings are usually spent discussing and aiding basic problems many teenagers face today. The group eventually hopes to begin a program that can offer help to Brentwood students who have problems and need someone to talk to. This activity is well on its way to benefiting the Brentwood community.

The Veterans Administration activity consists of a group of students who volunteer to go to the VA hospital and entertain the patients. Every Tuesday the students go to the hospital and read, play checkers, or talk with them. For a special treat, during the Christmas season, the group presents the patients with gifts donated by B-Wood students. The VA activity is obviously a worthwhile effort.

CHESS

LOWER SCHOOL CHEERLEADING

VARSITY CHEERLEADING

This year the upper school was lucky enough to have the first Varsity cheerleading squad in many years. These girls were really fun and spirited cheerleaders that boosted school spirit to an all time high. Each team really appreciated the support received from these girls, and everyone enjoyed watching them enliven Brentwood games. The 1987 Varsity Cheerleaders include: Lanren Pressman, Lori Silberberg, Cathy Greenleaf, Missy Howard, Jenny Crystal, Anna Waronker, Dori Ross, and Holly Hatch.

PERFORMING ARTS NIGHT

FALL MUSICAL

Under the direction of Nora Gaffin, and the musical guidance of Jon Reed, this year's Upper School Musical "South Pacific" was a huge success. Tracie Temple, Stephanie Dicker, and Tony Crane were all fabulous in their leading roles, while Michael Agbabian, Michelle Rodino and Brian Fischer, and so many other supported them beautifully. Traditionally held in the Mt. Saint Mary's auditorium, the production was sold out both nights, and the cast sang and danced their hearts out. Congratulations to everyone on a job well done.

Creative Art

Pep Club

This year the Pep Club activity was stronger than ever. Basically, the club's goal is to raise school spirit. This is done by making posters, and raising money for school functions. The groups list of achievements included planning the singing telegrams on Valentine's Day, helping decorate for the spring Lu Au, and planning all the intramural activities. Headed by Allie Jones, the Pep Club has successfully won the spirit of B-Wood. Hopefully the Pep Club will continue its tradition of raising school spirit for many years to come.

Year in Review

Year in Review, headed by Mr. Porter, is made up of Upper School students with a desire to take pictures. The pictures they take will capture Brentwood as itself, its best and worst. These pictures will then be put into a slide show at the end of the year which will no doubt be fun and entertaining.

Lower School Yearbook

Lower School Yearbook is a unique opportunity for Lower School students to participate in creating the yearbook. They learn many basic yearbook skills; they also spend some time learning about the darkroom. The L.S. staff represents the lower school in the making of the yearbook.

Student Art

In the home stretch of this project I'm supposed to sum up an entire year in three paragraphs, only minutes before our final deadline. First of all I would like to thank the staff:

Christian Gudegast
Reade Ryan
Laurie Arent
Kelly Maney
Stacey Reiss
Adrienne Stevens
Nancy Benfield
Laura Booker
Tavin Marin
David Givner
Greg Liberman
Nick Zavos

Because without them this yearbook would never have been completed.

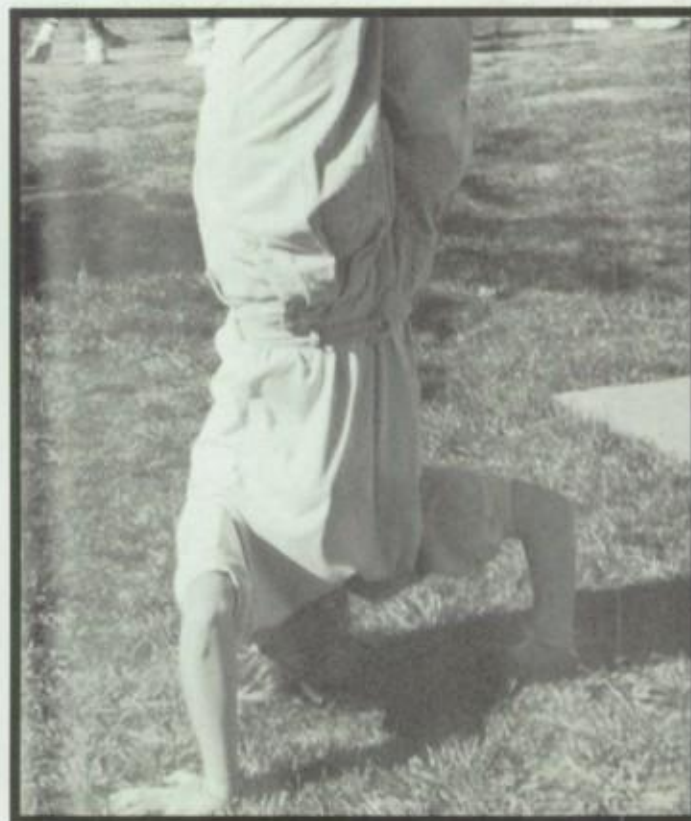

A special thanks to: Mr. Krause, Mr. Porter, Mrs. Hooker.

Second of all I would like to thank the editorial staff: Josh Berman (business) for making ten thousand dollars worth of ads; Gretchen Cummings (photography) for trying to get us organized; Mike Frumovitz (sports) for getting in your senior page; and Jessica for dealing with . . .

As the year passed the book grew, almost uncontrollably. There are more seniors, more ads, and more pages than ever before. We got our act together though, as you can see.

Special thanks to Mrs. Foier, Mr. Magier, and Corey for surviving. I would also like to thank Matt Hayutin and Chris Valeo for their extra time and photo contributions. Anyway it's finished!

Kim Pressman
Editor

Upper School Newspaper

Meeting regularly as a class, and headed by Mr. McCune, the Flyer staff unites and edits the school newspaper. Some students work on photography while others learn interview techniques and the requirements of reporting. At times, extremely controversial, the Flyer produces articles which relate to all Brentwood students in some way. Turning out an informative and interesting newspaper, the staff is a talented group of writers and editors.

Amaranth

Amaranth, the all-school literary magazine, was conceived of, organized, and laid out by the Amaranth activity. With the aid of Mr. Cronin and editor Kiko Korn, the activity collected poetry, prose, art and photography submissions from both upper school and lower school students. These were edited by the staff and organized into the finished literary magazine. Amaranth is an important magazine because it allows the students to express their creativity. Overall, Amaranth is a truly worthwhile activity.

Orchestra

This year's orchestra activity is basically open to anyone who plays an instrument and wants to practice with other B-Wood musicians. Meeting regularly as a class, and led by Mr. Reed, the group learns and practices classical pieces. During the course of the year, the group plays a total of 12 performances including the Winter Concert and The Performing Arts Night. Overall, the orchestra is a group of hard-working students dedicated to entertaining the school with their beautiful music.

School Senate

The School Senate meets every Tuesday afternoon in the Upstairs Conference Room. Nineteen people sit on this exclusive organization. These people include each class president and vice president from the seventh through the eleventh grade, twelfth grade president, two of the four prefects, four faculty members, and the directors of the Lower and the Upper School.

Various groups have discussed the Honor Code, school elections, and getting the responsibilities of class officers to be listed in the Student Handbook.

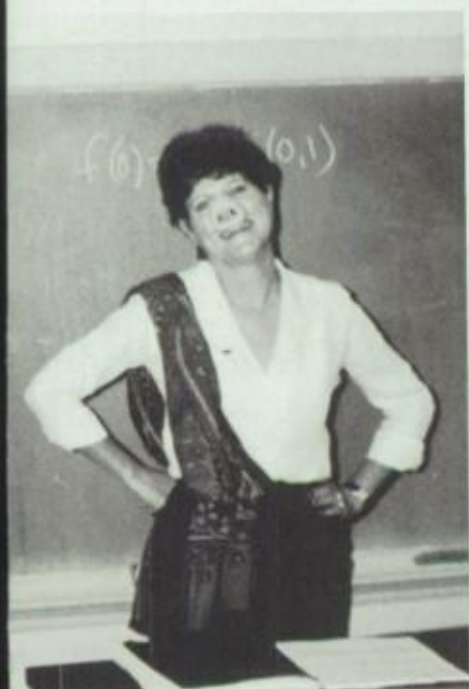

When the senate wants to make a suggestion, a vote is taken. If majority rules, the suggestion is reviewed by Dr. Temple. He can change, accept, or not accept the suggestion.

"The School Senate affords an opportunity for students and faculty to work together on equal footing. This promises a non-adversarial relationship between students and faculty." — Mrs. Catterall

BRENTWOOD SCHOOL PARENTS' ASSOCIATION

The Brentwood School Parents' Association is a group of parents committed to the support of Brentwood School. There are many areas that you may see us at work. We have volunteers that help with the tours through the school; help with the many social functions that your children attend; help with orientation luncheons; picnics; open house; grade level parties. The list could go on and on. For the first time in many years we held a Holiday Luncheon Boutique that was very successful. Many of you attended and made new friends.

At the beginning of each school year we host a Parent Faculty Reception which is always well attended. This reception is held to acquaint teachers and parents. In the Spring we have our annual fund raiser. This year we will be working hard on "Street Scene." The proceeds from all our fund raising is donated to the school in the form of audio visual equipment, enrichment programs, $10,000.00 to the earthquake awareness program, and presently we are helping the school with the purchase of new computers for our computer department.

At the end of the year a Thank You Luncheon is given to our hard working faculty. We value their support and endless hours of extra time devoted to our children.

The Parents' Association would like to thank all our hard working families for their donations of time and money and encourage you all to keep up the support.

OUR VERY BEST WISHES TO THE CLASS OF 1987.

LORD HORATIO NELSON

LORD HORATIO NELSON, BORN IN THE YEAR OF THE RETURN OF HALLEY'S COMET SEPTEMBER 29, 1758-1805, WAS A MAN WHOSE BOLD STROKES CHANGED THE COURSE OF HISTORY. HIS REVOLUTIONARY BATTLE PLAN FOR VICTORY AT TRAFALGAR 1805 ENDED THE DOMINANCE OF THE FRENCH AND SPANISH FLEETS AND OPENED UP THE SEAS FOR SAFE AND PREDICTABLE TRADE. ALTHOUGH AN OUTSTANDING STRATEGIST AND TACTICIAN, NELSON'S GREATEST STRENGTH WAS HIS UNFAILING BELIEF IN HIS MEN. THE ESSENCE OF NELSON'S LEADERSHIP WAS HIS ABILITY TO INSPIRE EVERYONE AROUND HIM TO EXCEL THEMSELVES.

In the spirit of "The Nelson Touch" Comet Capital salutes the graduating class of Brentwood School in the year 1987.
